4 Section 5. The Library Records Confidentiality Act is 5 amended by changing Section 1 as follows:

6 (75 ILCS 70/1) (from Ch. 81, par. 1201)

7 Sec. 1. (a) The registration and circulation records of a
8 library are confidential information. ~~Except pursuant to a~~
9 ~~court order,~~ No person shall publish or make any information 10 contained in such records available to the public unless:

11 (1) required to do so under a court order; or

12 (2) the information is requested by a sworn law
13 enforcement officer who represents that it is impractical 14 to secure a court order as a result of an emergency where 15 the law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe 16 that there is an imminent danger of physical harm. The 17 information requested must be limited to identifying a
18 suspect, witness, or victim of a crime. The information 19 requested without a court order may not include the 20 disclosure of registration or circulation records that 21 would indicate materials borrowed, resources reviewed, or 22 services used at the library. If requested to do so by the 23 library, the requesting law enforcement officer must sign a 24 form acknowledging the receipt of the information. A 25 library providing the information may seek subsequent 26 judicial review to assess compliance with this Section.

27 This subsection shall not alter any right to challenge the 28 use or dissemination of patron information that is otherwise
29 permitted by law.

30 (b) This Section does not prevent a library from publishing
31 or making available to the public reasonable statistical 32 reports regarding library registration and book circulation

1 where those reports are presented so that no individual is 2 identified therein.

3 (b-5) Nothing in this Section shall be construed as a
4 privacy violation or a breach of confidentiality if a library
5 provides information to a law enforcement officer under item
6 (2) of subsection (a).

7 (c) For the purpose of this Section, (i) "library" means 8 any public library or library of an educational, historical or 9 eleemosynary institution, organization or society; (ii)
10 "registration records" includes any information a library
11 requires a person to provide in order for that person to become 12 eligible to borrow books and other materials and (iii)
13 "circulation records" includes all information identifying the 14 individual borrowing particular books or materials.
