SB2437 Engrossed

1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, 3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of 5 Marriage Act is amended by changing Section 503 as follows:

6 (750 ILCS 5/503) (from Ch. 40, par. 503)

7 Sec. 503. Disposition of property and debts.

8 (a) For purposes of this Act, "marital property" means all 9 property, including debts and other obligations, acquired by 10 either spouse subsequent to the marriage, except the following, 11 which is known as "non-marital property":

(1) property acquired by gift, legacy or descent orproperty acquired in exchange for such property;

14 (2) property acquired in exchange for property15 acquired before the marriage;

16 (3) property acquired by a spouse after a judgment of 17 legal separation;

18 (4) property excluded by valid agreement of the 19 parties, including a premarital agreement or a postnuptial 20 agreement;

(5) any judgment or property obtained by judgment awarded to a spouse from the other spouse except, however, when a spouse is required to sue the other spouse in order to obtain insurance coverage or otherwise recover from a third party and the recovery is directly related to amounts advanced by the marital estate, the judgment shall be considered marital property;

5 (6) property acquired before the marriage, except as it 6 relates to retirement plans that may have both marital and 7 non-marital characteristics;

8 (6.5) all property acquired by a spouse by the sole use 9 of non-marital property as collateral for a loan that then 10 is used to acquire property during the marriage; to the 11 extent that the marital estate repays any portion of the 12 loan, it shall be considered a contribution from the 13 marital estate to the non-marital estate subject to 14 reimbursement;

(7) the increase in value of non-marital property, irrespective of whether the increase results from a contribution of marital property, non-marital property, the personal effort of a spouse, or otherwise, subject to the right of reimbursement provided in subsection (c) of this Section; and

(8) income from property acquired by a method listed in paragraphs (1) through (7) of this subsection if the income is not attributable to the personal effort of a spouse.

Property acquired prior to a marriage that would otherwise be non-marital property shall not be deemed to be marital property solely because the property was acquired in SB2437 Engrossed - 3 - LRB100 16507 HEP 31639 b

1 contemplation of marriage.

The court shall make specific factual findings as to its classification of assets as marital or non-marital property, values, and other factual findings supporting its property award.

6 (b) (1) For purposes of distribution of property, all 7 property acquired by either spouse after the marriage and 8 before a judgment of dissolution of marriage or declaration of 9 invalidity of marriage is presumed marital property. This 10 presumption includes non-marital property transferred into 11 some form of co-ownership between the spouses, regardless of 12 whether title is held individually or by the spouses in some 13 form of co-ownership such as joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entirety, or community property. The presumption 14 15 of marital property is overcome by showing through clear and 16 convincing evidence that the property was acquired by a method 17 listed in subsection (a) of this Section or was done for estate or tax planning purposes or for other reasons that establish 18 19 that a transfer between spouses was not intended to be a gift.

(2) For purposes of distribution of property pursuant to this Section, all pension benefits (including pension benefits under the Illinois Pension Code, defined benefit plans, defined contribution plans and accounts, individual retirement accounts, and non-qualified plans) acquired by or participated in by either spouse after the marriage and before a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation or declaration of SB2437 Engrossed - 4 - LRB100 16507 HEP 31639 b invalidity of the marriage are presumed to be marital property. 1 2 A spouse may overcome the presumption that these pension 3 benefits are marital property by showing through clear and convincing evidence that the pension benefits were acquired by 4 5 a method listed in subsection (a) of this Section. The right to a division of pension benefits in just proportions under this 6 7 Section is enforceable under Section 1-119 of the Illinois 8 Pension Code.

9 The value of pension benefits in a retirement system 10 subject to the Illinois Pension Code shall be determined in 11 accordance with the valuation procedures established by the 12 retirement system.

The recognition of pension benefits as marital property and the division of those benefits pursuant to a Qualified Illinois Domestic Relations Order shall not be deemed to be a diminishment, alienation, or impairment of those benefits. The division of pension benefits is an allocation of property in which each spouse has a species of common ownership.

