Joyce: "Thanks. Representative, one of the concerns that I had after going back to the district and talking to some of the... the South Suburban Environmental Council was the waste stream in which the wood would come from. Is there gonna be an inspector or an auditor or would you accept an Amendment to the Bill that would possibly coffer an independent third party inspector who would report back to the agency on the waste stream?"

Davis, W.: "Well, Representative, from what I understand, the wood product will be dealt with even before it gets to the facility. So, it will be sorted or whatever that process is it'll be taken care of even before it gets to the facility to make sure that it is... that it's appropriate and that it fits the specifications that are being identified."

Joyce: "But that's... that's not mandated in your legislation and the developers were in front of the South Suburban Environmental Council and they did ask that question and they were not clear on whether that material will be barged, whether it be transported or whether it be come from the... the transfer station that is next door on the same facility's grounds. So, I'm... I'm asking if possibly we could just have an Amendment that would call for those loads to be inspected just to make sure that that is the clean wood stream that I know that you designed this Bill to, ya know, the intent of... your intent to make this a nice green plant. Because if there... if you get materials that might be from roofing materials, for example, there's arsenic in that and once that's burned it gets into the atmosphere and, ya know, communities that are downwind from that facility may

Speaker Hannig: "Return that to the Order of Second Reading at the request of the Sponsor. And Mr. Clerk, what is the status of House 18... the status of House Bill 1855?"

Clerk Mahoney: "House Bill 1855 is on the Order of House Bills-Third Reading."

Speaker Hannig: "Return that to the Order of Second Reading at the request of the Sponsor. Representative Berrios, for what reason do you rise?"

Berrios: "Purpose of an announcement."

Speaker Hannig: "Make your announcement."

Berrios: "Thank you. Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, today at 4:00 we will be having the Biotech Committee and we are having a speaker from Amgen come in. So, if anyone is interested in finding out what biotechnology is, feel free to join us at 4:00 today in Room 115. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Scully, for what reason do you rise?"

Scully: "For the purpose of an announcement."

Speaker Hannig: "Proceed."

Scully: "The Electric Utility Oversight Committee scheduled for 8:00 tomorrow morning will convene at 8:30 tomorrow morning. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Boland, for what reason do you rise?"

Boland: "Purpose of an announcement. The Financial Institutions Committee is canceled for today."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Rose, for what reason do you rise?"

Rose: "An announcement for the Body, Mr. Speaker. Ladies and Gentlemen, tonight at 6 p.m., U of I football coach Ron Zook will be at the Illinois State Library. This is an event that's being put on by the Illinois Student Senate. And many of your constituents are students at the University of Illinois and they will be there as well. The event's gonna be from 5:30 to 7 at the State Library, but Coach Zook will be there at 6. And I would invite all of you to come and attend. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "...Representative... Representative Reitz."

Reitz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Purpose of another announcement. The downstate or the, excuse me, the Legislative Sportsmen's Caucus will have an organizational meeting tomorrow morning, 7:30 in the Rathskeller, 7:30 in the Rathskeller. Hope to see you there. We'll have breakfast."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Nekritz, for what reason do you rise?"

Nekritz: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd just like to announce that the Railroad Safety/Industry Committee for Thursday at noon is canceled."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Black. Representative Black, you're recognized to make a Motion."

Black: "Yes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Pursuant to 25 ILCS Ch. 63 par. 42 that clearly outlines what a balanced budget note shall be prepared for and it's only prepared for a supplemental appropriation Bill. On page 7 of the Calendar I have House Bill 618. It is not a supplemental appropriation Bill. I would move that the balanced budget note request be ruled inapplicable and the Bill be moved to Third Reading."

Speaker Hannig: "You've heard the Gentleman's Motion. Is there any discussion? Then the question is, 'Shall the note request be declared... shall the note request be declared inapplicable?' All those in favor should vote 'aye'; opposed 'nay'. And the voting is open. 'Shall the... shall the note request beclare inapplicable?' So, have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, take the record. On this question, there are 77 voting 'yes' and 38 voting 'no'. And the Gentleman's Motion prevails. And the note is declared inapplicable. Representative Black."

Black: "Mr. Speaker, the second part of my Motion was to move the Bill to Third Reading."

Speaker Hannig: "The Clerk advised me that there's still other note requests."

Black: "There has never been another note request filed on that Bill since the day it came up here. If any... if any note request was filed on that Bill, it was when you held the Roll Call open for about three and a half minutes. There's an identical Bill sponsored by a Democrat that doesn't have one note request on it. Now, I don't mind playing these games, but I've been here for a while and I've paid my dues and I'm not gonna play this game. There were no note requests on this Bill when I moved that the note be ruled inapplicable in accordance with statute. And you did everything in your power to get the board to reflect that the note was not inapplicable in violation of the statute. Now, you play another game with a note request? I would rule any further note request be ruled inapplicable. I'm sick and tired of these games. If you wanna vote against the Bill on Third, vote against it, but I have a right, an inalienable right, to call my Bill."

Speaker Hannig: "Mr. Clerk, read the Bill. ...Clerk, what is the status of the Bill?"

Clerk Mahoney: "House Bill 618, a Bill for an Act in relation to public aid, is on the Order of Second Reading. No Committee Amendments. No Floor Amendments. Notes have been requested, but not yet filed."

Speaker Hannig: "...Clerk, what notes have been requested?"

