1	AMENDMENT TO SENATE BILL 2569
2	AMENDMENT NO Amend Senate Bill 2569 by replacing
3	everything after the enacting clause with the following:
4	"Section 5. The Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of
5	Marriage Act is amended by changing Sections 503 and 505 as
6	follows:
7	(750 ILCS 5/503) (from Ch. 40, par. 503)
8	Sec. 503. Disposition of property.
9	(a) For purposes of this Act, "marital property" means all
10	property acquired by either spouse subsequent to the marriage,
11	except the following, which is known as "non-marital property":
12	(1) property acquired by gift, legacy or descent;
13	(2) property acquired in exchange for property
14	acquired before the marriage or in exchange for property
15	acquired by gift, legacy or descent;
16	(3) property acquired by a spouse after a judgment of

1	legal separation;
2	(4)	property	excluded	by	valid	agreement	of	the
3	parties;	,

4 (5) any judgment or property obtained by judgment 5 awarded to a spouse from the other spouse;

6

(6) property acquired before the marriage;

7 (7) the increase in value of property acquired by a 8 method listed in paragraphs (1) through (6) of this 9 subsection, irrespective of whether the increase results 10 from a contribution of marital property, non-marital 11 property, the personal effort of a spouse, or otherwise, 12 subject to the right of reimbursement provided in 13 subsection (c) of this Section; and

14 (8) income from property acquired by a method listed in 15 paragraphs (1) through (7) of this subsection if the income
16 is not attributable to the personal effort of a spouse.

(b) (1) For purposes of distribution of property pursuant to 17 18 this Section, all property acquired by either spouse after the marriage and before a judgment of dissolution of marriage or 19 20 declaration of invalidity of marriage, including non-marital 21 property transferred into some form of co-ownership between the 22 spouses, is presumed to be marital property, regardless of 23 whether title is held individually or by the spouses in some 24 form of co-ownership such as joint tenancy, tenancy in common, 25 tenancy by the entirety, or community property. The presumption 26 of marital property is overcome by a showing that the property 1 was acquired by a method listed in subsection (a) of this 2 Section.

(2) For purposes of distribution of property pursuant to 3 4 this Section, all pension benefits (including pension benefits 5 under the Illinois Pension Code) acquired by either spouse after the marriage and before a judgment of dissolution of 6 marriage or declaration of invalidity of the marriage are 7 presumed to be marital property, regardless of which spouse 8 participates in the pension plan. The presumption that these 9 10 pension benefits are marital property is overcome by a showing 11 that the pension benefits were acquired by a method listed in subsection (a) of this Section. The right to a division of 12 13 pension benefits in just proportions under this Section is enforceable under Section 1-119 of the Illinois Pension Code. 14

15 The value of pension benefits in a retirement system 16 subject to the Illinois Pension Code shall be determined in 17 accordance with the valuation procedures established by the 18 retirement system.

The recognition of pension benefits as marital property and the division of those benefits pursuant to a Qualified Illinois Domestic Relations Order shall not be deemed to be a diminishment, alienation, or impairment of those benefits. The division of pension benefits is an allocation of property in which each spouse has a species of common ownership.

25 (3) For purposes of distribution of property under this 26 Section, all stock options granted to either spouse after the

1 marriage and before a judgment of dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage, whether vested or 2 non-vested or whether their value is ascertainable, 3 are 4 presumed to be marital property. This presumption of marital 5 property is overcome by a showing that the stock options were acquired by a method listed in subsection (a) of this Section. 6 The court shall allocate stock options between the parties at 7 8 the time of the judgment of dissolution of marriage or 9 declaration of invalidity of marriage recognizing that the 10 value of the stock options may not be then determinable and 11 that the actual division of the options may not occur until a future date. In making the allocation between the parties, the 12 13 court shall consider, in addition to the factors set forth in 14 subsection (d) of this Section, the following:

(i) All circumstances underlying the grant of the stock option including but not limited to whether the grant was for past, present, or future efforts, or any combination thereof.

19 (ii) The length of time from the grant of the option to20 the time the option is exercisable.

