1 AN ACT concerning employment.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

- Section 1. Short title. This Act may be cited as the the Healthy Workplace Act.
- 6 Section 5. Findings and purpose.
  - (a) The General Assembly finds:
  - (1) Nearly every worker in the State is likely to need time off to attend to his or her own illness or that of a family member. More than 40% of all private sector workers in Illinois (over 2,500,000 people) have no right to a paid sick day. Over three-fourths of the lowest-wage workers do not receive paid sick days and cannot forfeit a day's work, so they often come into work sick.
  - (2) Preventive and routine medical care helps avoid illness and injury by detecting illnesses early on and shortening the duration of illnesses. Providing employees with time off to attend to their own health care needs ensures that they will be healthier and more efficient employees. It will also reduce the spread of disease within workplaces and to the public, such as customers, when employees go to work sick, a practice known as "presenteeism". Routine medical care results in savings by

- detecting and treating illness and injury early and decreasing the need for emergency care. These savings benefit public and private payers of health insurance.
  - (4) When the school of a worker's child is closed because of extreme weather, it is often at the last minute and workers cannot find someone to babysit so they are forced to stay at home to take care of their children.
  - (5) Nearly one-quarter of American women report domestic violence and nearly one in 5 women report experiencing rape at some time during their lives. Many workers, men and women, need time off to care for their health after these incidents or to take legal action. Without paid time off, victims are in danger of losing their jobs.
  - (6) Employers that provide paid sick days see better productivity, reduced flu contagion, and lower turnover, which saves them the costs of replacing and training workers.
  - (b) This Act is enacted to establish the Healthy Workplace

    Act to provide at least a minimum time-off standard of paid sick days for all workers.

- 22 Section 10. Definitions. As used in this Act:
- "Child" means a son or daughter who is a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco parentis.

1 "Department" means the Illinois Department of Labor.

"Employee" means any person who performs services for an employer for wage, remuneration, or other compensation. This includes persons working any number of hours, including a full-time or part-time status.

"Employer" means one who employs at least one employee, including, but not limited to, this State and its political subdivisions, a temporary services agency, an employment agency, or an employee organization.

"Family member" means a child, spouse, parent, the child or parent of an employee's spouse, a sibling, grandparent, grandchild, or any other individual related by blood or who close association with the employee is the equivalent of a family relationship.

"Healthcare provider" means a person:

- (1) who is: (i) licensed to practice medicine in all of its branches in Illinois and possesses the degree of doctor of medicine; (ii) licensed to practice medicine in all of its branches in Illinois and possesses the degree of doctor of osteopathy or osteopathic medicine; (iii) licensed to practice medicine in all of its branches or as an osteopathic physician in another state or jurisdiction; or (iv) any other person determined by final rule under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993; and
- (2) who is not employed by an employer to whom the provider issues certifications under this Act.

- "Paid sick day" means a portion of or a regular workday when an employee is unable to report to work because of a reason described in subsection (b) of Section 15.
- "Parent" means a biological or adoptive parent, a foster or stepparent, a parent of a legal ward, or a person who stands in loco parentis to an employee or an employee's spouse.
- 7 "Spouse" means a party to a marriage or a party to a civil union as defined by Illinois statute.
  - Section 15. Provision of paid sick days.
    - (a) All employees who work in Illinois who are absent from work for a reason set forth in subsection (b) shall be entitled to earn and use a maximum of 7 paid sick days during a 12-month period or a pro rata number of paid sick days or hours under the provisions of subsection (c). The 12-month period for an employee shall be calculated from the date of hire or subsequent anniversary date.
    - (b) Paid sick days shall be provided to an employee by an employer to:
      - (1) care for the employee's own physical or mental illness, injury, or health condition, or seek medical diagnosis or care;
      - (2) care for the employee's family member who is suffering from a physical or mental illness, injury, or health condition, or seek medical diagnosis or care; or
    - (3) attend a medical appointment for himself or herself or a medical appointment of the employee's family member;

