4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

- Clerk Hollman: "House Perfunctory Session will come to order.

 Introduction of Resolutions. House Resolutions 36, offered by Representative Gabel, is referred to the Rules Committee."
- Speaker Manley: "The House will be in order. Members will be in their chairs. We shall be led in prayer today by Wayne Padget, the Assistant Doorkeeper. Members and guests are asked to refrain from starting their laptops, turn off all cell phones, and rise for the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance. Mr. Padget."
- Assistant Doorkeeper Padget: "Let us pray. Dear heavenly Father, we thank you for the opportunity to meet together today in this august Body. As we work around the Capitol today, surround us with your love. Lord, allow us to see your beauty, feel your love, know your wisdom, and experience your power. May we find the comfort we desire in you and the strength we need in your name. Surround us with your presence and be with us in every hour of the day. May your love be the passion in our hearts, your joy be our strength when times are hard, and your presence be the peace that overflows in our lives. These things we pray, Amen."
- Speaker Manley: "We will be led in the Pledge of Allegiance today by Representative Swanson."
- Swanson et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."
- Speaker Manley: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Gabel is recognized to report any excused absences on the Democratic side of the aisle."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

- Gabel: "Speaker, let the record show that Representative Blair-Sherlock is excused today."
- Speaker Manley: "Representative Keicher is recognized to report any excused absences on the Republican side of the aisle."
- Keicher: "Madam Speaker, it's an honor to reply to your request.

 The Republicans report that Representatives Reick and Rosenthal are excused for today."
- Speaker Manley: "Have all recorded themselves who wish? Mr. Clerk, please take the record. There being 110 Members answering the roll call, a quorum is present. Chair recognizes Representative Collins for a point of personal privilege."
- Collins: "Thank you, Madam Chair. So, as the month of February begins, it is the celebration of Black History Month. And as the Chair of the Illinois... the House Black Caucus, I am proud to stand in solidarity with my brothers and sisters. This is a month that we celebrate the contributions to the many leaders who have paved the way for all of us, whether it be through the struggles or the barriers we face and the many times that we have overcome. Though there is still a lot of work that needs to be done, we want to take time to highlight the many giants who deserve recognitions to their contributions. And today, we will start with Representative Cyril Nichols of the 32nd District."

Nichols: "Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Nichols."

Nichols: "Thank you. Appreciate that. My seat used to be over there, downstate Illinois. Now, I'm upstate Illinois. Just wanted to say hi to you guys, and I'm not far away. That's my people over there. Carter G. Woodson was born in 1875 to illiterate parents who were former slaves. Carter G. Woodson was self-taught until the age of 20 when he entered high school and completed his diploma in two years. Woodson worked as a teacher and a principal, then pursued and obtained his bachelor's degree from Berea College in Kentucky. After spending some time of his life traveling abroad to countries in Asia and Europe, he earned his master's degree from the University of Chicago and became the second black person to attend Harvard, where he obtained his Ph.D. Throughout his studies and experiences in life, Woodson realized he would have to create a separate institution structured to help scholars study and preserve black history. His efforts led to the creation of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History in 1915. Woodson also launched Negro History Week in 1926, which turned into Black History Month. Carter G. Woodson also is credited with publishing many books including The Mis-Education of the Negro, A Century of Negro Migration, and The Negro in Our History. This is an amazing man, an accomplished man, and I just hope that everybody understands all of our history in this chamber is important and that fact that we have the opportunity to speak not only in this chamber but to the world about what black history means to America. 'Cause there is no America without black history. I really appreciate your time. I really appreciate everybody for listening. And every day we're here, we're going to deliver a black history fact, but know that black history is 365 days and not the shortest month of the year. Thank you so much. Appreciate it."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

- Speaker Manley: "Thank you, Representative. Mr. Clerk, Rules Report."
- Clerk Hollman: "Rules Report. Representative Gabel, Chairperson from the Committee on Rules reports the following committee action taken on February 1, 2023: recommends be adopted, referred to the Order of Resolutions is House Resolution 36."
- Speaker Manley: "On Supplemental Calendar #1, under the Order of Resolutions, we have House Resolution 36, offered by Leader Gabel. Leader Gabel."
- "Thank you, Madam Speaker. This Resolution is our House rules changes. As you know, we need to vote on our House Rules before we can conduct business here. There are six points. I'm going to go through each of them. The first point talks about remote participation. It removes remote floor voting. It allows full remote committee and task force participation, including voting on non-Session days when the location has sufficient technology to support that. It also allows for remote committee and task force participation on any day for subject matter hearings. And it... fourth thing is, it allows a remote witnesses for committees at the discretion of the committee chair when the location has sufficient technology to support such remote participation. The second rule change reestablishes the Rules Committee discretion. It removes the provision from the 102nd GA rules that required the Rules Committee to automatically discharge all Bills during the first year of a GA. This is consistent with... with the way we've conducted... conducted procedures in the House before that. The third is Consent Calendar clarification. clarifies that Consent Calendar is not in effect unless ordered by the Speaker. The fourth point updates the COVID decorum rules. It renames the rule to replace COVID with the more generic term 'pestilence or public danger'. standardizes language so that it is triggered by a declaration of pestilence or public danger by the Speaker. Currently, there is some differences and currently some provisions are triggered by the Speaker's declaration and others are triggered by the disaster proclamation by the Governor. It also clarifies that the Speaker can order other reasonable and necessary safety precautions to respond to the pestilence or public danger, in addition to the current ones. And number five is a committee appointments clarification. It adds language to the rule regarding committee terms clarifying that appointments are for the term, unless replacement as a permanent Member by the Speaker or Minority Leader. And the sixth change is, it establishes the 103rd GA committees, which are a little different than the ones for the past."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Leader McCombie."

