14 there in 1973 and her sons were attending the local public
15 schools; she was a former science teacher, she was a Charter 16 Member of the Grove Heritage Association, and she helped to 17 develop the curriculum that thousands of District 34 children
18 and others have enjoyed as part of the Grove experience for 19 more than two decades, learning about local history, native
20 cultures, and the outdoors; she was a featured speaker at the 21 most recent annual District 34 Parents as Partners seminar; and

22 WHEREAS, She became an active and valuable member of the

1 Glenview League of Women Voters in 1973, and has served in 2 numerous local and State leadership positions; she has recently
3 been working on a committee charged with writing guidance from 4 the Glenview League to the U.S. League of Women Voters for an 5 upcoming national convention; and

6 WHEREAS, She has worked in the U.S. Environmental 7 Protection Agency's Chicago office for the last 25 years, where 8 she is the Lake Michigan Manager and entrusted with protecting 9 one of the most precious natural resources in our nation; and

10 WHEREAS, She has served on the Glenview Village Natural 11 Resource Commission since its inception; she was also appointed
12 by Glenview Village President Kerry Cummings to be a citizen
13 representative on the Storm Water Task Force, which met 14 intensively and made important recommendations for managing 15 water and reducing flooding throughout Glenview; therefore, be 16 it
