Speaker Welch: "The House will be in order. Members will be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by Wayne Padget, the Assistant Doorkeeper. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones, and rise for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance. Mr. Padget."

Assistant Doorkeeper Padget: "Let us pray. Lord, as we prepare for Session today, I ask freshness of your spirit, to quicken our thinking; that out of confused issues, may come simplicity of plan; that out of fear, may come confidence; that out of hurry, may come deliberation; that out of frustration, may come guidance. Let us get to work, not head first, but heart first. May we be able to be disagreeable while we disagree, to differ without being difficult, to be honest without tension, and to be frank without offense in an atmosphere of team spirit in this august Body. These things we pray, Amen."

Speaker Welch: "Amen. We will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance today by Representative Mason."

Mason - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker Welch: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Gabel is recognized to report any excused absences on the Democratic side of the aisle."

Gabel: "Speaker, let the record show that Representatives Ammons, Blair-Sherlock, Carroll, and Burke are excused today."

Speaker Welch: "Representative Keicher is recognized to report any excused absences on the Republican side of the aisle."

Keicher: "Mr. Speaker, please let the record reflect that Representative Tim Ozinga is excused for today."

Speaker Welch: "Record will reflect. With 111 Members being present, we do have enough Members to conduct business today. Leader McCombie is recognized."

McCombie: Good morning, Speaker. If I could have the attention of the..."

Speaker Welch: "Members... Members."

McCombie: "Thank you."

Speaker Welch: "Leader McCombie is recognized."

McCombie: "Thank you. I appreciate that. Good morning, everybody, and welcome to the 103rd. Looking forward to being in this position, and I hope everybody is feeling well after a long night last night, I'm guessing. But I... I do want to just, real quickly, introduce, to his dismay, my husband is here with me. Many of you have met him, Curt Hockman. As I said yesterday, this is certainly a team sport. So, none of us could do this unless we had good support with us. And that being said, if it's all right with you, Speaker, I would like to announce for the record who my leadership team is going to be."

Speaker Welch: "It's all right with me."

McCombie: "All right. Great. As many of you are already aware, my Deputy Leader will be Representative Hammond. And as... we'll just go on down the chart. The second Deputy Leader will be Representative Ryan Spain. Our... our Conference Chair is going to be Representative Jeff Keicher. And I'll just go down the list for my Assistant Republican Leaders, if you would like to hold your applause. Representative Davidsmeyer, Stephens,

One... and I'd like to also welcome him back to the chambers, John Cabello. He's going to be Assistant Republican Leader. Thank you. I'm sorry."

Speaker Welch: "Thank you, Leader McCombie. Mr. Clerk, Agreed Resolutions."

Clerk Hollman: "Agreed Resolution. House Resolution 5, offered by Representative Moeller."

Speaker Welch: "Leader Gabel moves for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. Leader Gabel moves for the adoption of the Agreed Resolutions. All those in favor in say 'aye'; all those opposed say 'nay'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it. And the Agreed Resolutions are adopted. Representative Miller is recognized. For what reason do you rise?"

Miller: "Thank you. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Welch: "Speak your point."

Miller: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I rise today in response to the Speaker's comments yesterday, attacking my wife, as well as the Freedom Caucus in Washington for holding firm on their commitments to drain the swamp. I want to thank the 20 conservative patriots in the U.S. House of Representatives for their efforts to stop reckless spending and debt that is crushing our country. Those 20 Members of Congress fought against the status quo to get hard spending caps so that Washington can actually cut spending at a time with record inflation and a $31 trillion debt. In this chamber, on both sides of the aisle, we can learn a lesson from their courage. A broken Congress is a Congress that passes a 4 thousand page, 1.7 trillion omnibus Bill that nobody read, passing it in the middle of the night on Christmas Eve. That is something that cannot happen again, thanks to these 20 patriots. I'm proud that the Illinois Freedom Caucus is fighting fiscal sanity here in Springfield. And my constituents appreciate the bold effort of 20 Freedom Caucus Members for doing the same thing in Washington, D.C. Thank you very much, and God bless you all."

Speaker Welch: "Representative Kifowit is recognized."

Kifowit: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Welch: "Please state your point."

Kifowit: "Mr. Speaker, our office, just like many other offices, have wonderful interns that come with us, that work with us, and that learn our process. And I'm blessed to have two in the gallery today. So, I would like the Body to welcome and thank my two interns: Sebastian Wong and Nestor Ruiz. They have finished their internship and are going on to greater things, but if the Body can give them a round of applause to welcome them."

Speaker Welch: "Leader Manley, for what reason do you rise?"

Manley: "Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Welch: "Please state your point."

Manley: "I just want to quickly introduce those from my district office who traveled down for what they said was a thrill of a lifetime. Behind us here, would you guys stand up? Robert Gilbert, my chief of staff. Andrea Bibian and Tegen Roman. Thanks for coming down and being with us. Hardworking."

Speaker Welch: "Representative Mah is recognized. Representative Mah."

Mah: "Point of personal privilege, please."

Speaker Welch: "Please state your point."

