4 Section 5. The Property Tax Code is amended by changing
5 Section 15-172 as follows:

6 (35 ILCS 200/15-172)

7 Sec. 15-172. Senior Citizens Assessment Freeze Homestead
8 Exemption.

9 (a) This Section may be cited as the Senior Citizens 10 Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption.

11 (b) As used in this Section:

12 "Applicant" means an individual who has filed an 13 application under this Section.

14 "Base amount" means the base year equalized assessed value
15 of the residence plus the first year's equalized assessed value 16 of any added improvements which increased the assessed value of 17 the residence after the base year.

18 "Base year" means the taxable year prior to the taxable 19 year for which the applicant first qualifies and applies for 20 the exemption provided that in the prior taxable year the 21 property was improved with a permanent structure that was 22 occupied as a residence by the applicant who was liable for 23 paying real property taxes on the property and who was either

1 (i) an owner of record of the property or had legal or 2 equitable interest in the property as evidenced by a written
3 instrument or (ii) had a legal or equitable interest as a 4 lessee in the parcel of property that was single family 5 residence. If in any subsequent taxable year for which the 6 applicant applies and qualifies for the exemption the equalized
7 assessed value of the residence is less than the equalized 8 assessed value in the existing base year (provided that such 9 equalized assessed value is not based on an assessed value that 10 results from a temporary irregularity in the property that 11 reduces the assessed value for one or more taxable years), then 12 that subsequent taxable year shall become the base year until a 13 new base year is established under the terms of this paragraph.
14 For taxable year 1999 only, the Chief County Assessment Officer 15 shall review (i) all taxable years for which the applicant 16 applied and qualified for the exemption and (ii) the existing 17 base year. The assessment officer shall select as the new base 18 year the year with the lowest equalized assessed value. An 19 equalized assessed value that is based on an assessed value 20 that results from a temporary irregularity in the property that 21 reduces the assessed value for one or more taxable years shall 22 not be considered the lowest equalized assessed value. The 23 selected year shall be the base year for taxable year 1999 and 24 thereafter until a new base year is established under the terms 25 of this paragraph.

26 "Chief County Assessment Officer" means the County

1 Assessor or Supervisor of Assessments of the county in which 2 the property is located.

3 "Equalized assessed value" means the assessed value as 4 equalized by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

5 "Household" means the applicant, the spouse of the 6 applicant, and all persons using the residence of the applicant 7 as their principal place of residence.

8 "Household income" means the combined income of the members 9 of a household for the calendar year preceding the taxable 10 year.

11 "Income" has the same meaning as provided in Section 3.07
12 of the Senior Citizens and Persons with Disabilities Property
13 Tax Relief Act, except that, beginning in assessment year 2001, 14 "income" does not include veteran's benefits.

15 "Internal Revenue Code of 1986" means the United States
16 Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any successor law or laws
17 relating to federal income taxes in effect for the year 18 preceding the taxable year.

19 "Life care facility that qualifies as a cooperative" means
20 a facility as defined in Section 2 of the Life Care Facilities 21 Act.

22 "Maximum income limitation" means:

- 23 (1) $35,000 prior to taxable year 1999;
24 (2) $40,000 in taxable years 1999 through 2003;
25 (3) $45,000 in taxable years 2004 through 2005; 26 (4) $50,000 in taxable years 2006 and 2007; and

1           (5) $55,000 in taxable years ~~year~~ 2008 through 2012; 2 and thereafter.

3           (6) in taxable year 2017, (A) $55,000 for applicants 4 who have occupied the residence for less than 5 years and 5 (B) $75,000 for applicants who have occupied the residence 6 for 5 or more years; and

7           (7) in taxable year 2018 and thereafter, (A) for 8 applicants who have occupied the residence for less than 5 9 years, an amount equal to the maximum income limitation for 10 the immediately prior taxable year for applicants who have 11 occupied the residence for less than 5 years increased by 12 the lesser of (i) 2% or (ii) the percentage increase during 13 the immediately prior taxable year in the Consumer Price 14 Index for All Urban Consumers for all items published by 15 the United States Department of Labor Bureau of Labor 16 Statistics and (B) for applicants who have occupied the 17 residence for 5 or more years, an amount equal to the 18 maximum income limitation for the immediately prior 19 taxable year for applicants who have occupied the residence 20 for 5 or more years increased by the lesser of (i) 2% or 21 (ii) the percentage increase during the immediately prior 22 taxable year in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban 23 Consumers for all items published by the United States
24 Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics.

