Information

- 1879 Photo Montage. Hanging in the West Corridor Alcove on the House side is a Photo Montage from 1879, depicting the Illinois House of Representatives during the 31st Legislative Session. This was a new method of incorporating the drawing arts with photography. This photo montage may be the only example of a legislative body in the country.
- Deadline. Any bills on the House calendar or scheduled for a committee hearing as of Friday, May 25, will have the deadline extended thru Thursday, May 31.
- Amended Bills and Concurrence Motions. Motions to Concur or Non-Concur in Senate Amendments to a House Bill. Members should review the House Calendar to see if they are a sponsor of a house bill that has returned from the Senate for concurrence. As soon as possible, the member should file a motion at the Clerk's Well to Concur or Non-Concur in the Senate Amendment. If any member needs clarification on this procedure, please ask caucus staff or the Clerk's office for assistance.