19 (3) For purposes of distribution of property under this 20 Section, all stock options and restricted stock or similar form 21 of benefit granted to either spouse after the marriage and 22 before a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal 23 separation or declaration of invalidity of marriage, whether vested or non-vested or whether their value is ascertainable, 24 25 are presumed to be marital property. This presumption of 26 marital property is overcome by a showing that the stock options or restricted stock or similar form of benefit were 1 2 acquired by a method listed in subsection (a) of this Section. 3 The court shall allocate stock options and restricted stock or similar form of benefit between the parties at the time of the 4 judgment of dissolution of marriage or declaration of 5 6 invalidity of marriage recognizing that the value of the stock 7 options and restricted stock or similar form of benefit may not be then determinable and that the actual division of the 8 9 options may not occur until a future date. In making the 10 allocation between the parties, the court shall consider, in 11 addition to the factors set forth in subsection (d) of this 12 Section, the following:

(i) All circumstances underlying the grant of the stock option and restricted stock or similar form of benefit including but not limited to the vesting schedule, whether the grant was for past, present, or future efforts, whether the grant is designed to promote future performance or employment, or any combination thereof.

19 (ii) The length of time from the grant of the option to20 the time the option is exercisable.

(b-5)(1) As to any existing policy of life insurance insuring the life of either spouse, or any interest in such policy, that constitutes marital property, whether whole life, term life, group term life, universal life, or other form of life insurance policy, and whether or not the value is ascertainable, the court shall allocate ownership, death SB2437 Engrossed - 6 - LRB100 16507 HEP 31639 b benefits or the right to assign death benefits, and the obligation for premium payments, if any, equitably between the parties at the time of the judgment for dissolution or declaration of invalidity of marriage.

5 (2) If a judgment of dissolution of marriage is entered 6 after an insured has designated the insured's spouse as a 7 beneficiary under a life insurance policy in force at the time 8 of entry, the designation of the insured's former spouse as 9 beneficiary is not effective unless:

10 (A) the judgment designates the insured's former 11 spouse as the beneficiary;

(B) the insured redesignates the former spouse as the beneficiary after entry of the judgment; or 14 (C) the former spouse is designated to receive the 15 proceeds in trust for, on behalf of, or for the benefit of 16 a child or a dependent of either former spouse.

17 (3) If a designation is not effective under paragraph (2), 18 the proceeds of the policy are payable to the named alternative 19 beneficiary or, if there is not a named alternative 20 beneficiary, to the estate of the insured.

21 (4) An insurer that pays the proceeds of a life insurance 22 policy to the beneficiary under a designation that is not 23 effective under paragraph (2) is liable for payment of the 24 proceeds to the person or estate provided by paragraph (3) only 25 if:

(A) before payment of the proceeds to the designated beneficiary, the insurer receives written notice at the home office of the insurer from an interested person that the designation is not effective under paragraph (2); and (B) the insurer has not filed an interpleader.

5 (c) Commingled marital and non-marital property shall be 6 treated in the following manner, unless otherwise agreed by the 7 spouses:

8 (1)(A) If marital and non-marital property are 9 commingled by one estate being contributed into the other, 10 the following shall apply:

(i) If the contributed property loses its identity, the contributed property transmutes to the estate receiving the property, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection (c).

(ii) If the contributed property retains its identity, it does not transmute and remains property of the contributing estate.

(B) If marital and non-marital property are commingled into newly acquired property resulting in a loss of identity of the contributing estates, the commingled property shall be deemed transmuted to marital property, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection (c).

(2) (A) When one estate of property makes a contribution to another estate of property, the contributing estate shall be reimbursed from the estate receiving the contribution notwithstanding any transmutation. No such reimbursement shall be made with respect to a contribution that is not traceable by clear and convincing evidence or that was a gift. The court may provide for reimbursement out of the marital property to be divided or by imposing a lien against the non-marital property that received the contribution.