McCombie: "Thank you, Leader. Will the Sponsor yield for a few questions?"

Speaker Manley: "She indicates that she will."

McCombie: "Thank you. I was hoping the Speaker was also going to be on the floor. So, hopefully, you can answer some of the... the questions that he and I had spoke about. So, as we all know, the rules govern our process. Our Members have seen the recommendations as put together by Representatives Niemerg, Keicher, and Davidsmeyer. Did your Members see our letter of priorities or was it just your working group?"

Gabel: "The working group was informed on... about them."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

McCombie: "Okay. All right. So, just to bring everybody up to speed, the House Republicans, we are here, as we have stated, to govern. We are here to offer solutions. So, we had five priorities, and on top of that, several bullet points to help make the rules better for you, for us, and for the public. Two of the five priorities that we had, you are agreeing to. And those are concerning the Consent Calendar as well as the remote participation. Is that correct?"

Gabel: "Yes."

"Okay. And then you have an additional piece there McCombie: concerning the updates to the COVID decorum. And I'm also appreciative of that, was not one of our requests, but concerned... addresses the concerns of executive overreach. So, thank you for that piece. When I spoke with Speaker Welch on a couple different occasions, one of the... the concerns that we have is on your number three, re-establishing the Rules Committee discretion. And my understanding, that came from the working group. In the past, and there's several people in this chamber that's not familiar of the old process, but a lot of Bills went into rules and sat and just died there. I quess really no difference than them coming out of rules and going to committee to die as well, but we're kind of going back to the way it used to be. I had spoke to the Speaker and said and asked, if there were Bills that had bipartisan support, whether it's 5, 10, 15 Republicans, 5, 10, 15 Democrats, your Members, our Members worked their legislation to put forth bipartisan support, would those Bills have a better chance of coming out of rules and going before a committee to have their... their day in committee? Would you...

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

would you agree with the Speaker and with me that that's the intent of the Rules Committee?"

Gabel: "The intent of the Rules Committees is pretty much to process all the legislation that comes through."

McCombie: "Maybe I wasn't clear. I'm sorry to interrupt you. If we have bipartisan Bills, as Republicans and as new Members on the Democrat side, if we have bipartisan support, will our Bills have an opportunity and will your new Members without seniority have an opportunity to come before committees because we have built bipartisan support? This is just asking for a show of good faith here."

Gabel: "Yes. You know, as chair of the Rules Committee, my intention is to really look at every Bill that comes through. And in the past, the vast majority of Bills have come out. I think that you'll be able to request Bills to come out, and there actually is a legal process to be able to request Bills to come out if... if they did not. So, yes, I mean, I think that I would look at, if a Bill came before the Rules Committee and it had both bipartisan support, I would look well on that Bill. Yeah."

McCombie: "And the other Members of the Rules Committee would as well, can I assume?"

Gabel: "I think you can make that assumption."

McCombie: "Okay. Great. I appreciate that. So, as a show of good faith with the conversations that I've had with the Speaker, I have stated that I would vote for these rules as a show of good faith. In our inauguration speeches, he said, 'Yes, we can.' And I said, 'Yes, we will.' I'm asking my Members to vote 'no' on these because you're going to hear a lot of reasons from my Members, their reasonings and why we're going to continue to fight this. But from my understanding, this is a Resolution and I am hoping that you will be open to having continuing conversation about rules and the effectiveness of their transparency and fairness. Thank you."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Leader Windhorst."

Windhorst: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Manley: "She indicates that she will."

Windhorst: "Leader Gabel, have you seen the letter that was sent by Leader McCombie to Speaker Welch dated December 30 of last year?"

Gabel: "I don't believe I have."

Windhorst: "That was the letter that outlined five proposals from our side of the aisle to be included in the rules. Is that..."

Gabel: "As I said, our working group did. I just... I was just appointed Rules Committee Chair. So..."

Windhorst: "Well, one of those potential rules stated that if a Bill has at least five cosponsors from both caucuses, then the Bill shall get a vote in a substantive House Committee.
A Bill that has significant bipartisan support should at least get an opportunity to receive a vote in committee. So, my question is, was that proposed rule given consideration by the working group?"

Gabel: "It was."

Windhorst: "Is it in the rules?"

Gabel: "It is not."

Windhorst: "Why was it rejected?"