- (4) care for a child whose school or place of care has been closed by order of a public official due to a public health emergency or to not go in to work because of the closure of the employee's place of business by order of a public health official due to a public health emergency; or
- (5) be off from work because he or she or the employee's family member is the victim of domestic violence as defined in Section 103(3) of the Illinois Domestic Violence Act of 1986 or sexual violence as defined under Article 11 and Sections 12-7.3, 12-7.4, and 12-7.5 of the Illinois Criminal Code of 2012.
- (c) Paid sick days shall accrue at the rate of one hour of paid sick time for every 30 hours worked up to the maximum of 56 hours of paid sick days unless the employer selects a higher limit. Employees who are exempt from the overtime requirements of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (29 U.S.C. 213(a)(1)) shall be deemed to work 40 hours in each work week for purposes of paid sick day accrual unless their normal work week is less than 40 hours, in which case paid sick days accrue based on that normal work week. Employees shall determine how much paid sick days they need to use, provided that employers may set a reasonable minimum increment for the use of a paid sick day not to exceed 2 hours per day.
- (d) Employees shall be paid their regular rate of pay for a paid sick day. However, an employee engaged in an occupation in - which gratuities have customarily and usually constituted and have been recognized as part of the remuneration for hire purposes shall be paid by his or her employer at least the full Illinois minimum wage for a paid sick day taken.

  - (e) Paid sick days shall begin to accrue at the commencement of employment or on the effective date of this Act, whichever is later. An employee shall be entitled to begin using a sick day 120 days following commencement of his or her employment or 120 days following the effective date of this Act, whichever is later. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to discourage or prohibit an employer from allowing the use of paid sick days at an earlier date than this Section requires. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to discourage employers from adopting or retaining paid sick day policies more generous than policies that comply with the requirements of this Act.
  - (f) An employer may require certification of the qualifying illness, injury, or health condition when paid sick days cover more than 3 consecutive workdays. Any reasonable documentation signed by a healthcare provider involved in following or treating the illness, injury, or health condition, and indicating the need for the amount of sick days taken, shall be deemed acceptable certification. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to require an employee to provide as certification any information from a healthcare provider that would be in violation of Section 1177 of the Social Security Act or the regulations promulgated pursuant to the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996. If an employer possesses health information about an employee or employee's family member, such information shall be treated as confidential and not disclosed except with the permission of the affected employee. For time used pursuant to subdivision (b) (5), any one of the following is acceptable documentation, and only one of the following shall be required: a police report, court document, or signed statement from an attorney, a member of the clergy, or a victim services advocate. It is up to the employee to determine which documentation to submit.

The employer shall not delay the commencement of leave taken for purposes of subsection (b) of this Section nor delay pay for this period on the basis that the employer has not yet received the certification.

of an employee. If the necessity for paid sick days under this Act is foreseeable, the employee shall provide the employer with not less than 7 days' notice before the date the leave is to begin. If the necessity for leave is not foreseeable, the employee shall provide such notice as soon as is practicable after the employee is aware of the necessity of such leave. An employer may not require, as a condition of providing paid sick days under this Act, that the employee search for or find a replacement worker to cover the hours during which the employee is on paid sick days leave.

- (h) Paid sick days shall carry over annually to the extent not used by the employee, provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed to require an employer to allow use of more than 7 paid sick days for an employee unless an employer agrees to do so.
- (i) It shall be unlawful for an employer to interfere with, restrain, deny, change work days or hours scheduled to avoid paying sick days, or discipline an employee for the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right provided under or in connection with this Act, including considering the use of paid sick days as a negative factor in an employment action that involves hiring, terminating, evaluating, promoting, disciplining, or counting the paid sick days under a no-fault attendance policy.
- (j) During any period an employee takes leave under this Act, the employer shall maintain coverage for the employee and any family member under any group health plan for the duration of such leave at at least the level and conditions of coverage as would have been provided if the employee had not taken the leave.
- (k) Nothing in this Section shall be construed as requiring financial or other reimbursement to an employee from an employer upon the employee's termination, resignation, retirement, or other separation from employment for accrued paid sick days that have not been used.
  - (1) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to prohibit

- an employer from taking disciplinary action, up to and including termination, against an employee who uses paid sick days provided pursuant to this Act for purposes other than those described in this Section.
  - (m) If an employee is transferred to a separate division, entity, or location, but remains employed by the same employer, the employee is entitled to all paid sick days accrued at the prior division, entity, or location and is entitled to use all paid sick days as provided in this Section. Where there is a separation from employment and the employee is rehired within 12 months of separation by the same employer, previously accrued paid sick days that had not been used shall be reinstated. Such employee shall be entitled to use accrued paid sick days at the commencement of employment following a separation from employment of 12 months or less.
    - (n) All or any portion of the applicable requirement in this Section shall not apply to any employee covered by a bona fide collective bargaining agreement to the extent that such requirements are expressly waived in the collective bargaining agreement in clear and unambiguous language.
- 21 Section 20. Related employer responsibilities.
- 22 (a) An employer subject to any provision of this Act shall 23 make and preserve records documenting hours worked by employees
  24 and the amount of paid sick days taken by employees for a
  25 period of not less than 3 years and shall allow the Department

- access to such records, with appropriate notice and a mutually agreeable time, to monitor compliance with the requirements of
- 3 this Section.