21 (b-5) As to any policy of life insurance insuring the life 22 of either spouse, or any interest in such policy, that constitutes marital property, whether whole life, term life, 23 24 group term life, universal life, or other form of life 25 insurance policy, and whether or not the value is 26 ascertainable, the court shall allocate ownership, death 09700SB2569sam002 -5- LRB097 13260 AJO 66405 a

5 (c) Commingled marital and non-marital property shall be 6 treated in the following manner, unless otherwise agreed by the 7 spouses:

8 (1)When marital and non-marital property are 9 commingled by contributing one estate of property into 10 another resulting in a loss of identity of the contributed 11 property, the classification of the contributed property is transmuted to the estate receiving the contribution, 12 13 subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this 14 subsection; provided that if marital and non-marital 15 property are commingled into newly acquired property 16 resulting in a loss of identity of the contributing 17 estates, the commingled property shall be deemed transmuted to marital property, subject to the provisions 18 19 of paragraph (2) of this subsection.

20 (2) When one estate of property makes a contribution to 21 another estate of property, or when a spouse contributes 22 personal effort to non-marital property, the contributing 23 estate shall be reimbursed from the estate receiving the 24 contribution notwithstanding any transmutation; provided, 25 that no such reimbursement shall be made with respect to a 26 contribution which is not retraceable by clear and 09700SB2569sam002 -6- LRB097 13260 AJO 66405 a

(1) the contribution of each party to the acquisition, preservation, or increase or decrease in value of the marital or non-marital property, including (i) any such decrease attributable to a payment deemed to have been an advance from the parties' marital estate under subsection (c-1)(2) of Section 501 and (ii) the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker or to the family unit;

26

(2) the dissipation by each party of the marital or

1	non-marital property, provided that a party's claim of
2	dissipation is subject to the following conditions: $ au$

5	after discovery closes, whichever is later;
6	(ii) the notice of intent to claim dissipation
7	shall contain, at a minimum, a date or period of time
8	during which the marriage began undergoing an
9	irretrievable breakdown, an identification of the
10	property dissipated, and a date or period of time
11	during which the dissipation occurred;
12	(iii) the notice of intent to claim dissipation
13	shall be filed with the clerk of the court and be
14	served pursuant to applicable rules;
15	(iv) no dissipation shall be deemed to have

18	the party claiming dissipation knew or should have
19	known of the dissipation;
20	(3) the value of the property assigned to each spouse;
21	(4) the duration of the marriage;
22	(5) the relevant economic circumstances of each spouse

24	including the desirability of awarding the family home, or
25	the right to live therein for reasonable periods, to the
26	spouse having custody of the children;

1 (6) any obligations and rights arising from a prior marriage of either party; 2 3 (7) any antenuptial agreement of the parties; 4 (8) the age, health, station, occupation, amount and 5 sources of income, vocational skills, employability, estate, liabilities, and needs of each of the parties; 6 (9) the custodial provisions for any children; 7 8 (10) whether the apportionment is in lieu of or in 9 addition to maintenance; 10 (11) the reasonable opportunity of each spouse for future acquisition of capital assets and income; and 11 (12) the tax consequences of the property division upon 12 13 the respective economic circumstances of the parties. 14 (e) Each spouse has a species of common ownership in the 15 property which vests at the time dissolution marital 16 proceedings are commenced and continues only during the pendency of the action. Any such interest in marital property 17 shall not encumber that property so as to restrict its 18 19 transfer, assignment or conveyance by the title holder unless 20 such title holder is specifically enjoined from making such 21 transfer, assignment or conveyance.

(f) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or declaration of invalidity of marriage or in a proceeding for disposition of property following dissolution of marriage by a court that lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property, the court, 09700SB2569sam002 -9- LRB097 13260 AJO 66405 a

1 in determining the value of the marital and non-marital 2 property for purposes of dividing the property, shall value the 3 property as of the date of trial or some other date as close to 4 the date of trial as is practicable.

5 (g) The court if necessary to protect and promote the best interests of the children may set aside a portion of the 6 jointly or separately held estates of the parties in a separate 7 fund or trust for the support, maintenance, education, physical 8 9 and mental health, and general welfare of any minor, dependent, 10 or incompetent child of the parties. In making a determination 11 under this subsection, the court may consider, among other things, the conviction of a party of any of the offenses set 12 13 forth in Section 11-1.20, 11-1.30, 11-1.40, 11-1.50, 11-1.60, 12-3.3, 12-4, 12-4.1, 12-4.2, 12-4.3, 12-13, 12-14, 12-14.1, 14 15 12-15, or 12-16, or Section 12-3.05 except for subdivision 16 (a) (4) or (g) (1), of the Criminal Code of 1961 if the victim is a child of one or both of the parties, and there is a need for, 17 and cost of, care, healing and counseling for the child who is 18 the victim of the crime. 19

(h) Unless specifically directed by a reviewing court, or upon good cause shown, the court shall not on remand consider any increase or decrease in the value of any "marital" or "non-marital" property occurring since the assessment of such property at the original trial or hearing, but shall use only that assessment made at the original trial or hearing.