25           "Residence" means the principal dwelling place and 26 appurtenant structures used for residential purposes in this

1 State occupied on January 1 of the taxable year by a household
2 and so much of the surrounding land, constituting the parcel 3 upon which the dwelling place is situated, as is used for 4 residential purposes. If the Chief County Assessment Officer 5 has established a specific legal description for a portion of 6 property constituting the residence, then that portion of 7 property shall be deemed the residence for the purposes of this 8 Section.

9 "Taxable year" means the calendar year during which ad 10 valorem property taxes payable in the next succeeding year are 11 levied.

12 (c) Beginning in taxable year 1994, a senior citizens 13 assessment freeze homestead exemption is granted for real 14 property that is improved with a permanent structure that is 15 occupied as a residence by an applicant who (i) is 65 years of 16 age or older during the taxable year, (ii) has a household 17 income that does not exceed the maximum income limitation, 18 (iii) is liable for paying real property taxes on the property, 19 and (iv) is an owner of record of the property or has a legal or 20 equitable interest in the property as evidenced by a written 21 instrument. This homestead exemption shall also apply to a 22 leasehold interest in a parcel of property improved with a 23 permanent structure that is a single family residence that is 24 occupied as a residence by a person who (i) is 65 years of age 25 or older during the taxable year, (ii) has a household income 26 that does not exceed the maximum income limitation, (iii) has a

1 legal or equitable ownership interest in the property as 2 lessee, and (iv) is liable for the payment of real property
3 taxes on that property.

4 In counties of 3,000,000 or more inhabitants, the amount of 5 the exemption for all taxable years is the equalized assessed 6 value of the residence in the taxable year for which 7 application is made minus the base amount. In all other 8 counties, the amount of the exemption is as follows: (i) 9 through taxable year 2005 and for taxable year 2007 and 10 thereafter, the amount of this exemption shall be the equalized 11 assessed value of the residence in the taxable year for which 12 application is made minus the base amount; and (ii) for taxable 13 year 2006, the amount of the exemption is as follows:

14 (1) For an applicant who has a household income of 15 $45,000 or less, the amount of the exemption is the 16 equalized assessed value of the residence in the taxable 17 year for which application is made minus the base amount.

18 (2) For an applicant who has a household income 19 exceeding $45,000 but not exceeding $46,250, the amount of 20 the exemption is (i) the equalized assessed value of the 21 residence in the taxable year for which application is made
22 minus the base amount (ii) multiplied by 0.8.

23 (3) For an applicant who has a household income
24 exceeding $46,250 but not exceeding $47,500, the amount of 25 the exemption is (i) the equalized assessed value of the 26 residence in the taxable year for which application is made

1 minus the base amount (ii) multiplied by 0.6.

2 (4) For an applicant who has a household income
3 exceeding $47,500 but not exceeding $48,750, the amount of 4 the exemption is (i) the equalized assessed value of the 5 residence in the taxable year for which application is made
6 minus the base amount (ii) multiplied by 0.4.

7 (5) For an applicant who has a household income
8 exceeding $48,750 but not exceeding $50,000, the amount of 9 the exemption is (i) the equalized assessed value of the 10 residence in the taxable year for which application is made
11 minus the base amount (ii) multiplied by 0.2.

12 When the applicant is a surviving spouse of an applicant
13 for a prior year for the same residence for which an exemption
14 under this Section has been granted, the base year and base 15 amount for that residence are the same as for the applicant for 16 the prior year.

17 Each year at the time the assessment books are certified to 18 the County Clerk, the Board of Review or Board of Appeals shall 19 give to the County Clerk a list of the assessed values of 20 improvements on each parcel qualifying for this exemption that 21 were added after the base year for this parcel and that 22 increased the assessed value of the property.

