1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, 3 represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The Probate Act of 1975 is amended by changing Section 11a-10 as follows:

6 (755 ILCS 5/11a-10) (from Ch. 110 1/2, par. 11a-10)

7

Sec. 11a-10. Procedures preliminary to hearing.

8 (a) Upon the filing of a petition pursuant to Section 9 11a-8, the court shall set a date and place for hearing to take place within 30 days. The court shall appoint a guardian ad 10 litem to report to the court concerning the respondent's best 11 interests consistent with the provisions of this Section, 12 13 except that the appointment of a guardian ad litem shall not be 14 required when the court determines that such appointment is not necessary for the protection of the respondent or a reasonably 15 16 informed decision on the petition. If the guardian ad litem is 17 not a licensed attorney, he or she shall be qualified, by training or experience, to work with or advocate for the 18 19 developmentally disabled, mentally ill, physically disabled, 20 elderlv, persons disabled because of the or mental deterioration, depending on the type of disability that is 21 22 alleged in the petition. The court may allow the guardian ad litem reasonable compensation. The guardian ad litem may 23 consult with a person who by training or experience is 1 2 qualified to work with persons with a developmental disability, persons with mental illness, or physically disabled persons, or 3 persons disabled because of mental deterioration, depending on 4 5 the type of disability that is alleged. The quardian ad litem 6 shall personally observe the respondent prior to the hearing 7 and shall inform him orally and in writing of the contents of the petition and of his rights under Section 11a-11. The 8 9 quardian ad litem shall also attempt to elicit the respondent's 10 position concerning the adjudication of disability, the 11 proposed guardian, a proposed change in residential placement, 12 changes in care that might result from the guardianship, and 13 other areas of inquiry deemed appropriate by the court. At or before the hearing, the guardian ad litem shall file a written 14 15 report detailing his or her observations of the respondent, the 16 responses of the respondent to any of the inquires detailed in 17 this Section, the opinion of the guardian ad litem or other professionals with whom the guardian ad litem consulted 18 concerning the appropriateness of guardianship, and any other 19 material issue discovered by the guardian ad litem. The 20 21 guardian ad litem shall appear at the hearing and testify as to 22 any issues presented in his or her report.

(b) The court (1) may appoint counsel for the respondent, if the court finds that the interests of the respondent will be best served by the appointment, and (2) shall appoint counsel upon respondent's request or if the respondent takes a position adverse to that of the guardian ad litem. The respondent shall be permitted to obtain the appointment of counsel either at the hearing or by any written or oral request communicated to the court prior to the hearing. The summons shall inform the respondent of this right to obtain appointed counsel. The court may allow counsel for the respondent reasonable compensation.

7 (c) If the respondent is unable to pay the fee of the 8 quardian ad litem or appointed counsel, or both, the court may 9 enter an order for the petitioner to pay all such fees or such 10 amounts as the respondent or the respondent's estate may be 11 unable to pay. However, in cases where the Office of State 12 Guardian is the petitioner, consistent with Section 30 of the Guardianship and Advocacy Act, or where an elder abuse provider 13 14 agency is the petitioner, pursuant to Section 9 of the Elder Abuse and Neglect Act, or where the Department of Human 15 16 Services Office of Inspector General is the petitioner, 17 consistent with Section 45(b) of the Abuse of Adults with Disabilities Intervention Act, no guardian ad litem or legal 18 19 fees shall be assessed against the Office of State Guardian, or 20 the elder abuse provider agency, or the Department of Human Services Office of Inspector General. 21

(d) The hearing may be held at such convenient place as the court directs, including at a facility in which the respondent resides.

(e) Unless he is the petitioner, the respondent shall bepersonally served with a copy of the petition and a summons not