26 (i) The court may make such judgments affecting the marital property as may be just and may enforce such judgments by ordering a sale of marital property, with proceeds therefrom to be applied as determined by the court.

09700SB2569sam002

4 (j) After proofs have closed in the final hearing on all 5 other issues between the parties (or in conjunction with the 6 final hearing, if all parties so stipulate) and before judgment 7 is entered, a party's petition for contribution to fees and 8 costs incurred in the proceeding shall be heard and decided, in 9 accordance with the following provisions:

15 (2) Any award of contribution to one party from the 16 other party shall be based on the criteria for division of 17 marital property under this Section 503 and, if maintenance 18 has been awarded, on the criteria for an award of 19 maintenance under Section 504.

20 (3) The filing of a petition for contribution shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of the attorney-client 21 22 privilege between the petitioning party and current or former counsel; and such a waiver shall not constitute a 23 24 prerequisite to a hearing for contribution. If either 25 party's presentation on contribution, however, includes 26 evidence within the scope of the attorney-client

1 privilege, the disclosure or disclosures shall be narrowly 2 construed and shall not be deemed by the court to 3 constitute a general waiver of the privilege as to matters 4 beyond the scope of the presentation.

09700SB2569sam002

5 (4) No finding on which a contribution award is based 6 or denied shall be asserted against counsel or former 7 counsel for purposes of any hearing under subsection (c) or 8 (e) of Section 508.

9 (5) A contribution award (payable to either the 10 petitioning party or the party's counsel, or jointly, as the court determines) may be in the form of either a set 11 dollar amount or a percentage of fees and costs (or a 12 13 portion of fees and costs) to be subsequently agreed upon 14 by the petitioning party and counsel or, alternatively, 15 thereafter determined in a hearing pursuant to subsection (c) of Section 508 or previously or thereafter determined 16 in an independent proceeding under subsection (e) of 17 Section 508. 18

(750 ILCS 5/505) (from Ch. 40, par. 505)

5 Sec. 505. Child support; contempt; penalties.

(a) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal 6 7 separation, declaration of invalidity of marriage, a 8 proceeding for child support following dissolution of the 9 marriage by a court that which lacked personal jurisdiction 10 over the absent spouse, a proceeding for modification of a previous order for child support under Section 510 of this Act, 11 12 or any proceeding authorized under Section 501 or 601 of this 13 Act, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of 14 support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable 15 and necessary for the support of the child his support, without regard to marital misconduct. The duty of support owed to a 16 17 child includes the obligation to provide for the reasonable and necessary educational, physical, mental and emotional health 18 19 needs of the child. For purposes of this Section, the term "child" shall include any child under age 18 and any child 20 21 under age 19 who is still attending high school.

22 23 (1) The Court shall determine the minimum amount of support by using the following guidelines:

24Number of ChildrenPercent of Supporting Party's25Net Income

1	1	20%
2	2	28%
3	3	32%
4	4	40%
5	5	45%
6	6 or more	50%

7 (2) The above guidelines shall be applied in each case 8 unless the court finds that a deviation from the guidelines 9 is appropriate after considering the best interest of the child in light of the evidence, including, but not limited 10 11 to, makes a finding that application of the guidelines 12 would inappropriate, after considering the best -be 13 interests of the child in light of evidence including but 14 not limited to one or more of the following relevant factors: 15

(a) the financial resources and needs of the child;

17 (b) the financial resources and needs of the18 custodial parent;

(c) the standard of living the child would haveenjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved;

(d) the physical, mental, and emotional needs condition of the child, and his educational needs; and (d-5) the educational needs of the child; and
(e) the financial resources and needs of the non-custodial parent.
If the court deviates from the guidelines, the court's

