1           WHEREAS, Bishop Charles Little has dedicated countless 2 hours to teaching, counseling, and praying for the incarcerated
3 and ex-offenders who had difficulty coping or finding their way
4 back into society; he has helped to comfort many ailing people
5 in nursing homes, hospitals, and sick beds whenever he was 6 called or felt compelled to go; and

7           WHEREAS, Bishop Charles Little's loving wife of 54 years,
8 First Lady Corine Little, has been a faithful supporter of her 9 husband's ministry for more than 50 years; she has worked 10 tirelessly both in and outside of the church; in addition to 11 her work in various committees and boards at God's House for 12 All Nations, she is known for her anointed motivational
13 speaking, which has touched and changed many lives for God
14 throughout the years; she has worked passionately with unwed
15 mothers, young women in need, and members of her congregation; 16 she has also visited the sick in hospitals and institutions and 17 supported and organized a number of charitable programs; and

18           WHEREAS, Bishop Charles Little serves as a model of hard 19 work, integrity, and dedication for the people of the State of 20 Illinois; therefore, be it
