A BILL FOR

1 AN ACT concerning health.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Prenatal and Newborn Care Act is amended by
5 changing Section 5 as follows:

6 (410 ILCS 225/5) (from Ch. 111 1/2, par. 7025)

7 Sec. 5. Application and eligibility requirements. (a) Any 8 person requesting program benefits shall be afforded the ~~the~~ 9 opportunity to apply for such benefits. The application shall 10 be filed at a place designated by the Department.

11 (b) Program benefits may be provided to or on behalf of any 12 person: (1) who has been medically diagnosed as pregnant, and 13 who is living in this State voluntarily with the intention of 14 making it her home and not for a temporary purpose; and, (2)
15 who meets the financial eligibility requirements of the 16 Department as set forth in rules promulgated pursuant to this
17 Act. Such rules shall provide that any person will be eligible
18 with a gross income that equals or is less than the nonfarm
19 income official poverty line, as determined by the federal 20 Office of Management and Budget and revised annually in 21 accordance with Section 673(2) of the Omnibus Reconciliation
22 Act of 1981. The Department may establish financial eligibility
23 requirements for income levels above the official federal
24 poverty line. Temporary absence from this State, with an intent
25 to return, shall not render a person ineligible for benefits.

26 (c) No person receiving aid under Article V of The Illinois
27 Public Aid Code shall be eligible for program benefits.

28 (d) No person detained in a Federal, State or local 29 correctional facility as a result of being charged with or 30 convicted of a criminal offense shall be eligible for program
31 benefits.
