For taxable year 1999 7 only, the Chief County Assessment Officer shall review (i) 8 all taxable years for which the applicant applied and 9 qualified for the exemption and (ii) the existing base year. The assessment officer shall select as the new base year the 10 11 year with the lowest equalized assessed value. An equalized assessed value that is based on an assessed value that 12 results from a temporary irregularity in the property that 13 reduces the assessed value for one or more taxable years 14 15 shall not be considered the lowest equalized assessed value. 16 The selected year shall be the base year for taxable year 1999 and thereafter until a new base year is established 17 18 under the terms of this paragraph.

If the Chief County Assessment 13 Officer has established a specific legal description for a 14 15 portion of property constituting the residence, then that 16 portion of property shall be deemed the residence for the purposes of this Section. 17 18 "Taxable year" means the calendar year during which ad 19 valorem property taxes payable in the next succeeding year 20 are levied.

(c) Beginning in taxable year 1994, a senior citizens 21 22 assessment freeze homestead exemption is granted for real 23 property that is improved with a permanent structure that is occupied as a residence by an applicant who (i) is 65 years 24 25 of age or older during the taxable year, (ii) has a household income of $35,000 or less prior to taxable year 1999 or 26 $40,000 or less in taxable year 1999 and thereafter, (iii) is 27 liable for paying real property taxes on the property, and 28 29 (iv) is an owner of record of the property or has a legal or 30 equitable interest in the property as evidenced by a written instrument. This homestead exemption shall also apply to a 31 32 leasehold interest in a parcel of property improved with a 33 permanent structure that is a single family residence that is 34 occupied as a residence by a person who (i) is 65 years of age or older during the taxable year, (ii) has a household income of $35,000 or less prior to taxable year 1999 or $40,000 or less in taxable year 1999 and thereafter, (iii) has a legal or equitable ownership interest in the property as lessee, and (iv) is liable for the payment of real property taxes on that property.

7 The amount of this exemption shall be the equalized 8 assessed value of the residence in the taxable year for which 9 application is made minus the base amount.

10 When the applicant is a surviving spouse of an applicant 11 for a prior year for the same residence for which an 12 exemption under this Section has been granted, the base year 13 and base amount for that residence are the same as for the 14 applicant for the prior year.

Each year at the time the assessment books are certified to the County Clerk, the Board of Review or Board of Appeals shall give to the County Clerk a list of the assessed values of improvements on each parcel qualifying for this exemption that were added after the base year for this parcel and that increased the assessed value of the property.

In the instance of 33 34 a cooperative where a homestead exemption has been granted 1 under this Section, the cooperative association or its 2 management firm shall credit the savings resulting from that 3 exemption only to the apportioned tax liability of the owner 4 who qualified for the exemption. Any person who willfully 5 refuses to credit that savings to an owner who qualifies for 6 the exemption is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

7 When a homestead exemption has been granted under this 8 Section and an applicant then becomes a resident of a 9 facility licensed under the Nursing Home Care Act, the exemption shall be granted in subsequent years so long as the 10 11 residence (i) continues to be occupied by the qualified applicant's spouse or (ii) if remaining unoccupied, is still 12 owned by the qualified applicant for the homestead exemption. 13 Beginning January 1, 1997, when an individual dies who 14 would have qualified for an exemption under this Section, and 15 16 the surviving spouse does not independently qualify for this exemption because of age, the exemption under this Section 17 18 shall be granted to the surviving spouse for the taxable year 19 preceding and the taxable year of the death, provided that, 20 except for age, the surviving spouse meets all other 21 qualifications for the granting of this exemption for those 22 years.

When married persons maintain separate residences, the exemption provided for in this Section may be claimed by only one of such persons and for only one residence.

For taxable year 1994 only, in counties having less than 26 3,000,000 inhabitants, to receive the exemption, a person 27 shall submit an application by February 15, 1995 to the Chief 28 County Assessment Officer of the county in which the property 29 30 located. HB1941 Engrossed

1 may be specified by the Chief County Assessment Officer. The 2 Chief County Assessment Officer in counties of 3,000,000 or more inhabitants shall annually give notice 3 of the 4 application period by mail or by publication. In counties 5 having less than 3,000,000 inhabitants, beginning with б taxable year 1995 and thereafter, to receive the exemption, a 7 person shall submit an application by July 1 of each taxable year to the Chief County Assessment Officer of the county 8 in 9 which the property is located. A county may, by ordinance, establish a date for submission of applications that 10 is 11 different than July 1. The applicant shall submit with the application an affidavit of the applicant's total household 12 income, age, marital status (and if married the name and 13 address of the applicant's spouse, if known), and principal 14 15 dwelling place of members of the household on January 1 of 16 the taxable year. The Department shall establish, by rule, a method for verifying the accuracy of affidavits filed by 17 applicants under this Section. The applications shall be 18 clearly marked as applications for the Senior Citizens 19 Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption. 20

