HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois House of 3 Representatives are saddened to learn of the death of Founder
4 and former Executive Director of Carepoint Adult, Child and 5 Family Association, Vince L. Gillon, who passed away on March 6 17, 2008; and

7 WHEREAS, Vincent Gillon was well known for his 8 self-determination and ability to overcome many obstacles 9 presented to him throughout his life; he was a leader in the 10 Evanston and Roger's Park communities where he campaigned and 11 provided services to communities in need; his departure will 12 positively affect these communities for years to come; and

13 WHEREAS, Vincent Lawrence Gillon was born in Chicago, 14 Illinois; and

15 WHEREAS, Vincent Gillon was well known as a soft-spoken and 16 humble person; he remained a dedicated constituent, continuing 17 to campaign and pass out literature to his community in order
18 to keep people informed of the happenings in the community so 19 that he, along with many others, could be responsible for 20 making positive changes in the community; and

21 WHEREAS, Vincent Gillon is survived by his wife, Charisse

1 Ross-Gillon; his children, Parris Blake, Simone Gillon,
2 Victoria Gillon, and Aliya Gillon; and his stepchildren, Ashley