09700SB2569sam002

1 finding shall state the amount of support that would have been required under the quidelines, if determinable. The 2 court shall include the reason or reasons for the variance 3 4 from the guidelines. 5 (2.5) The court, in its discretion, in addition to setting child support pursuant to the quidelines and 6 7 factors, may order either or both parents owing a duty of 8 support to a child of the marriage to contribute to the following expenses, if determined by the court to be 9 10 reasonable: 11 (a) health needs not covered by insurance; 12 (b) child care; 13 (c) education; and 14 (d) extracurricular activities. 15 (3) "Net income" is defined as the total of all income 16 from all sources, minus the following deductions: 17 (a) Federal income tax (properly calculated 18 withholding or estimated payments); 19 (b) State income tax (properly calculated 20 withholding or estimated payments); 21 (c) Social Security (FICA payments); 22 (d) Mandatory retirement contributions required by 23 law or as a condition of employment; 24 (e) Union dues; 25 (f) Dependent and individual 26 health/hospitalization insurance premiums and life -15- LRB097 13260 AJO 66405 a insurance premiums for life insurance ordered by the court to reasonably secure child support or support ordered pursuant to Section 513, any such order to entail provisions on which the parties agree or, otherwise, in accordance with the limitations set forth in subsection 504(f)(1) and (2);

7 (g) Prior obligations of support or maintenance
8 actually paid pursuant to a court order;

9 (h) Expenditures for repayment of debts that 10 represent reasonable and necessary expenses for the 11 production of income, medical expenditures necessary to preserve life or health, reasonable expenditures 12 13 for the benefit of the child and the other parent, 14 exclusive of gifts. The court shall reduce net income 15 in determining the minimum amount of support to be 16 ordered only for the period that such payments are due and shall enter an order containing provisions for its 17 18 self-executing modification upon termination of such 19 payment period;

(i) Foster care payments paid by the Department of Children and Family Services for providing licensed foster care to a foster child.

(4) In cases where the court order provides for health/hospitalization insurance coverage pursuant to Section 505.2 of this Act, the premiums for that insurance, or that portion of the premiums for which the supporting

-16- LRB097 13260 AJO 66405 a party is responsible in the case of insurance provided through an employer's health insurance plan where the employer pays a portion of the premiums, shall be subtracted from net income in determining the minimum amount of support to be ordered.

09700SB2569sam002

In a proceeding for child support following 6 (4.5)dissolution of the marriage by a court that lacked personal 7 8 jurisdiction over the absent spouse, and in which the court 9 is requiring payment of support for the period before the 10 date an order for current support is entered, there is a rebuttable presumption that the supporting party's net 11 12 income for the prior period was the same as his or her net income at the time the order for current support is 13 14 entered.

15 (5) If the net income cannot be determined because of default or any other reason, the court shall order support 16 17 in an amount considered reasonable in the particular case. 18 The final order in all cases shall state the support level in dollar amounts. However, if the court finds that the 19 20 child support amount cannot be expressed exclusively as a 21 dollar amount because all or a portion of the payor's net 22 income is uncertain as to source, time of payment, or 23 amount, the court may order a percentage amount of support 24 in addition to a specific dollar amount and enter such 25 other orders as may be necessary to determine and enforce, 26 on a timely basis, the applicable support ordered.

1 (6) If (i) the non-custodial parent was properly served with a request for discovery of financial information 2 3 relating to the non-custodial parent's ability to provide 4 child support, (ii) the non-custodial parent failed to 5 comply with the request, despite having been ordered to do so by the court, and (iii) the non-custodial parent is not 6 present at the hearing to determine support despite having 7 8 received proper notice, then any relevant financial 9 information concerning the non-custodial parent's ability 10 to provide child support that was obtained pursuant to 11 subpoena and proper notice shall be admitted into evidence without the need to establish any further foundation for 12 13 its admission.

(a-5) In an action to enforce an order for support based on 14 15 the respondent's failure to make support payments as required 16 by the order, notice of proceedings to hold the respondent in contempt for that failure may be served on the respondent by 17 18 personal service or by regular mail addressed to the respondent's last known address. The respondent's last known 19 20 address may be determined from records of the clerk of the 21 court, from the Federal Case Registry of Child Support Orders, 22 or by any other reasonable means.

(b) Failure of either parent to comply with an order to pay support shall be punishable as in other cases of contempt. In addition to other penalties provided by law the Court may, after finding the parent guilty of contempt, order that the 1 parent be:

2 (1) placed on probation with such conditions of
3 probation as the Court deems advisable;

4 (2) sentenced to periodic imprisonment for a period not 5 to exceed 6 months; provided, however, that the Court may 6 permit the parent to be released for periods of time during 7 the day or night to:

8

(A) work; or

9 (B) conduct a business or other self-employed 10 occupation.

11 The Court may further order any part or all of the earnings 12 of a parent during a sentence of periodic imprisonment paid to 13 the Clerk of the Circuit Court or to the parent having custody 14 or to the guardian having custody of the children of the 15 sentenced parent for the support of said children until further 16 order of the Court.