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

- Gabel: "I think that they wanted to just simplify things. It really is up to the Rules Committee as to whether a Bill will come out. And committee chairs. And committee chairs."
- Windhorst: "So, instead of having 10 Members of our Body determine if a Bill could be voted on in committee, we're leaving that up to one person in each committee? Would that be fair to say?"
- Gabel: "It is the ... the right of the committee chair."
- Windhorst: "Our proposed rule would establish a bipartisan process where individuals are working across the aisle to have Bills heard and voted on in committee. It's no guarantee they would be voted on, on the floor, just that they could be heard and voted on in committee. And I think the Members on our side of the aisle believe that's just fundamentally fair. It's a matter of fairness. We're setting up the rules by which we are going to govern our Body, and fairness is a hallmark of any process that should occur. And part of a fair process is the opportunity to be heard. This rule that we proposed just allows us to be heard, allows for a vote in committee. That way all Members in this Body can have more of a say in what goes on rather than just one person or one committee chair having that say. Why was a more fair process not considered?"
- Gabel: "This process is fair. This was... these were rules developed by our working group committee. These are the rules... these are the rules... the changes that we're recommending to the rules today."
- Windhorst: "Well, I guess we'll have to disagree on that because I think what we are proposing is fundamentally more fair than the rules that have been put forward for a vote today. I'd like to ask a question about the Consent Calendar. I know there was changes made to that process. There was some questions that have come up on our side that I think we want some clarification on. It's our understanding that the Consent Calendar process is not going to be used initially. Is that accurate to say?"

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Gabel: "Correct."

Windhorst: "And we don't know yet if it may be used later in the Session. Is that accurate?"

Gabel: "Correct."

Windhorst: "Our concern is, with Bills that are called early on before the Consent Calendar is initiated, that they... those Bills may be put on the Consent Calendar without an opportunity in committee to prevent them from going on the Consent Calendar. So, I guess the question is, when the Consent Calendar, if it is initiated, will those Bills only be considered prospectively or will they be applied retroactively?"

Gabel: "It's prospectively. They can't be on the Consent Calendar until a Consent Calendar exists."

Windhorst: "And just so I'm clear... so, then it would only be Bills that are voted on in committee after the Consent Calendar is initiated that could be put on the Consent Calendar."

Gabel: "Correct."

Windhorst: "Thank you. To the Resolution. Madam Speaker, I think we've outlined, and you'll hear from other speakers, that these rules, as they've been put forward, don't meet the level of fairness that we need for this Body and that the public expects for us. So, I ask for a 'no' vote."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Niemerg."

Niemerg: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Manley: "She indicates that she will."

Niemerg: "Leader Gabel, I just have a couple of quick questions.

One of which is, do you believe in government transparency?"

Gabel: "I do."

- Niemerg: "Okay. So, I assume that within these rules you'll no longer see gut and replaces coming back from the Senate at 10:00 at night or suspension of certain rules to allow a budget drop at 11:50 or 11:55? Would that be fair to say?"
- Gabel: "You know, there's a process and there are requirements that we pass a budget by a certain date. So, I can't promise you that that will not happen. But I certainly feel like our committee meetings are fair and are... are open to the public."
- Niemerg: "What about Bills coming through at two, three, four, five in the morning where the rules are suspended? We don't... anybody on this side of the aisle, and I'm sure on your side of the aisle, most folks have no idea what's in the Bill. Will we continue to see that?"
- Gabel: "Well, all the Bills are posted. All the Bill... you can... you can see all the Bills on ILGA. I don't think that there... every Bill is there for you to read. I do think that there are times when critical issues come up that we have to move quickly on and that's... that's the process."
- Niemerg: "When you say those... those critical issues, as far as being able to look at the Bills in order to give myself and the 108 thousand folks that I represent due process, I would think there would be more time than a gut and replace drop it... dropping it on the floor, hundreds of pages, where I have no time to review the legislation in front me. Can you explain to me how that's transparency and government at two, three, four, five in the morning when most of my constituents, unless they're on third shift, are sound asleep?"

4th Legislative Day

Gabel: "Well, you won't be asleep because we'll be here in the chamber. But... hopefully. But, you know, the vast majority of the Bills that we put through this Legislature are... are done in a way where there's plenty of time to review them. The examples that you're giving are very rare and happen at times when we're in a time crunch. You always have at least... there are many times that we sit on this floor waiting for the time period to lapse, because we do have a time period that you... that we have given ourselves. So, that... it... the scene that you're talking about where a Bill is just dropped down and then we vote on it five minutes later does not happen."

Niemerg: "Well, I think it... I've seen it happen multiple times. I've only been here two years. But I've seen the budget... we have plenty of time. I sit on Appropriations-General Services. I don't see the budget until 11:50 the last night of Session. We recently had a gun Bill pass that had my name on it whenever it was over in the Senate as an innocuous insurance Bill. And I wasn't allowed to pull my name off of that Bill. It was a complete gut and replace. It came back to the House. My constituents didn't have time to review it. The SAFE-T Act passed the same way. Folks in this chamber had no time to review that Act. So, again, I'll ask you, how is that government transparency?"

Gabel: "As I said, those instances happen very rarely. The vast majority of Bills have plenty of time to go through committee,

4th Legislative Day

go through hearings, and are voted on in the House. They're on the Calendar, often times, for many, many days."