Clerk Mahoney: "A state mandates note, a Home Rule note, judicial note, state debt note."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Black."

Black: "Mr. Speaker, those notes are nothing but harassment, were not filed by the time I made my Motion. Not anybody in this chamber be you Democrat or Republican and you don't even know what this Bill does. It increases the personal needs allowance for people in nursing homes. Has nothing to do with tobacco. Their personal needs allowance has not been increased since 1988. There isn't one of those notes that's applicable to this Bill. I would rule that all of those notes be ruled inapplicable. They are nothing but harassment and I'm not here at my age and at my term of service in here, I'm not gonna sit here and put up with this kind of harassment when you've got a Democrat Bill that I haven't filed one note on and I've asked my fellow Republicans not to file a note on and it's the same Bill. Now, where in the hell's the fairness."

Speaker Hannig: "And Representative, all I'm suggesting is that everyone has the right to file a note and you're..."

Black: "They don't have a right to file some ridiculous, stupid note on a Bill that has nothing to do with Home Rule. Now, you know that."

Speaker Hannig: "Actually, they have the right to file it, Representative. Now, you have the right..."

Black: "In other words they have a right to be obstreperous. They have a right to be vindictive. They have a right to be whatever they wanna be, but you know those notes are not applicable in any case."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative, why don't you make the Motion. We'll go through 'em one at a time. Will that be okay?"

Black: "I rule that all of the notes be ruled inapplicable. There isn't one that you read that has anything to do with this Bill. How in the world does this Bill meet the standard of a Home Rule note or a judicial note?"

Speaker Hannig: "So... so, Mr. Clerk, just for the clarification of the Body, why don't you tell us once again what are the notes that have been requested on this Bill and then we'll go to a Roll Call?"

Clerk Mahoney: "The following notes have been requested: a state mandates note, a Home Rule note, a judicial note and a state debt note."

Winters: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Could you refer to us the time at which those notes were filed?"

Speaker Hannig: "Mr. Clerk, could you tell us when those notes were filed?"

Clerk Mahoney: "Those notes were filed earlier today."

Winters: "I'm a little bit more specific. Were they filed any time after 1:30? Do you have a time stamp on 'em or simply a date stamp?"

Speaker Hannig: "The Clerk, can you tell us? No."

Clerk Mahoney: "There are no time stamps on notes that are requested."

Winters: "Well, I think we all have had a weekend with a time change that many of us have woken up on the wrong side of bed as we moved our clocks ahead. I think in this case the clock was not moved ahead on time and that those notes were, in fact, filed during the discussion on the previous note and I stand in support of Representative Black that these were not timely and certainly not applicable notes."

Speaker Hannig: "Anyone stand in opposition to the Gentleman's Motion? Representative Monique Davis."

Davis, M.: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The rule states that if you desire to file a fiscal note, a judicial note, a Home Rule note, you have a right to file those notes. No one in this Body nor anyone's Bill is beyond the scope of a Legislator requesting those notes. Now, I believe, Mr. Speaker, that if we're going to vote that the note is inapplicable, they should be voted on individually. They should not be voted on at once, but the rule... the rule..."

Davis, M.: "Listen to me. No, I'm sorry, apologize."

Speaker Hannig: "You're... you're correct."

Davis, M.: "The rule applies to everybody. Thank you."

Speaker Hannig: "So, Representative Black, she does have the right to divide the question. So, we'll divide the question and then we'll vote on each one of 'em. Is that... is what we'll do."

Black: "Speaker..."

Speaker Hannig: "So, Mr. Clerk, what's the first one that was filed?"

Black: "Mr. Spea... Mr..."

Speaker Hannig: "Representative Black."

Black: "Mr. Speaker, I have finally arrived. I have been lectured on the House Rules by Representative Monique Davis. And let me just say to that esteemed colleague, most of the votes on icapli... inapplicable fiscal notes for the last 18 years have been made and passed by Democrats. Whether we objected or not, it was standard practice that if a Democrat Sponsor didn't like a note request, all that Democrat Sponsor had to do was get up and rule them inapplicable and they were often ruled inapplicable on a voice vote, in violation of the House Rules. I will follow the House Rules. You can take each one."

Speaker Hannig: "So, the first one, the Clerk advises me, is the state mandates note. Representative Leitch, do you wish to speak on the issue?"

Speaker Hannig: "The question is, 'Shall the state mandates note be ruled inapplicable?' Those who believe that the note is inapplicable should vote 'aye'; those who believe that it is appropriate should vote 'nay'. And the voting is open, Mr. Clerk. Have all voted who wish? Mr. Clerk, take the record. On this question, there are 98 voting 'yes' and 5 voting 'no'. The Motion prevails. And the note is ruled inapplicable. What is the next note, Mr. Clerk?"

Clerk Mahoney: "The next note is a Home Rule note."

Speaker Hannig: "So, the question is, 'Shall the Home Rule note be ruled inapplicable?' Those in favor... Excuse me. Representative Monique Davis."

Davis, M.: "Mr. Speaker, in respect for your time and the Body's time, I will Motion to remove the notes."

Speaker Hannig: "So, the Lady has removed her request for the notes, Representative Black. So, Representative Black."

Black: "Mr. Speaker, I thank the Honorable Lady for that. I know I have had to waive many notes in the past. I do appreciate her consideration and her kindness. And I would certainly hope to be able to reciprocate someday on a Bill that is important to her or a Bill that is important to a
