5 The Department shall provide to the temporary caretaker б of a child any information in the Department's possession 7 concerning the positive results of a test performed on the 8 child to determine the presence of the antibody or antigen to 9 Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), or of HIV infection, as well as any communicable diseases or communicable infections 10 11 that the child has. The temporary caretaker of a child shall 12 not disclose to another person any information received by the temporary caretaker from the Department concerning the 13 results of a test performed on the child to determine the 14 15 presence of the antibody or antigen to HIV, or of 16 except pursuant to Section 9 of the Confidentiality Act, as now or hereafter amended. 17 The Department shall promptly initiate proceedings under 18 t.he 19 Juvenile Court Act of 1987 for the continued temporary custody of the child. 20

Where the physician keeping a child in his custody does so in his capacity as a member of the staff of a hospital or similar institution, he shall notify the person in charge of the institution or his designated agent, who shall then become responsible for the further care of such child in the hospital or similar institution under the direction of the Department.

Said care includes, but is not limited to the granting of permission to perform emergency medical treatment to a minor where the treatment itself does not involve a substantial risk of harm to the minor and the failure to render such treatment will likely result in death or permanent harm to the minor, and there is not time to apply for a court order under the Juvenile Court Act of 1987.

Any person authorized and acting in good faith in the removal of a child under this Section shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal that might otherwise be incurred or imposed as a result of such removal. Any physician authorized and acting in good faith and in accordance with acceptable medical practice in the treatment of a child under this Section shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed as a result of granting permission for emergency treatment.

With respect to any child taken into temporary protective custody pursuant to this Section, the Department of Children and Family Services Guardianship Administrator or designee shall be deemed the child's legally authorized representative for purposes of consenting to an HIV test necessary and appropriate by the Department's Guardianship Administrator or designee and obtaining and disclosing information concerning such test pursuant to the AIDS Confidentiality Act if deemed necessary and appropriate by the Department's Guardianship Administrator or designee and for purposes of consenting to the release of information pursuant to the Illinois Sexually Transmissible Disease Control Act if deemed necessary and appropriate by the Department's Guardianship Administrator or designee. The Guardianship Administrator has no such authority to consent to an HIV test or obtain and disclose information if the child has not been taken into temporary protective custody as provided in this Section.

Any person who administers an HIV test upon the consent of the Department of Children and Family Services Guardianship Administrator or his designee, or who discloses the results of such tests to the Department's Guardianship Administrator or his designee, shall have immunity from any liability, civil, criminal or otherwise, that might result by

- 1 reason of such actions. For the purpose of any proceedings,
- 2 civil or criminal, the good faith of any persons required to
- 3 administer or disclose the results of tests, or permitted to
- 4 take such actions, shall be presumed.

- 6 (325 ILCS 5/6) (from Ch. 23, par. 2056)
- 7 Sec. 6. Any person required to investigate cases of
- 8 suspected child abuse or neglect may take or cause to be
- 9 taken, at Department expense, color photographs and x-rays of
- 10 the child who is the subject of a report, and color
- 11 photographs of the physical environment in which the alleged
- 12 abuse or neglect has taken place. The person seeking to take
- 13 such photographs or x-rays must first obtain the consent of
- 14 the parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the
- child's welfare, unless the person has reason to believe that
- 16 the child is in imminent danger of injury or death. If the
- 17 person has such a reasonable belief, the person must shall
- 18 make every reasonable effort to notify the person responsible
- 19 for the child's welfare.

- 21 (325 ILCS 5/7.5) (from Ch. 23, par. 2057.5)
- Sec. 7.5. If the Child Protective Service Unit is denied
- 23 reasonable access to a child by the parents or other persons
- 24 and it deems that the health, safety, and best interests of
- 25 the child so require, it shall request the intervention of a
- local law enforcement agency for the purpose of examining
- 27 and interviewing the child if it has reason to believe that
- 28 the child is in imminent danger of injury or death. If the
- 29 Child Protective Service Unit does not have reason to believe
- 30 that the child is in imminent danger of injury or death, it
- 31 must or seek an appropriate court order to examine and
- 32 interview the child.

- 2 Section 10. The Juvenile Court Act of 1987 is amended by
- 3 changing Section 2-5 as follows:
- 4 (705 ILCS 405/2-5) (from Ch. 37, par. 802-5)
- 5 Sec. 2-5. Taking into custody. (1) A law enforcement
- 6 officer may, without a warrant, take into temporary custody a
- 7 minor (a) whom the officer with reasonable cause believes to
- 8 be a person described in Section 2-3 or 2-4, but only if the
- 9 officer also has reasonable cause to believe that the minor
- 10 is in imminent danger of injury or death; (b) who has been
- 11 adjudged a ward of the court and has escaped from any
- 12 commitment ordered by the court under this Act; or (c) who is
- 13 found in any street or public place suffering from any
- 14 sickness or injury which requires care, medical treatment or
- 15 hospitalization.
- 16 (2) Whenever a petition has been filed under Section
- 17 2-13 and the court finds that the conduct and behavior of the
- 18 minor may endanger the health, person, welfare, or property
- 19 of himself or others or that the circumstances of his home
- 20 environment may endanger his health, person, welfare or
- 21 property, a warrant may be issued immediately to take the
- 22 minor into custody.
- 23 (3) The taking of a minor into temporary custody under
- 24 this Section is not an arrest nor does it constitute a police
- 25 record.