Niemerg: "So, we read through the Bills... or the rules here this morning. We got them just a little while ago. And, you know, the COVID mitigation standards we've been... we've been pushing to remove that for some time, that was removed. But a lot of this is just going back to business as usual. I mean, there were 19 of you who stood against Mike Madigan and called for change. You know, I expect 19 of you to vote 'no' on this because this goes back to the same Madigan-era politics. Our Bills will be stuck in rules, they'll never see the light of day. We're going to be passing Bills again at two, three, four, five in the morning. You're going to move to Motion for the previous question when a Bill comes over for the Senate or it's dropped at 11:55, kill off debate from our side of the aisle, deprive so many thousands of folks in the State of Illinois their... their right to have us represent them. So, honestly, I don't believe ... you tell me that you believe in government transparency. I just don't believe it. And to the Bill. Folks..."

Speaker Manley: "To the Bill."

Niemerg: "...we call for change in this Legislature all so often. We call for bipartisanship, right? And Representative... Leader Keicher and Leader Davidsmeyer and I, we proposed an idea for rules. We proposed changes. But we look at the rules now, folks are still going to be asleep, sound asleep at their homes, they're going to have the radical Bills that are going to be pushed through. The important Bills are going to be pushed through. They're not going to know anything about it,

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

and it's business as usual. So, if we want change, I think the 19 folks over there who wanted change, who wanted Mike Madigan gone, vote 'no'. Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Leader Keicher."

Keicher: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Manley: "She indicates she will."

Keicher: "Leader, thank you for bringing this forth today. I want to circle back on some of the things that you shared that were outlined in your comments there. And I want to pick up where... where Representative Niemerg left off there, concerning the working group. So, we presented these letters, these ideas, and it concerns me because I didn't see any notice of any participation for anyone on our side in that working group. Can you talk to us about the nature of the level of bipartisanship that was involved in this working group considering these rules?"

Gabel: "Well, I would say it was a working group of Democrats.

But that we... they did review the requests that you gave them."

Keicher: "So, keying in on the word 'working', I just want to confirm with you that there were no Republicans invited whatsoever to participate in the working part, only in the proposing part of some commonsense reforms?"

Gabel: "I believe that's correct."

Keicher: "Okay. Thank you. Now, you had mentioned earlier that the process was fair, that the rules came out of this working group. Can you help me understand how, as a result of what we just discussed, the process was fair? I didn't see any light of day on it until these rules were filed a short time ago."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Gabel: "Well, they were filed a couple hours ago, and you had an opportunity to review them. They are very simple rules... rule changes. There's only six of them. Four of them you totally agree with. Three of them were ones that you... that you requested. You know, the fourth establishing the 103rd committees, I don't think you have an issue with that. So, four out of six is a pretty good agreement between Democrats and Republicans."

Keicher: "And I will concur. But the ones that we did certainly didn't go to the good governance issues that prior speaker had mentioned, as well as were outlined in our letter. And that... that to suggest that process was fair when only the Majority Party was involved in the process, I think sets a bad narrative for where this House, under new leadership on both sides of the aisle, will progress. And I would strongly encourage, as we consider using the term fair or equitable, that we have concerns on this side that that doesn't necessarily rise to the measure that we would consider to fit that definition. So, I want to move forward to an idea concerning, really, the function of the committees in this process and... and go back to some of the comments that you had earlier. Can you share with me, perhaps, as chair of the Rules Committee, some scenarios, some situations where you would not consider moving or discharging a Bill from the Rules Committee? What prohibitions would you have in place on discharge?"

Gabel: "You know what, I'm very new to this position. And I would prefer not to get into hypothetical questions at this time.

You know, I think as we... as we start this process here, I

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

think it will become clearer. But let me say that anyone who wants to get a Bill out of rules can request it."

Keicher: "Okay. And so, you're not willing, at this time, to give any further explanation of what that request should elicit, request involved, subject matter, personnel, anything of that sort? You're, right now, suggesting that it is... it is your independent purview of what things would be released or discharged from rules. Is that accurate?"

Gabel: "In the committee, yes."

Keicher: "Okay. And you are chair of that committee, correct?"

Gabel: "Yes."

Keicher: "Okay. And is that committee open to having any of its deliberations broadcast on ILGA or any other format for the public consumption? I don't... I'm literally asking out of naivety, because I don't recall that ever being the case."

Gabel: "Yes. This... our last meeting was just broadcast on ILGA."

Keicher: "Okay. Thank you. I look forward to that. And then a couple other things regarding Consent Calendar and items, and I know you talked a little bit about that. It will still be the practice, if we have one 'no' vote, even though that may be symbolic in nature, it would remain off of the Consent Calendar under these current arrangements, correct?"

Gabel: "Yes. If... if the Consent Calendar were in effect, that's correct."

Keicher: "Okay. So, my question deals with things coming back as we see them from the Senate, potentially, with Amendments or that, and again, not having time to digest the rules. If we have something on Concurrence where we had originally

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

suggested it stay off the Consent Calendar, it wouldn't be on any consent for Bills originating in the Senate, correct?"

Gabel: "Correct."