8 (B) When a spouse contributes personal effort to 9 non-marital property, it shall be deemed a contribution 10 from the marital estate, which shall receive reimbursement 11 for the efforts if the efforts are significant and result 12 in substantial appreciation to the non-marital property except that if the marital estate reasonably has been 13 14 compensated for his or her efforts, it shall not be deemed 15 a contribution to the marital estate and there shall be no 16 reimbursement to the marital estate. The court may provide 17 for reimbursement out of the marital property to be divided or by imposing a lien against the non-marital property 18 which received the contribution. 19

(d) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage, or in a proceeding for disposition of property following dissolution of marriage by a court that lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property, the court shall assign each spouse's non-marital property to that spouse. It also shall divide the marital property without regard to SB2437 Engrossed - 9 - LRB100 16507 HEP 31639 b

1 marital misconduct in just proportions considering all 2 relevant factors, including:

3 (1) each party's contribution to the acquisition, preservation, or increase or decrease in value of the 4 5 marital or non-marital property, including (i) anv 6 decrease attributable to an advance from the parties' marital estate under subsection (c-1)(2) of Section 501; 7 8 (ii) the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker or to the 9 family unit; and (iii) whether the contribution is after 10 the commencement of a proceeding for dissolution of 11 marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage;

12 (2) the dissipation by each party of the marital 13 property, provided that a party's claim of dissipation is 14 subject to the following conditions:

(i) a notice of intent to claim dissipation shall be given no later than 60 days before trial or 30 days after discovery closes, whichever is later;

(ii) the notice of intent to claim dissipation shall contain, at a minimum, a date or period of time during which the marriage began undergoing an irretrievable breakdown, an identification of the property dissipated, and a date or period of time during which the dissipation occurred;

(iii) a certificate or service of the notice of intent to claim dissipation shall be filed with the clerk of the court and be served pursuant to applicable

1 rules;

2 (iv) no dissipation shall be deemed to have 3 occurred prior to 3 years after the party claiming dissipation knew or should have known 4 of the 5 dissipation, but in no event prior to 5 years before the filing of the petition for dissolution of marriage; 6 7 (3) the value of the property assigned to each spouse; 8 (4) the duration of the marriage;

9 (5) the relevant economic circumstances of each spouse 10 when the division of property is to become effective, 11 including the desirability of awarding the family home, or 12 the right to live therein for reasonable periods, to the 13 spouse having the primary residence of the children;

14 (6) any obligations and rights arising from a prior 15 marriage of either party;

16 (7) any prenuptial or postnuptial agreement of the 17 parties;

(8) the age, health, station, occupation, amount and sources of income, vocational skills, employability, estate, liabilities, and needs of each of the parties;

21

(9) the custodial provisions for any children;

(10) whether the apportionment is in lieu of or inaddition to maintenance;

(11) the reasonable opportunity of each spouse for future acquisition of capital assets and income; and (12) the tax consequences of the property division upon the respective economic circumstances of the parties.

2 (e) Each spouse has a species of common ownership in the 3 marital property which vests at the time dissolution proceedings are commenced and continues only during the 4 5 pendency of the action. Any such interest in marital property 6 shall not encumber that property so as to restrict its 7 transfer, assignment or conveyance by the title holder unless such title holder is specifically enjoined from making such 8 9 transfer, assignment or conveyance.

10 (f) In а proceeding for dissolution of marriage or 11 declaration of invalidity of marriage or in a proceeding for 12 disposition of property following dissolution of marriage by a 13 court that lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property, the court, 14 in determining the value of the marital and non-marital 15 16 property for purposes of dividing the property, has the 17 discretion to use the date of the trial or such other date as agreed upon by the parties, or ordered by the court within its 18 discretion, for purposes of determining the value of assets or 19 20 property.

(g) The court if necessary to protect and promote the best interests of the children may set aside a portion of the jointly or separately held estates of the parties in a separate fund or trust for the support, maintenance, education, physical and mental health, and general welfare of any minor, dependent, or incompetent child of the parties. In making a determination SB2437 Engrossed - 12 - LRB100 16507 HEP 31639 b under this subsection, the court may consider, among other 1 2 things, the conviction of a party of any of the offenses set forth in Section 11-1.20, 11-1.30, 11-1.40, 11-1.50, 11-1.60, 3 12-3.3, 12-4, 12-4.1, 12-4.2, 12-4.3, 12-13, 12-14, 12-14.1, 4 5 12-15, or 12-16, or Section 12-3.05 except for subdivision (a) (4) or (g) (1), of the Criminal Code of 1961 or the Criminal 6 Code of 2012 if the victim is a child of one or both of the 7 parties, and there is a need for, and cost of, care, healing 8 9 and counseling for the child who is the victim of the crime.