- (b) An agreement by an employee to waive his or her right under this Act, except as allowed under subsection (n) of Section 15, is void as against public policy.
  - (c) Employers who have a paid time off policy that complies with at least the minimum requirements of this Act shall not be required to modify such a policy if such policy offers an employee the option, at the employee's discretion, to take paid sick days that are at least equivalent to the paid sick days described in this Act.
  - (d) Employers shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place on the premises of the employer where notices to employees are customarily posted, or include in an employee manual or policy, a notice, to be prepared by the Department, summarizing the requirements of this Act and information pertaining to the filing of a charge. If an employer's workforce is comprised of a significant portion of workers who are not literate in English, the employer is responsible for providing the notice in a language in which the employees are literate. An employer who willfully violates the notice and posting requirements of this Section shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $100 for each separate offense.

Section 25. Unlawful employer practices. It is unlawful for any employer to take any adverse action against an employee because the employee (1) exercises rights or attempts to exercise rights under this Act, (2) opposes practices which such employee believes to be in violation of this Act, or (3) supports the exercise of rights of another under this Act.

Exercising rights under this Act includes filing an action or instituting or causing to be instituted any proceeding under or related to this Act; providing or agreeing to provide any information in connection with any inquiry or proceeding relating to any right provided under this Act; or testifying to or agreeing to testify in any inquiry or proceeding relating to any right provided under this Act.

Section 30. Department responsibilities.

(a) The Department shall administer and enforce this Act and adopt rules under the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act for the purpose of this Act. The Department shall have the powers and the parties shall have the rights provided in the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act for contested cases. The Department shall have the power to conduct investigations in connection with the administration and enforcement of this Act, including the power to conduct depositions and discovery and to issue subpoenas. If the Department finds cause to believe that this Act has been violated, the Department shall notify the parties in writing and the matter shall be referred to an

- Administrative Law Judge to schedule a formal hearing in accordance with hearing procedures established by rule.
  - (b) The Department is authorized to impose civil penalties prescribed in Section 35 in administrative proceedings that comply with the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act and to supervise the payment of the unpaid wages and damages owing to the employee or employees under this Act. The Department may bring any legal action necessary to recover the amount of unpaid wages, damages, and penalties, and the employer shall be required to pay the costs. Any sums recovered by the Department on behalf of an employee under this Act shall be paid to the employee or employees affected. However, 20% of any penalty collected from the employer for a violation of this Act shall be deposited into the Healthy Workplace Fund, a special fund created in the State treasury that is dedicated to enforcing this Act.
    - (c) The Attorney General may bring an action to enforce the collection of any civil penalty imposed under this Act.
- 19 Section 35. Enforcement.
  - (a) An employee who believes his or her rights under this Act or any rule adopted under this Act have been violated may, within 3 years after the date of the last event constituting the alleged violation for which the action is brought, file a complaint with the Department or file a civil action.
  - (b) Any employer that violates this Act is liable in a court to any affected individuals for actual and compensatory damages, with interest at the prevailing rate, punitive damages, and such equitable relief as may be appropriate, in addition to reasonable attorney's fees, reasonable expert claim filed with the Department or in a civil action in circuit

- 5 addition to reasonable attorney's fees, reasonable expert
- 6 witness fees, and other costs of the action to be paid by the
- 7 defendant. A civil action may be brought without first filing
- 8 an administrative complaint.
- 9 (c) Any employer that the Department or a court finds by a
- 10 preponderance of the evidence to have knowingly, repeatedly, or
- 11 with reckless disregard violated any provision of this Act or
- 12 any rule adopted under this Act is subject to a civil money
- penalty not to exceed $2,500 for each separate offense.
- 14 Section 95. Severability. The provisions of this Act are
- 15 severable under Section 1.31 of the Statute on Statutes.
- Section 97. The State Finance Act is amended by adding
- 17 Section 5.878 as follows:
- 18 (30 ILCS 105/5.878 new)
- 19 Sec. 5.878. The Healthy Workplace Fund.
- 20 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon
- 21 becoming law.