Keicher: "Okay. Thank you. And then, Leader, if you could share with me a little bit regarding your rule revision to offsite testimony and when and where the remote testimony versus inperson testimony should be the… the inclination of the chair of that committee, please."

Gabel: "Well, testimony is... would be the inclination of the chair.

But it would also depend on if we had the technology in that room."

Keicher: "So, as... as we craft these rules, not necessarily Rules Committee, what would you say the guiding principles would be for a substantive committee chair on consideration for remote testimony being acceptable or unacceptable?"

Gabel: "That would be up to the chairs."

Keicher: "Okay. All right. So, that's entirely within the purview of the committee chair wherever that Bill is assigned?"

Gabel: "For witness testimony, yes."

Keicher: "Okay. I think that's all I have. Thank you for entertaining the changes that we have suggested and you have honored. We appreciate the opportunity to..."

Gabel: "Four out of six."

Keicher: "...continue to look at updating these changes to create greater transparency and equity between our two sides of the aisle. Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Davidsmeyer."

Davidsmeyer: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?" Speaker Manley: "She indicates that she will."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

- Davidsmeyer: "First, I want to say there... there are a couple of changes in here that I really do appreciate. It's a small step in the right direction. I'm going to continue along the lines that some of my colleagues have... have spoken on in regards to transparency and ensuring that... that not only everyone here is able to see what's going on, but that people in the general public are able to see what's going on when it's happening. Earlier, you mentioned that there's certain deadlines that we have here that we have to meet timelinewise. When do the rules need to be passed by?"
- Gabel: "We can't begin our work until the rules are passed."
- Davidsmeyer: "Do... do we continue to operate under the rules of the 102nd General Assembly until these are passed?"
- Gabel: "Yes, but committees have not been formed. So, committees can't meet."
- Davidsmeyer: "Okay. One of the biggest deadlines that we run up against, and we've been here at all hours of the night on... at the end of our legislative... generally what's considered our Legislative Session. What's the deadline to pass a budget?"
- Gabel: "The last day of Session. I would say the beginning of the fiscal year."
- Davidsmeyer: "By law, the beginning of the fiscal year?"
- Gabel: "Yes."
- Davidsmeyer: "Okay. I would say the... the deadline we're always concerned about is May 31, isn't it?"
- Gabel: "Yes, because that's the last day the House is... is usually in Session."
- Davidsmeyer: "That's the last day we can pass a budget with a simple Majority of 60 votes, correct?"

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Gabel: "Yes."

Davidsmeyer: "What happens if we don't pass a budget by May 31?"

Gabel: "Then we would need a... 71 votes."

Davidsmeyer: "Okay. I hate to rub salt in my own wounds, but how many Members do you have?"

Gabel: "We have 78."

Davidsmeyer: "Seventy-eight. Okay. So... so, we really don't have that deadline. A lot of the things that we were looking at are suspension of these rules, right? We often see this Body suspend the very rules that we pass to lead us for the next two years. Many rules require a 71-vote Supermajority. Some rules cannot be suspended, very few of them. And other rules, it doesn't say, so it would be a simple Majority. One of the things we proposed was, let's bring that all up to threefifths or two-thirds, right? Up to that 71 threshold. As you stated earlier, you can continue to operate the way you been operating with a Supermajority. Another request we had was equal time. So, when we're looking at a committee, we wanted to ensure that all of our Members of the committee, as well as all of the Members of the House of Representatives, have the opportunity to truly hear both sides of the issue. One of the recommendations we made was equal time for witnesses. That time can be set by chairman, that time can be set by the Speaker, however you decide. We just want to make sure that both sides are heard. Was that included in this?"

Gabel: "No. In my experience, though, most committees do function like that."

Davidsmeyer: "I... I testified when I was a much younger man and was given about a minute when the other side was given about

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

10. So, I've been through it before I was in this role. What is required to rule a note inapplicable?"

Gabel: "Majority... a Majority."

Davidsmeyer: "A Majority of those elected?"

Gabel: "Yes."

Davidsmeyer: "I don't believe that's correct. I believe it's a Majority of those voting. So, you could... you could technically have... if you have 60 people here to vote..."

Gabel: "You're correct. You're correct."

"Okay. One of the requests we had was Davidsmeyer: Supermajority, right? Three-fifths, two-thirds, whatever you want to define it as, just to ensure that these rules are truly inapplicable. And for most of the Members that have been here for a while, you know what these notes are. You know what... to what I'm referring. But many of the new Members do not. We're talking about a fiscal note, right? Things that have an impact on money, on the dollars that are spent here. State mandates, is this a mandate? And that could be a simple letter from the department saying, no, it's not or, yes, it is. A balanced budget note, is this budget truly balanced? Correctional budget or impact budget note, another budget note. Home Rule note. Does it override Home Rule? Housing and affordability impact can be overridden by less than an elected Majority. Judicial note can be overridden by less than an elected Majority. Land conveyance. Pension impact note. The pension is... is the cloud over our heads, right? That's the one that we really have to work on. We can, in this Body, rule that note inapplicable without hearing from anybody who has the actual information. State debt impact note. We've had a history of debt. We have a history of liability. All these can be overruled by less than an elected Majority. There's a reason why we created those notes. Do you think those notes are still needed?"