(h) Unless specifically directed by a reviewing court, or upon good cause shown, the court shall not on remand consider any increase or decrease in the value of any "marital" or "non-marital" property occurring since the assessment of such property at the original trial or hearing, but shall use only that assessment made at the original trial or hearing.

16 (i) The court may make such judgments affecting the marital 17 property as may be just and may enforce such judgments by 18 ordering a sale of marital property, with proceeds therefrom to 19 be applied as determined by the court.

(j) After proofs have closed in the final hearing on all other issues between the parties (or in conjunction with the final hearing, if all parties so stipulate) and before judgment is entered, a party's petition for contribution to fees and costs incurred in the proceeding shall be heard and decided, in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) A petition for contribution, if not filed before

SB2437 Engrossed

the final hearing on other issues between the parties, shall be filed no later than 14 days after the closing of proofs in the final hearing or within such other period as the court orders.

5 (2) Any award of contribution to one party from the 6 other party shall be based on the criteria for division of 7 marital property under this Section 503 and, if maintenance 8 has been awarded, on the criteria for an award of 9 maintenance under Section 504.

10 (3) The filing of a petition for contribution shall not 11 be deemed to constitute a waiver of the attorney-client 12 privilege between the petitioning party and current or former counsel; and such a waiver shall not constitute a 13 prerequisite to a hearing for contribution. If either 14 15 party's presentation on contribution, however, includes 16 evidence within the scope of the attorney-client 17 privilege, the disclosure or disclosures shall be narrowly construed and shall not be deemed by the court to 18 19 constitute a general waiver of the privilege as to matters 20 beyond the scope of the presentation.

(4) No finding on which a contribution award is based or denied shall be asserted against counsel or former counsel for purposes of any hearing under subsection (c) or (e) of Section 508.

(5) A contribution award (payable to either the petitioning party or the party's counsel, or jointly, as

the court determines) may be in the form of either a set 1 2 dollar amount or a percentage of fees and costs (or a 3 portion of fees and costs) to be subsequently agreed upon by the petitioning party and counsel or, alternatively, 4 5 thereafter determined in a hearing pursuant to subsection (c) of Section 508 or previously or thereafter determined 6 7 in an independent proceeding under subsection (e) of Section 508. 8 9 (6) The changes to this Section 503 made by this 10 amendatory Act of 1996 apply to cases pending on or after 11 June 1, 1997, except as otherwise provided in Section 508.

12 (k) In determining the value of assets or property under this Section, the court shall employ a fair market value 13 14 standard. The date of valuation for the purposes of division of 15 assets shall be the date of trial or such other date as agreed 16 by the parties or ordered by the court, within its discretion. 17 If the court grants a petition brought under Section 2-1401 of the Code of Civil Procedure, then the court has the discretion 18 to use the date of the trial or such other date as agreed upon 19 20 by the parties, or ordered by the court within its discretion, 21 for purposes of determining the value of assets or property.

(1) The court may seek the advice of financial experts or other professionals, whether or not employed by the court on a regular basis. The advice given shall be in writing and made available by the court to counsel. Counsel may examine as a witness any professional consulted by the court designated as SB2437 Engrossed - 15 - LRB100 16507 HEP 31639 b the court's witness. Professional personnel consulted by the 1 2 court are subject to subpoena for the purposes of discovery, trial, or both. The court shall allocate the costs and fees of 3 those professional personnel between the parties based upon the 4 financial ability of each party and any other criteria the 5 court considers appropriate, and the allocation is subject to 6 7 reallocation under subsection (a) of Section 508. Upon the 8 request of any party or upon the court's own motion, the court 9 may conduct a hearing as to the reasonableness of those fees 10 and costs.

(m) The changes made to this Section by Public Act 97-941 apply only to petitions for dissolution of marriage filed on or after January 1, 2013 (the effective date of Public Act 97-941).

15 (n) If the court finds that a companion animal of the 16 parties is a marital asset, it shall allocate the sole or joint 17 ownership of and responsibility for a companion animal of the parties. In issuing an order under this subsection, the court 18 19 shall take into consideration the well-being of the companion 20 animal. As used in this Section, "companion animal" does not include a service animal as defined in Section 2.01c of the 21 22 Humane Care for Animals Act.
