1 AN ACT concerning regulation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

- Section 5. The Electronic Fund Transfer Act is amended by changing Section 10 and by adding Section 46 as follows:
- 6 (205 ILCS 616/10)
- 7 Sec. 10. Definitions. For purposes of this Act, the words
- 8 and phrases defined in this Section shall have the meanings
- 9 ascribed to them unless the context requires otherwise.
- 10 Whenever the terms "network" and "switch" are used, they shall
- 11 be deemed interchangeable unless, from the context and facts,
- the intention is plain to apply only to one type of entity.
- "Access device" means a card, code, or other means of
- 14 access to an account, or any combination thereof, that may be
- used by a customer to initiate an electronic fund transfer at a
- 16 terminal.
- "Account" means a demand deposit, savings deposit, share,
- 18 member, or other customer asset account held by a financial
- 19 institution.
- 20 An "affiliate" of, or a person "affiliated" with, a
- 21 specified person, means a person that directly, or indirectly
- through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by,
- or is under common control with, the person specified.

other than a financial institution.

"Switch" means an electronic information and communication processing facility that processes interchange transactions on behalf of a network. This term does not include an electronic information and communication processing company (1) that is owned by a bank holding company or an affiliate of a bank holding company and used solely for transmissions among affiliates of the bank holding company or (2) to the extent that the facility, by virtue of a contractual relationship, is used solely for transmissions among affiliates of a bank holding company, regardless of whether the facility is an affiliate of the bank holding company or operates as a switch with respect to one or more networks under an independent contractual relationship.

"Terminal" means an electronic device through which a consumer may initiate an interchange transaction. This term does not include (1) a telephone, (2) an electronic device located in a personal residence, (3) a personal computer or other electronic device used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, (4) an electronic device owned or operated by a seller of goods and services unless the device is connected either directly or indirectly to a financial institution and is operated in a manner that provides access to an account by means of a personal and confidential code or other security mechanism (other than signature), (5) electronic device that is not accessible to persons other than

- employees of a financial institution or affiliate of 1
- 2 financial institution, or (6) an electronic device that is
- established by a financial institution on a proprietary basis 3
- that is identified as such and that cannot be accessed by 4
- customers of other financial institutions. The Commissioner 5
- may issue a written rule that excludes additional electronic 6
- devices from the definition of the term "terminal". 7

- 9 (205 ILCS 616/46 new)
- 10 Sec. 46. Disclosure requirements for general use
- 11 reloadable cards.
- 12 (a) The form of the disclosures made under this Section
- 1.3 shall adhere to the following standards:
- (1) The disclosures shall be clear and conspicuous. The 14
- 15 disclosures may contain commonly accepted or readily
- 16 understandable abbreviations or symbols.
- (2) The disclosures generally shall be provided to the 17
- 18 consumer in written or electronic form, except that the
- disclosures required to be made prior to purchase may be 19
- 20 provided orally.
- 21 (3) The disclosures may be made on or with other
- 22 documents. For joint accounts, only one set of the required
- disclosures shall be provided and may be given to any of 23
- 24 the account holders.
- 25 (4) Issuers may design their own disclosure format,

1	provided that all fees required to be disclosed under
2	subsection (b) are included and the substance and clarity
3	of the disclosures are not affected.
4	(b) The following disclosures are required:
5	(1) Before a general use reloadable card is purchased,
6	a person that issues the card shall disclose to the
7	consumer the amount of any dormancy, inactivity, or
8	periodic service fee for holding or use of the card that
9	may be charged and how often the fee or fees may be
10	assessed. The disclosures may be displayed on the card
11	packaging or carrier containing the general use reloadable
12	card.
13	(2) A person that issues a general use reloadable card
14	shall include the following disclosures on the card:
15	(A) the expiration date of the card, if any; and
16	(B) a toll-free telephone number and, if one is
17	maintained, a website that a consumer may use to obtain
18	information about fees and to obtain a replacement card
19	after the card expires if the underlying funds may be
20	available thereafter.
21	(3) A person that issues a general use reloadable card
22	shall disclose the amount of each type of fee that may be
23	imposed in connection with the card (or an explanation of
24	how the fee shall be determined), and the conditions under
25	which the fee may be imposed.
26	(c) A card, code, or other access device is not a general

- 1 use reloadable card merely because the issuer or processor is
- technically able to add functionality that would otherwise 2
- enable the card, code, or other access device to be reloaded. 3
- 4 (d) Compliance with the federal Electronic Fund Transfer
- 5 Act and any regulations issued under that Act regarding general
- 6 use reloadable card disclosures shall constitute compliance
- with this Section. 7
- (e) The requirements of this Section shall apply to any 8
- 9 general use reloadable card sold to a consumer on or after
- 10 January 1, 2015.
- 11 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect January
- 1, 2014. 12