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Gabel: "Some of them on some of the Bills."

Davidsmeyer: "And certainly some may be truly inapplicable. But anything that spends dollars, anything that requires something would be a mandate, or a state budget issue. The three-fifths or two-thirds requirement, do you think that would tie your hands?"

Gabel: "I think that a Majority of the Members present is a fair way to vote on these."

Davidsmeyer: "You know, this is just... like I said, it's just an effort to create greater transparency. I don't think it ties your hands on what direction to go. At the end of the day, I think these rules are about fairness, about respect across the aisle, and about providing the equity that we discuss right here, underneath this Capitol dome, on this side of the Capitol. So, I hope that we can truly continue to work on this. This is a Resolution that can be amended. I want to continue to work on these issues because none of these issues will affect your ability to continue to operate the way you've been operating. It will only provide more factual information for which... by which we can make our important decisions. So, I encourage a 'no' vote if you are for true transparency for everyone here and for all of our constituents in the State of Illinois."

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Ugaste."

Ugaste: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Speaker Manley: "She indicates she will."

Ugaste: "Good afternoon, Leader."

Gabel: "Good afternoon."

Ugaste: "Just a quick couple questions based upon conversation you were having with Leader Keicher on our side. The witnesses that are allowed to testify remotely, is there any notice provision as to whether those witnesses must appear or can testify remotely from the chair for each committee? Or when... when will that happen? When will we receive notice of that decision?"

Gabel: "I think it will happen at each committee meeting. Because sometimes they may be in a room that... where they can have remote voting, and sometimes they won't."

Ugaste: "Okay. But if we're lining up witnesses to come speak and they have to appear, seeing as how they're coming from other parts of the state, they may need advanced time. Wouldn't you agree?"

Gabel: "You know, I think that that's a detail that you can work out with the committee chair."

Ugaste: "Okay. So, there's no..."

Gabel: "That's their job."

Ugaste: "...provision in the rules, though, for how much notice has to be given, is it?"

Gabel: "No. That's... that's under the purview of the committee chair."

Ugaste: "Okay. One other quick question for you. Is whether or not if one witness is allowed to testify remotely, will all witnesses be allowed to testify remotely?"

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

- Gabel: "Yes. It's at the chair discretion. But I would assume that if they had the capability of doing that, that the chair would allow that. But it's up to the chair."
- Ugaste: "So, the chair gets to decide who can testify remotely at any given hearing? One may have to appear, but the other one can testify from somewhere else? Is that what you're saying?

 I just want to make certain I understand."
- Gabel: "I'm saying that it's not... that that kind of detail is up to the chairman of the committee. That's not something that you put in rules."
- Ugaste: "Well, in all honesty, it's something I think I would definitely put in rules. To the Bill. Just quickly..."

Speaker Manley: "To the Bill."

Ugaste: "...we've been talking about making this an equitable process, making it transparent, making it fair. If everything is left to the discretion of the chair, and I hope that all the chairs will abide by the way that Leader has... the Leader has indicated they will. If not, we have anything but an equitable and transparent process."

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Didech."

Didech: "To the Resolution."

Speaker Manley: "To the Resolution."

Didech: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. I've been listening to the remarks from the other side of the aisle. I also happen to be one of the referenced 19 Members who helped pave the way for the election of Speaker Welch. And I want to remind everyone what Speaker Welch said at inauguration this year: 'Everyone who is here to work in good faith and pursue the common good will find common cause with me. But those who would derail

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

the work of the people who have sent us here to do, they will find that this House will not waste the people's time on their games.' These rules are a reflection of that. Every Member who is ready to do serious work will have the opportunity to get that work done. Everyone on this side of the aisle is ready to work with each and every one of you to get things done for your communities. And we take you at your word that you're prepared to help get things done for our communities. But what we're not going to do is waste the people's time relitigating issues that voters have rejected again and again. If your goal is to strip away fundamental rights like a woman's right to choose or to make it harder for workers to collectively bargain or disenfranchise voters and allow insurrectionists to hijack our elections, those aren't the issues we need to spend a lot of time debating. Because the voters who elected this House, they're the same voters who rejected Darren Bailey. They're the same voters who rejected Donald Trump. The voters were unequivocal where they stand on those issues. Now, these rules are just a procedural matter. What's meaningful is what we do with them. So, I ask everybody here, let's put extreme ideologies aside, let's enact these rules, and let's proceed together to do the people's work. Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Morgan."

Morgan: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. To the Resolution."

Speaker Manley: "To the Resolution."