If there is a unity of interest and ownership sufficient to 17 18 render no financial separation between a non-custodial parent and another person or persons or business entity, the court may 19 20 pierce the ownership veil of the person, persons, or business 21 entity to discover assets of the non-custodial parent held in 22 the name of that person, those persons, or that business 23 following circumstances are sufficient entity. The to 24 authorize a court to order discovery of the assets of a person, 25 persons, or business entity and to compel the application of 26 any discovered assets toward payment on the judgment for

1 support:

2 3

(1) the non-custodial parent and the person, persons, or business entity maintain records together.

4 (2) the non-custodial parent and the person, persons, 5 or business entity fail to maintain an arm's arms length relationship between themselves with regard to any assets. 6

(3) the non-custodial parent transfers assets to the person, persons, or business entity with the intent to 8 9 perpetrate a fraud on the custodial parent.

10 With respect to assets which are real property, no order 11 entered under this paragraph shall affect the rights of bona fide purchasers, mortgagees, judgment creditors, or other lien 12 13 holders who acquire their interests in the property prior to the time a notice of lis pendens pursuant to the Code of Civil 14 15 Procedure or a copy of the order is placed of record in the 16 office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which the 17 real property is located.

The court may also order in cases where the parent is 90 18 19 days or more delinquent in payment of support or has been 20 adjudicated in arrears in an amount equal to 90 days obligation 21 or more, that the parent's Illinois driving privileges be 22 suspended until the court determines that the parent is in 23 compliance with the order of support. The court may also order 24 that the parent be issued a family financial responsibility 25 driving permit that would allow limited driving privileges for 26 employment and medical purposes in accordance with Section 09700SB2569sam002 -20- LRB097 13260 AJO 66405 a

1 7-702.1 of the Illinois Vehicle Code. The clerk of the circuit court shall certify the order suspending the driving privileges 2 3 of the parent or granting the issuance of a family financial 4 responsibility driving permit to the Secretary of State on 5 forms prescribed by the Secretary. Upon receipt of the 6 authenticated documents, the Secretary of State shall suspend the parent's driving privileges until further order of the 7 court and shall, if ordered by the court, subject to the 8 9 provisions of Section 7-702.1 of the Illinois Vehicle Code, 10 issue a family financial responsibility driving permit to the parent. 11

In addition to the penalties or punishment that may be 12 13 imposed under this Section, any person whose conduct constitutes a violation of Section 15 of the Non-Support 14 15 Punishment Act may be prosecuted under that Act, and a person 16 convicted under that Act may be sentenced in accordance with that Act. The sentence may include but need not be limited to a 17 requirement that the person perform community service under 18 19 Section 50 of that Act or participate in a work alternative 20 program under Section 50 of that Act. A person may not be 21 required to participate in a work alternative program under 22 Section 50 of that Act if the person is currently participating 23 in a work program pursuant to Section 505.1 of this Act.

A support obligation, or any portion of a support obligation, which becomes due and remains unpaid as of the end of each month, excluding the child support that was due for 09700SB2569sam002 -21- LRB097 13260 AJO 66405 a 1 that month to the extent that it was not paid in that month, shall accrue simple interest as set forth in Section 12-109 of 2 the Code of Civil Procedure. An order for support entered or 3 4 modified on or after January 1, 2006 shall contain a statement 5 that a support obligation required under the order, or any portion of a support obligation required under the order, that 6 becomes due and remains unpaid as of the end of each month, 7 8 excluding the child support that was due for that month to the extent that it was not paid in that month, shall accrue simple 9 10 interest as set forth in Section 12-109 of the Code of Civil 11 Procedure. Failure to include the statement in the order for support does not affect the validity of the order or the 12 13 accrual of interest as provided in this Section.

(c) A one-time charge of 20% is imposable upon the amount of past-due child support owed on July 1, 1988 which has accrued under a support order entered by the court. The charge shall be imposed in accordance with the provisions of Section 10-21 of the Illinois Public Aid Code and shall be enforced by the court upon petition.

(d) Any new or existing support order entered by the court under this Section shall be deemed to be a series of judgments against the person obligated to pay support thereunder, each such judgment to be in the amount of each payment or installment of support and each such judgment to be deemed entered as of the date the corresponding payment or installment becomes due under the terms of the support order. Each such judgment shall have the full force, effect and attributes of any other judgment of this State, including the ability to be enforced. Notwithstanding any other State or local law to the contrary, a lien arises by operation of law against the real and personal property of the noncustodial parent for each installment of overdue support owed by the noncustodial parent.