23 In the case of land improved with an apartment building 24 owned and operated as a cooperative or a building that is a 25 life care facility that qualifies as a cooperative, the maximum 26 reduction from the equalized assessed value of the property is

1 limited to the sum of the reductions calculated for each unit 2 occupied as a residence by a person or persons (i) 65 years of 3 age or older, (ii) with a household income that does not exceed 4 the maximum income limitation, (iii) who is liable, by contract
5 with the owner or owners of record, for paying real property
6 taxes on the property, and (iv) who is an owner of record of a 7 legal or equitable interest in the cooperative apartment
8 building, other than a leasehold interest. In the instance of a 9 cooperative where a homestead exemption has been granted under 10 this Section, the cooperative association or its management 11 firm shall credit the savings resulting from that exemption 12 only to the apportioned tax liability of the owner who 13 qualified for the exemption. Any person who willfully refuses 14 to credit that savings to an owner who qualifies for the 15 exemption is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

16 When a homestead exemption has been granted under this 17 Section and an applicant then becomes a resident of a facility 18 licensed under the Assisted Living and Shared Housing Act, the 19 Nursing Home Care Act, the Specialized Mental Health 20 Rehabilitation Act of 2013, the ID/DD Community Care Act, or 21 the MC/DD Act, the exemption shall be granted in subsequent 22 years so long as the residence (i) continues to be occupied by 23 the qualified applicant's spouse or (ii) if remaining 24 unoccupied, is still owned by the qualified applicant for the 25 homestead exemption.

26 Beginning January 1, 1997, when an individual dies who

1 would have qualified for an exemption under this Section, and 2 the surviving spouse does not independently qualify for this 3 exemption because of age, the exemption under this Section 4 shall be granted to the surviving spouse for the taxable year 5 preceding and the taxable year of the death, provided that, 6 except for age, the surviving spouse meets all other 7 qualifications for the granting of this exemption for those 8 years.

9 When married persons maintain separate residences, the 10 exemption provided for in this Section may be claimed by only 11 one of such persons and for only one residence.

12 For taxable year 1994 only, in counties having less than 13 3,000,000 inhabitants, to receive the exemption, a person shall 14 submit an application by February 15, 1995 to the Chief County 15 Assessment Officer of the county in which the property is 16 located. In counties having 3,000,000 or more inhabitants, for 17 taxable year 1994 and all subsequent taxable years, to receive 18 the exemption, a person may submit an application to the Chief 19 County Assessment Officer of the county in which the property
20 is located during such period as may be specified by the Chief
21 County Assessment Officer. The Chief County Assessment Officer
22 in counties of 3,000,000 or more inhabitants shall annually 23 give notice of the application period by mail or by 24 publication. In counties having less than 3,000,000
25 inhabitants, beginning with taxable year 1995 and thereafter, 26 to receive the exemption, a person shall submit an application

1 by July 1 of each taxable year to the Chief County Assessment
2 Officer of the county in which the property is located. A 3 county may, by ordinance, establish a date for submission of 4 applications that is different than July 1. The applicant shall 5 submit with the application an affidavit of the applicant's 6 total household income, age, marital status (and if married the 7 name and address of the applicant's spouse, if known), and 8 principal dwelling place of members of the household on January 9 1 of the taxable year. The Department shall establish, by rule, 10 a method for verifying the accuracy of affidavits filed by 11 applicants under this Section, and the Chief County Assessment 12 Officer may conduct audits of any taxpayer claiming an 13 exemption under this Section to verify that the taxpayer is 14 eligible to receive the exemption. Each application shall 15 contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made 16 under the penalties of perjury. A taxpayer's signing a 17 fraudulent application under this Act is perjury, as defined in 18 Section 32-2 of the Criminal Code of 2012. The applications
19 shall be clearly marked as applications for the Senior Citizens
20 Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption and must contain a notice 21 that any taxpayer who receives the exemption is subject to an 22 audit by the Chief County Assessment Officer.