Morgan: "I rise in support of these rules. I want to thank the working group that worked on these and put this together. I also want to thank Members of both sides of the aisle that made comments that I think reflect good ideas and ways in which we could always make this chamber operate better. I think a number of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle appropriately referenced, 'the proof is in the pudding.' It's about how committee chairs, and how Speaker, and how the rules Committee, and how we treat each other, and how we demand greater respect from one another. So, I think implementation of these rules are just as important as the plain language in the rules. Specifically, I want to point out, now, as we are in endemic times, the pandemic of COVID-19 is leaving us and we're returning to normal, it's important that this chamber also returns to normal. So, I think it's very important that we go back to in-person voting. I think we all know some of the unintended consequences of having remote voting. So, I strongly support that. And lastly, to those who want to reference the 19, also as a Member of the 19, I would encourage everyone to... to know that we've never been shy about speaking up when we feel strongly about an issue. We haven't in the past. We will not in the future. So, anybody who wants to invoke the 19, I would encourage you to keep our names out of your mouth. Because when we have something to say, you're going to know about it. I urge a 'yes' vote."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Stuart."

Stuart: "Thank you. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Manley: "She indicates that she will."

Stuart: "Hi, Leader. Thank you for... for bringing the rules forward for us today. And I appreciate the discussion we've had on them so far. I just wanted to clarify a few things. So, I think we've pretty well established that Republican Members had opportunities to make suggestions as to changes to the rules?"

4th Legislative Day

Gabel: "Yes."

Stuart: "And were some of their suggestions incorporated into the rules that we're about to vote on?"

Gabel: "Yes, three... three of the six."

Stuart: "And some of... and so, some of theirs also were not incorporated?"

Gabel: "Correct."

Stuart: "Thank you. But I wanted to point out, did Democratic Members have a chance to make suggestions about changes they wanted in the rules?"

Gabel: "Yes."

Stuart: "Were all of their choices, all of their suggestions incorporated into these rules?"

Gabel: "No, they were not."

Stuart: "So... and I remember we had a caucus meeting yesterday, and correct me if... if my memory differs from yours. But there were some Democrats... when we talked about removal of remote voting and the removal or the change to the Consent Calendar, that we had some Democratic Members who didn't like those changes. Do you remember that?"

Gabel: "Yes, that's true."

Stuart: "So, those two big provisions that were requests of the Republicans, we had a lot of Democrats that didn't want to make that change. But we're making that change?"

Gabel: "True."

4th Legislative Day

2/1/2023

Stuart: "Okay. So, it seems like each side, our side of the aisle and the other side of the aisle, we made some asks or some suggestions and some of those suggestions were incorporated and some were not. And that's true of both sides. Would you agree to that?"

Gabel: "Yes."

Stuart: "So, my... my definition, my understanding of the word compromise and negotiation is exactly that process. That one side puts out their asks or their requests or whatever you want to call them, and some of those are accepted, and the other side does the same. And the ultimate proposal is a negotiated or compromised document. It sounds to me like that's the process that happened here."

Gabel: "Yes, I agree."

Stuart: "So... so, this is a example of negotiation and compromise. And I get... when I talk to constituents and I talk to people, you know, back in my district all the time, I am constantly asked, you know, well, we want people to compromise. We want negotiation. We want compromise. And here's an example of exactly that. And I think the problem is, some people think that negotiation or compromise means, I get all of the things I want. And that's exactly the opposite of what compromise is. So, I think this is a really good example of negotiation, compromise, hard work. We have Members on our side who didn't get everything they wanted in these rules. I was a big proponent of the Consent Calendar. I thought that it made things very efficient and very effective. But I'm very respectful of the fact that... and I understand some of the concerns of Members from the other side of the aisle. So, I'm happy to not use that the way that we used that in the past. You know, I understand the validity of remote voting and why we used it and to allow people to still give a voice to the people in their area even when they can't be here. But I understand the concerns that were brought for it. And so, I respectfully think that it's good that we are taking that, you know, out of the rules. So, I want to thank you and everyone else for all their hard work in the negotiating process in creating these rules. And I intend to vote 'yes', and I hope everyone else does too."

4th Legislative Day

Speaker Manley: "Chair recognizes Representative Tarver."

Tarver: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. Will the Sponsor yield?"

Speaker Manley: "She indicates she will."

"Thanks for your hard work, boss lady, Leader Gabel. Tarver: Today, we... we lay the foundation for the significant work that lies ahead of us. I was proud to vote for Speaker Welch as Speaker of the House. And in supporting the Leader of this House, I'm happy to support the rules as well. Speaker Welch has made good on his promise to usher in a new day with more transparency, a focus on inclusion, and the commitment to work with the entire House, despite the diversity of our thought and political aims. As we do every General Assembly, it is essential that we propose, vote on, and then abide by the House Rules. They guide us as we represent the people of Illinois. That is democracy in work. These rules guide us as we represent our respective districts which form a collective Illinois. The rules are simply procedural, mere words on paper. What we do with them will characterize all of our legacies when we leave this chamber. Every single one of us