(e) When child support is to be paid through the clerk of 7 the court in a county of 1,000,000 inhabitants or less, the 8 9 order shall direct the obligor to pay to the clerk, in addition 10 to the child support payments, all fees imposed by the county 11 board under paragraph (3) of subsection (u) of Section 27.1 of the Clerks of Courts Act. Unless paid in cash or pursuant to an 12 order for withholding, the payment of the fee shall be by a 13 14 separate instrument from the support payment and shall be made 15 to the order of the Clerk.

16 (f) All orders for support, when entered or modified, shall include a provision requiring the obligor to notify the court 17 and, in cases in which a party is receiving child and spouse 18 services under Article X of the Illinois Public Aid Code, the 19 20 Department of Healthcare and Family Services, within 7 days, (i) of the name and address of any new employer of the obligor, 21 22 (ii) whether the obligor has access to health insurance 23 coverage through the employer or other group coverage and, if 24 so, the policy name and number and the names of persons covered 25 under the policy, and (iii) of any new residential or mailing 26 address or telephone number of the non-custodial parent. In any subsequent action to enforce a support order, upon a sufficient showing that a diligent effort has been made to ascertain the location of the non-custodial parent, service of process or provision of notice necessary in the case may be made at the last known address of the non-custodial parent in any manner expressly provided by the Code of Civil Procedure or this Act, which service shall be sufficient for purposes of due process.

8 (g) An order for support shall include a date on which the 9 current support obligation terminates. The termination date 10 shall be no earlier than the date on which the child covered by 11 the order will attain the age of 18. However, if the child will not graduate from high school until after attaining the age of 12 13 18, then the termination date shall be no earlier than the earlier of the date on which the child's high school graduation 14 15 will occur or the date on which the child will attain the age 16 of 19. The order for support shall state that the termination date does not apply to any arrearage that may remain unpaid on 17 that date. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to 18 prevent the court from modifying the order or terminating the 19 20 order in the event the child is otherwise emancipated.

(g-5) If there is an unpaid arrearage or delinquency (as those terms are defined in the Income Withholding for Support Act) equal to at least one month's support obligation on the termination date stated in the order for support or, if there is no termination date stated in the order, on the date the child attains the age of majority or is otherwise emancipated, 09700SB2569sam002 -24- LRB097 13260 AJO 66405 a

1 the periodic amount required to be paid for current support of that child immediately prior to that date shall automatically 2 continue to be an obligation, not as current support but as 3 4 periodic payment toward satisfaction of the unpaid arrearage or 5 delinguency. That periodic payment shall be in addition to any 6 periodic payment previously required for satisfaction of the arrearage or delinguency. The total periodic amount to be paid 7 toward satisfaction of the arrearage or delinquency may be 8 9 enforced and collected by any method provided by law for 10 enforcement and collection of child support, including but not 11 limited to income withholding under the Income Withholding for Support Act. Each order for support entered or modified on or 12 after the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 93rd 13 14 General Assembly must contain a statement notifying the parties 15 of the requirements of this subsection. Failure to include the 16 statement in the order for support does not affect the validity of the order or the operation of the provisions of this 17 subsection with regard to the order. This subsection shall not 18 be construed to prevent or affect the establishment or 19 20 modification of an order for support of a minor child or the establishment or modification of an order for support of a 21 22 non-minor child or educational expenses under Section 513 of this Act. 23

(h) An order entered under this Section shall include a

1 new employment, and each time the obligor's employment is 2 terminated for any reason. The report shall be in writing and shall, in the case of new employment, include the name and 3 4 address of the new employer. Failure to report new employment 5 or the termination of current employment, if coupled with 6 nonpayment of support for a period in excess of 60 days, is indirect criminal contempt. For any obligor arrested for 7 8 failure to report new employment bond shall be set in the 9 amount of the child support that should have been paid during 10 the period of unreported employment. An order entered under 11 this Section shall also include a provision requiring the obligor and obligee parents to advise each other of a change in 12 13 residence within 5 days of the change except when the court 14 finds that the physical, mental, or emotional health of a party 15 or that of a child, or both, would be seriously endangered by 16 disclosure of the party's address.

(i) The court does not lose the powers of contempt, driver's license suspension, or other child support enforcement mechanisms, including, but not limited to, criminal prosecution as set forth in this Act, upon the emancipation of the minor child or children.