21 Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, in 22 counties having fewer than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an 23 applicant fails to file the application required by this Section in a timely manner and this failure to file is due to 24 25 a mental or physical condition sufficiently severe so as to render the applicant incapable of filing the application in a 26 timely manner, the Chief County Assessment Officer may extend 27 the filing deadline for a period of 30 days after the 28 applicant regains the capability to file the application, but 29 30 in no case may the filing deadline be extended beyond 3 months of the original filing deadline. In order to receive 31 32 the extension provided in this paragraph, the applicant shall provide the Chief County Assessment Officer with a signed 33 34 statement from the applicant's physician stating the nature

1 and extent of the condition, that, in the physician's 2 opinion, the condition was so severe that it rendered the 3 applicant incapable of filing the application in a timely 4 manner, and the date on which the applicant regained the 5 capability to file the application.

б Beginning January 1, 1998, notwithstanding any other 7 provision to the contrary, in counties having fewer than inhabitants, if an applicant fails to file the 8 3,000,000 9 application required by this Section in a timely manner and this failure to file is due to a mental or physical condition 10 11 sufficiently severe so as to render the applicant incapable of filing the application in a timely manner, the Chief 12 County Assessment Officer may extend the filing deadline for 13 a period of 3 months. In order to receive the extension 14 15 provided in this paragraph, the applicant shall provide the 16 Chief County Assessment Officer with a signed statement from the applicant's physician stating the nature and extent of 17 the condition, and that, in the physician's opinion, 18 the 19 condition was so severe that it rendered the applicant incapable of filing the application in a timely manner. 20 21 In counties having less than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an applicant was denied an exemption in taxable year 1994 and 22 23 the denial occurred due to an error on the part of an assessment official, or his or her agent or employee, then 24 25 beginning in taxable year 1997 the applicant's base year, for purposes of determining the amount of the exemption, shall be 26 1993 rather than 1994. In addition, in taxable year 1997, the 27 applicant's exemption shall also include an amount equal to 28 29 (i) the amount of any exemption denied to the applicant in 30 taxable year 1995 as a result of using 1994, rather than 1993, as the base year, (ii) the amount of any exemption 31 32 denied to the applicant in taxable year 1996 as a result of using 1994, rather than 1993, as the base year, and (iii) the 33 34 amount of the exemption erroneously denied for taxable year 1 1994.

For purposes of this Section, a person who will be 65 years of age during the current taxable year shall be eligible to apply for the homestead exemption during that taxable year. Application shall be made during the application period in effect for the county of his or her residence.

The Chief County Assessment Officer may determine the 8 9 eligibility of a life care facility that qualifies as a cooperative to receive the benefits provided by this Section 10 11 by use of an affidavit, application, visual inspection, questionnaire, or other reasonable method in order to insure 12 that the tax savings resulting from the exemption are 13 credited by the management firm to the apportioned tax 14 liability of each qualifying resident. 15 The Chief County 16 Assessment Officer may request reasonable proof that the management firm has so credited that exemption. 17

18 Except as provided in this Section, all information 19 received by the chief county assessment officer or the Department from applications filed under this Section, 20 or 21 from any investigation conducted under the provisions of this Section, shall be confidential, except for official purposes 22 23 or pursuant to official procedures for collection of any State or local tax or enforcement of any civil or criminal 24 25 penalty or sanction imposed by this Act or by any statute or ordinance imposing a State or local tax. Any person who 26 divulges any such information in any manner, except in 27 accordance with a proper judicial order, is guilty of a Class 28 29 A misdemeanor.

Nothing contained in this Section shall prevent the Director or chief county assessment officer from publishing or making available reasonable statistics concerning the operation of the exemption contained in this Section in which the contents of claims are grouped into aggregates in such a way that information contained in any individual claim shall not be disclosed.

3 (d) Each Chief County Assessment Officer shall annually 4 publish a notice of availability of the exemption provided 5 under this Section. The notice shall be published at least 6 60 days but no more than 75 days prior to the date on which 7 the application must be submitted to the Chief County Assessment Officer of the county in which the property is 8 9 located. The notice shall appear in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. 10