Mah: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Good morning, colleagues, Members of the Body. I would like to take this opportunity to remind everyone that Monday, January 30, is Korematsu Day, when we celebrate the life and legacy of Fred Korematsu, a true American hero. We will not be in Session on that actual day, so I thought it would be important to make this acknowledgement today. Fred Korematsu fought a case all the way to the Supreme Court in 1944 against our country's incarceration of 120 thousand individuals of Japanese ancestry, over half of whom were U.S. citizens. The court, unfortunately, ruled against him at the time and he was incarcerated along with other Japanese Americans in various prisons and wartime concentration camps in our country. He continued to speak up for our civil liberties, to speak against injustice and racism."

Speaker Welch: "Representative... Representative, can you pause for a moment? This is very important what you're saying. Members, can we bring down the noise just a bit to be respectful of what Representative Mah is discussing? Representative Mah."

Mah: "So, Fred Korematsu continued to speak up for our civil liberties and to speak out against injustice and racism, including against the registration of Muslim Americans after 9/11. Forty years later, the Supreme Court decision in the Korematsu case was overturned. And in 1998, he was ultimately honored with the Presidential Medal of Freedom for a lifetime of fighting for freedom and fairness before he died in 2005. It is important for me to bring up Fred Korematsu's legacy here for the House record because it's an example of how representation matters. Six years ago, when I first joined the General Assembly, one of the first words I uttered on the House Floor was to recognize Korematsu Day. It was important for me to share a bit of Asian American history with my colleagues and especially history concerning an individual who stood up for civil liberties, civil rights, and the importance of our U.S. Constitution. Today, I'm proud to be part of a Body that is much more diverse and includes many new voices in this conversation about laws and policies that affect everyone in our diverse state. In recognizing Korematsu Day in our chamber, especially at a moment in history when voting rights, civil rights, and civil liberties continue to be threatened, we reiterate our commitment to that diversity and our continued commitment to civil rights, civil liberties, and the defense of the Constitution of the United States. Thank you, colleagues."

Mason: "Thank you. Everybody, the other day you had an opportunity to welcome my daughter to the chamber. Today, on this first day of the 103rd General Assembly, I'd like to ask you to join me in welcoming my son, Grant. Grant is a senior at Warren Township High School. And I'm so happy to have him here. Elik: "I just wanted to thank all of the staff that came to inauguration yesterday to help all of us and help guide our families and make sure they all got to their seats. And we took thousands, probably, of pictures of all of us together with our friends and family. Especially wanted to thank April and... and her help that she gave to my family. But I know we all had people there helping... helping us, especially those of us that... that was our first one at UIS. So, thank you to all the staff, and appreciate all you do."

Speaker Welch: "Representative Frese is recognized."

Frese: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Welch: "State your point, Sir."

Frese: This morning at 10:30, Governor JB Pritzker was... graced our grounds in the 99th District in Quincy, Illinois, at the Illinois Veterans' Home. And for some of you, this will be a little bit of an update. And for all our new Members, this will be perhaps some of the first time you've heard this. But Illinois has one of the largest capital improvement programs going on at the Illinois Veterans' Home in Quincy. As a matter of fact, it is the largest capital improvement of all veterans' administration throughout the 50 states. And it's a $250 million improvement... capital improvement. It's... it's wonderful. And Governor Pritzker was there today. He... he empathizes the importance of what's going on there. And they're setting the last I-beam in place for the structure, the full structure. And I... I just say this that, you may see this in the news as... as the Governor always makes the news.

Speaker Welch: "Representative Canty is recognized."

Canty: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Welch: "Please state your point."

Canty: "I want to take a moment to thank everybody for welcoming me into this caucus and also allowing my family to be here. My daughter, Emma, who hopes to be our President one day. My son, Jackson. My husband, Chris, who's at the back. And my parents, Lieutenant Commander Keith Canty and Judy Canty, who flew here from Virginia to be with us. So, thank you all for letting us take this opportunity. And thank you to my dad for his service."

Hirschauer: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Point of personal privilege."

Speaker Welch: "Please state your point."

Hirschauer: "Thank you. I just wanted to take a moment to welcome my district staff who's down here. Springfield showed them a really good time last night, but they woke up this morning to come see some floor action. I have three interns from Aurora University up in the gallery: Isabel, Annabelle, and Wendy. And our constituent service director, Mariah. Welcome to Springfield."

I also want to say we've... we've had a lot of friends that've moved on, that have retired, that are going on to different careers or... or just retiring. We also had that on the staff side. And... and there are a couple of very important people to me that... that recently moved on. Emily Gibbons, who ended up our staff, which is kind of funny because she babysat my nephew at my wedding. So, this was long time ago. And a good friend, Ryan Tozer, who has been with me on my staff for a long time, basically since... almost since I've been here and we've become great friends. I'm going to miss seeing him around here, but I think we will see some of those... those faces around fairly often. So, I... I appreciate the... the time to say a farewell to good friends and to welcome new friends. Thank you."

Speaker Welch: "Representative Ness is recognized."

Ness: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Two years ago, in the last Inauguration, of course we didn't have anybody here."

Speaker Welch: "Please state your point."

Ness: "So, this time it was a great pleasure to be able to have friends and family. A couple of them stuck around this morning. My Uncle Dan is up in the gallery, as well as two very good friends, Greg and Holly Glover, who made the trip. So, I wanted to just welcome them to Springfield. I also want to say... Speaker Welch: "Agreed Resolutions have already been adopted. Just a quick announcement. The Rules will come up when we return at the end of January. And the Democratic side will be notified sometime this afternoon of our leadership team, and then we will make it known to the public. But the caucus will be notified first. Mr. Clerk, please read the Adjournment Resolution."
