

100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

State of Illinois

2017 and 2018

HB4031

by Rep. Natalie A. Manley

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

725 ILCS 5/114-13

from Ch. 38, par. 114-13

Amends the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963. Provides that notwithstanding Illinois Supreme Court Rules, in a criminal proceeding, any property or material that constitutes child pornography shall remain in the care, custody, and control of either the State or the court. Provides that a court shall deny, in any criminal proceeding, any request by the defendant to copy, photograph, duplicate, or otherwise reproduce any property or material that constitutes child pornography, so long as the prosecution makes the property or material reasonably available to the defendant. Provides that property or material shall be deemed to be reasonably available to the defendant if the prosecution provides ample opportunity for inspection, viewing, and examination at a government facility of the property or material by the defendant, his or her attorney, and any individual the defendant may seek to qualify to furnish expert testimony at trial.

1 AN ACT concerning criminal law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 is 5 amended by changing Section 114-13 as follows:

6 (725 ILCS 5/114-13) (from Ch. 38, par. 114-13)

7 Sec. 114-13. Discovery in criminal cases.

8 (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this 9 subsection (a), discovery ~~Discovery~~ procedures in criminal 10 cases shall be in accordance with Supreme Court Rules.

11 (1) In a criminal proceeding, any property or material
12 that constitutes child pornography (as defined in Section 13 11-20.1 of the Criminal Code of 2012) shall remain in the 14 care, custody, and control of either the State or the 15 court.

16 (2) Notwithstanding Illinois Supreme Court Rule 412, a
17 court shall deny, in any criminal proceeding, any request
18 by the defendant to copy, photograph, duplicate, or 19 otherwise reproduce any property or material that 20 constitutes child pornography (as defined in Section 21 11-20.1 of the Criminal Code of 2012), so long as the 22 prosecution makes the property or material reasonably
23 available to the defendant. For the purposes of this

1       paragraph (2), property or material shall be deemed to be
2       reasonably available to the defendant if the prosecution
3       provides ample opportunity for inspection, viewing, and 4       examination at a government facility of the property or 5       material by the defendant, his or her attorney, and any 6       individual the defendant may seek to qualify to furnish 7       expert testimony at trial.

8       (b) Any public investigative, law enforcement, or other
9       public agency responsible for investigating any homicide
10      offense or participating in an investigation of any homicide 11      offense, other than defense investigators, shall provide to the 12      authority prosecuting the offense all investigative material,
13      including but not limited to reports, memoranda, and field
14      notes, that have been generated by or have come into the 15      possession of the investigating agency concerning the homicide
16      offense being investigated. In addition, the investigating
17      agency shall provide to the prosecuting authority any material
18      or information, including but not limited to reports,
19      memoranda, and field notes, within its possession or control 20      that would tend to negate the guilt of the accused of the 21      offense charged or reduce his or her punishment for the 22      homicide offense. Every investigative and law enforcement
23      agency in this State shall adopt policies to ensure compliance 24      with these standards. Any investigative, law enforcement, or 25      other public agency responsible for investigating any 26      "non-homicide felony" offense or participating in an

1 investigation of any "non-homicide felony" offense, other than 2 defense investigators, shall provide to the authority
3 prosecuting the offense all investigative material, including 4 but not limited to reports and memoranda that have been 5 generated by or have come into the possession of the 6 investigating agency concerning the "non-homicide felony"
7 offense being investigated. In addition, the investigating
8 agency shall provide to the prosecuting authority any material
9 or information, including but not limited to reports and 10 memoranda, within its possession or control that would tend to 11 negate the guilt of the accused of the "non-homicide felony"
12 offense charged or reduce his or her punishment for the 13 "non-homicide felony" offense. This obligation to furnish 14 exculpatory evidence exists whether the information was 15 recorded or documented in any form. Every investigative and law 16 enforcement agency in this State shall adopt policies to ensure 17 compliance with these standards.
