3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Counties Code is amended by changing Section

6 (55 ILCS 5/2-3009) (from Ch. 34, par. 2-3009)

7 Sec. 2-3009. Terms of board members; vacancies; elections.

8 (a) County board member elections by county board 9 districts. In those counties subject to this Division which 10 elect county board members by county board districts the 11 members shall, no later than 45 days after December 15, 1982, 12 and thereafter no later than September 1 of the year of the 13 next general election following reapportionment, divide the 14 county board districts publicly by lot as equally as possible
15 into 2 groups. Board members or their successors from one group
16 shall be elected for successive terms of 2 years, 4 years and 4
17 years; and members or their successors from the second group
18 shall be elected for successive terms of 4 years, 4 years, and 19 2 years. A county under this subsection may, by ordinance, 20 decide to divide the county board districts into 3 rather than 21 2 groups. If a county adopts an ordinance to this effect, the 22 members of the county board shall divide the county board
23 districts publicly by lot as equally as possible into 3 groups
24 no later than September 1 of the year of the next general 25 election following reapportionment. Board members or their 26 successors from one group shall be elected for successive terms
27 of 2 years, 4 years, and 4 years; members or their successors 28 from the second group shall be elected for successive terms of

1 (b) County board member elections at large. In those 2 counties which elect county board members at large, under 3 Sections 2-3002 and 2-3006, the members elected in the general
4 election following reapportionment shall, no later than 45 days
5 after taking office, divide themselves publicly by lot as 6 equally as possible into 2 groups. Board members or their
7 successors from one group shall be elected for successive terms 8 of 2 years, 4 years and 4 years; and members or their 9 successors from the second group shall be elected for 10 successive terms of 4 years, 4 years and 2 years. A county 11 under this subsection may, by ordinance, decide to divide the 12 county board members into 3 rather than 2 groups. If a county
13 adopts an ordinance to this effect, the members of the county
14 board elected in the general election following 15 reapportionment shall, no later than 45 days after taking 16 office, divide themselves publicly by lot as equally as 17 possible into 3 groups. Board members or their successors from 18 one group shall be elected for successive terms of 2 years, 4
19 years, and 4 years; members and their successors from the 20 second group shall be elected for successive terms of 4 years, 21 2 years, and 4 years; and members or their successors from the 22 third group shall be elected for successive terms of 4 years, 4
23 years, and 2 years. All terms shall commence on the first 24 Monday of the month following the month of election.

25 (c) Vacancies; time for elections. In counties under 26 subsection (a) or (b), if a vacancy occurs in the office of 27 chairperson ~~chairman~~ of the county board, the remaining members 28 of the board shall elect one of the members of the board to 29 serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the chairperson 30 ~~chairman~~.

31 (d) County board member in active military service. If any 32 county board member enters into the active military service of 33 the United States and is therefore unable to continue to 34 discharge the member's powers and duties, the member shall send 35 a written notice of the member's temporary inability to serve 36 to the chairperson of the county board. When the notice is

1 received, the office of that county board member shall be 2 deemed to be temporarily vacant and the county board shall 3 appoint a temporary replacement county board member who shall 4 perform and discharge all of the powers and duties of the 5 county board member during the time that the member is in 6 active military service and unable to discharge the member's 7 powers and duties. However, all powers and duties of the 8 temporary replacement county board member shall cease upon the 9 expiration of the term of office for which the county board 10 member was elected or upon the delivery of a written notice to 11 the chairperson from the county board member that states that 12 he or she is no longer unable to discharge the member's powers 13 and duties due to his or her active military service. Upon the 14 chairperson's receipt of the written notice from the county
15 board member, he or she shall resume the office of county board 16 member for the balance of the term of office for which he or 17 she was elected.

18 (e) In counties under subsection (a) or (b), the time for
