

1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Code of Civil Procedure is amended by 5 changing Section 2-1101 as follows:

6 (735 ILCS 5/2-1101) (from Ch. 110, par. 2-1101)

7 Sec. 2-1101. Subpoenas. The clerk of any court in which an 8 action is pending shall, from time to time, issue subpoenas for 9 those witnesses and to those counties in the State as may be 10 required by either party. Every clerk who shall refuse so to do 11 shall be guilty of a petty offense and fined any sum not to 12 exceed $100. An attorney admitted to practice in the State of 13 Illinois, as an officer of the court, may also issue subpoenas
14 on behalf of the court for witnesses and to counties in a 15 pending action. An order of court is not required to obtain the 16 issuance by the clerk or by an attorney of a subpoena duces
17 tecum. For good cause shown, the court on motion may quash or 18 modify any subpoena or, in the case of a subpoena duces tecum, 19 condition the denial of the motion upon payment in advance by 20 the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the 21 reasonable expense of producing any item therein specified.

22 In the event that a party has subpoenaed an expert witness
23 including, but not limited to physicians or medical providers,

1 and the expert witness appears in court, and a conflict arises
2 between the party subpoenaing the expert witness and the expert
3 witness over the fees charged by the expert witness, the trial
4 court shall be advised of the conflict. The trial court shall 5 conduct a hearing subsequent to the testimony of the expert 6 witness and shall determine the reasonable fee to be paid to 7 the expert witness.

8 (Source: P.A. 87-418.)