23 Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, in 24 counties having fewer than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an 25 applicant fails to file the application required by this 26 Section in a timely manner and this failure to file is due to a

1 mental or physical condition sufficiently severe so as to 2 render the applicant incapable of filing the application in a 3 timely manner, the Chief County Assessment Officer may extend 4 the filing deadline for a period of 30 days after the applicant
5 regains the capability to file the application, but in no case 6 may the filing deadline be extended beyond 3 months of the 7 original filing deadline. In order to receive the extension 8 provided in this paragraph, the applicant shall provide the 9 Chief County Assessment Officer with a signed statement from 10 the applicant's physician, advanced practice nurse, or 11 physician assistant stating the nature and extent of the 12 condition, that, in the physician's, advanced practice 13 nurse's, or physician assistant's opinion, the condition was so 14 severe that it rendered the applicant incapable of filing the 15 application in a timely manner, and the date on which the 16 applicant regained the capability to file the application.

17 Beginning January 1, 1998, notwithstanding any other 18 provision to the contrary, in counties having fewer than 19 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an applicant fails to file the 20 application required by this Section in a timely manner and 21 this failure to file is due to a mental or physical condition 22 sufficiently severe so as to render the applicant incapable of 23 filing the application in a timely manner, the Chief County
24 Assessment Officer may extend the filing deadline for a period 25 of 3 months. In order to receive the extension provided in this 26 paragraph, the applicant shall provide the Chief County

1 Assessment Officer with a signed statement from the applicant's 2 physician, advanced practice nurse, or physician assistant 3 stating the nature and extent of the condition, and that, in 4 the physician's, advanced practice nurse's, or physician
5 assistant's opinion, the condition was so severe that it 6 rendered the applicant incapable of filing the application in a 7 timely manner.

8 In counties having less than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an 9 applicant was denied an exemption in taxable year 1994 and the 10 denial occurred due to an error on the part of an assessment 11 official, or his or her agent or employee, then beginning in 12 taxable year 1997 the applicant's base year, for purposes of 13 determining the amount of the exemption, shall be 1993 rather 14 than 1994. In addition, in taxable year 1997, the applicant's 15 exemption shall also include an amount equal to (i) the amount 16 of any exemption denied to the applicant in taxable year 1995
17 as a result of using 1994, rather than 1993, as the base year, 18 (ii) the amount of any exemption denied to the applicant in 19 taxable year 1996 as a result of using 1994, rather than 1993, 20 as the base year, and (iii) the amount of the exemption
21 erroneously denied for taxable year 1994.

22 For purposes of this Section, a person who will be 65 years 23 of age during the current taxable year shall be eligible to 24 apply for the homestead exemption during that taxable year.
25 Application shall be made during the application period in 26 effect for the county of his or her residence.

1           The Chief County Assessment Officer may determine the 2           eligibility of a life care facility that qualifies as a 3           cooperative to receive the benefits provided by this Section by 4           use of an affidavit, application, visual inspection, 5           questionnaire, or other reasonable method in order to insure 6           that the tax savings resulting from the exemption are credited 7           by the management firm to the apportioned tax liability of each 8           qualifying resident. The Chief County Assessment Officer may 9           request reasonable proof that the management firm has so 10          credited that exemption.

11          Except as provided in this Section, all information 12          received by the chief county assessment officer or the 13          Department from applications filed under this Section, or from 14          any investigation conducted under the provisions of this 15          Section, shall be confidential, except for official purposes or 16          pursuant to official procedures for collection of any State or 17          local tax or enforcement of any civil or criminal penalty or 18          sanction imposed by this Act or by any statute or ordinance 19          imposing a State or local tax. Any person who divulges any such 20          information in any manner, except in accordance with a proper 21          judicial order, is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

22          Nothing contained in this Section shall prevent the 23          Director or chief county assessment officer from publishing or 24          making available reasonable statistics concerning the 25          operation of the exemption contained in this Section in which 26          the contents of claims are grouped into aggregates in such a

1 way that information contained in any individual claim shall 2 not be disclosed.

3 (d) Each Chief County Assessment Officer shall annually
4 publish a notice of availability of the exemption provided 5 under this Section. The notice shall be published at least 60 6 days but no more than 75 days prior to the date on which the 7 application must be submitted to the Chief County Assessment 8 Officer of the county in which the property is located. The 9 notice shall appear in a newspaper of general circulation in 10 the county.

11 Notwithstanding Sections 6 and 8 of the State Mandates Act, 12 no reimbursement by the State is required for the 13 implementation of any mandate created by this Section.