4th Legislative Day

was sent here by our communities to do the work in their best interest and to make their voices heard. We cannot fulfill that essential duty without sound, fair rules to structure the critical work that we do. These rules allow us to continue protect vulnerable Illinoisans and stand marginalized communities so that everyone can enjoy equal rights and opportunities. The rules allow us to do the business of the people with fairness. Everyone has opportunity to vote on these rules. Everyone opportunity to, on an ongoing basis, read the rules, understand the parameters, and the framework within which we all proceed. Today's vote will ensure that Illinois remains on a path of progress. We will not go backwards. It's easy to take this vote as an opportunity to politically grandstand, and again, to relitigate the contentious issues that chambers addressed, not only in the last month, but the last General Assembly. It's easy to hijack everyone's time and attention by focusing on matters that have been settled. To those motivated to do so and emboldened to try, just understand that today, through the second Tuesday of January 2025, we're not going backwards. We will continue to move forward, period. It's easy to hide behind partisan outrage and bickering on a procedural vote than it is to buckle down and get to the work, get to the work that needs to be done for our constituents. It's harder to enter this chamber with an open mind and a plan to collaborate and compromise and to put aside extreme partisan... partisanship, excuse me, for the good of our state. In order for this Body, and by extension, the people of Illinois, to be set up for years of success, I urge an 'aye' vote. For those of you who are new, let's get to work. For those of you who are returning, let's continue the work. Thank you, Madam Speaker."

Speaker Manley: "Our final speaker will be Speaker Welch."

Speaker Welch: "Thank you, Madam Speaker. To the Resolution."

Speaker Manley: "To the Resolution."

Speaker Welch: "Two weeks ago, I stood up in front of all of you and our friends and our family at UIS on our inauguration day. And I made a promise that to anyone who is ready and willing to do the work that we were elected to do, we will find a common ground. We will find common purpose and get that work done. And I meant that. Today, we get the chance to begin that work by passing these House Rules. Rules that have incorporated suggestions from both Democrats and Republicans. Neither side got everything they wanted. This is indeed rules that are the result of compromise. And I want to thank the Members of our House Democratic working group who spent hours vetting these ideas. I also want to thank my friend on the other side of the aisle, Leader McCombie, for engaging with me, specifically on these rules. I have enjoyed those conversations. She's visited my office. I've visited her office. That's how this process should work. So, when I hear comments here today that one side has been completely ignored, please let's not accept that as the narrative. One side has not been ignored. We have heard them, and we have responded. And you can see that in the rules. We have incorporated many voices in this process, and I am truly grateful for the work that has been done. These rules allow every Member who is ready to do serious work to deliver results for their communities and their constituents. These rules also allow us to get back to a sense of normalcy that many of you have personally told me you desire, something many of us have missed in the past two years of a global health pandemic. And I want to be clear though. If it is your goal to simply obstruct or to push an agenda that's been rejected time and time again at the ballot box, we will not waste the people's time. There are 78 of us on this side of the aisle for a reason. The voters have spoken. And we have the right to determine these rules. But we have reached our hand out and said, what are your ideas? And we have worked with you and included your ideas in these rules. We have that right because voters were very clear this November about the direction they want for Illinois. But we're going to continue to reach out. We're going to continue to ask your opinions. I'm going to tell you today, you're not going to get everything you want. You're not. There's people over here that won't get everything they want. They're not. That's how the legislative process works. But I do know this, I do know what the voters in this state said they want. They want us to protect workers' rights. They want us to protect women's rights. And they want us to protect voting rights in this state. And that's what we're going to do in this chamber. They want us to continue balancing budgets and helping working families. That's what we're going to do here. We're going to do the serious work that we were sent here to do. And these rules allow us to do that. And I want to be clear. These rules incorporate several things that were on the two-page memo brought to me by the Leader. We are ending remote floor voting, reforming the use of the Consent Calendar, and clarifying powers of the Minority Leader, all at the specific request of the Leader. These rules include leadership term limits, which Republicans have held up for years as the gold standard. Things that they have suggested, not the folks over here. You're not going to get everything you want. You're not. So, don't be surprised. Anyone who is ready and willing to do this work together on behalf of our communities, again, I'm extending a hand to you. We are extending a hand to you. Thank you, Leader Gabel, for the work that you're doing. Thank you, Members of the Democratic Caucus. Thank you, Members of the Republican Caucus. Now, together, let's pass these rules and let's get to work for the people. I encourage an 'aye' vote. Thank you, Madam Speaker."

4th Legislative Day

4th Legislative Day

Speaker Manley: "Leader Gabel to close."

Gabel: "Well, thank you. And I really want to thank all of you for your comments on these rules. I... I first need to clarify a comment that I made earlier. I said that there was a deadline for passing a budget, and I said that deadline was July 1. But as many of you remember, that doesn't always happen. And actually, in the law, there is no deadline for passing a budget and we all learned that during the Rauner years. So, let me just state again and reiterate, that these rule changes are... that the purpose for these rule changes is to make sure that we can have an orderly Session. And I really want to encourage all of you to vote for it. If you agree with three out of the six, or four out of the six, it's time to vote for the new rules. Thank you."

Speaker Manley: "Leader Gabel moves for the adoption of House Resolution 36. All in favor vote 'aye'; opposed vote 'nay'. And the voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, please take the record. On this question, there are 74 voting in 'favor', 35 voting 'opposed', 0 voting 'present'. And this Resolution, having received a Constitutional Majority, is hereby adopted. And now, allowing perfunctory time for the Clerk, Leader Gabel moves the House stand adjourned until Tuesday, February 7. All those in favor say 'aye'; opposed say 'nay'. In the opinion of the Chair, the 'ayes' have it. And the House stands adjourned."
