HOUSE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Persons with disabilities should enjoy a full and decent life, in conditions that ensure dignity, promote self-reliance, facilitate active participation in the community, and allow the full enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms on an equal basis with other persons; and

WHEREAS, Down syndrome is a naturally occurring chromosomal arrangement that has always been a part of the human condition; this additional genetic material alters the course of development and causes the characteristics associated with Down syndrome; and

WHEREAS, Down syndrome is the most commonly occurring chromosomal condition; one in every 691 babies in the United States is born with Down syndrome; there are three types of Down syndrome: trisomy 21 (nondisjunction) accounts for 95% of cases, while translocation accounts for about 4% and mosaicism accounts for about 1%; and

WHEREAS, Down syndrome occurs in people of all races and economic levels; there are currently more than 400,000 people living with Down syndrome in the United States; and

WHEREAS, People with Down syndrome have an increased risk

1 for certain medical conditions, such as congenital heart
2 defects, respiratory and hearing problems, Alzheimer's
3 disease, childhood leukemia, and thyroid conditions; many of 4 these conditions are now treatable, so most people with Down 5 syndrome lead healthy lives; and

6 WHEREAS, Life expectancy for people with Down syndrome has 7 increased dramatically in recent decades - from 25 in 1983 to 8 60 today; people with Down syndrome attend school, work, 9 participate in decisions that affect them, and contribute to 10 society in many wonderful ways; and

11 WHEREAS, All people with Down syndrome experience
12 cognitive delays, but the effect is usually mild to moderate 13 and is not indicative of the many strengths and talents that 14 each individual possesses; and

15 WHEREAS, Quality educational programs, a stimulating home
16 environment, good health care, and positive support from 17 family, friends, and the community enable people with Down
18 syndrome to develop their full potential and lead fulfilling 19 lives; and

20 WHEREAS, March 21, 2013 marks the seventh annual World Down
21 Syndrome Day, the second official date since it was recognized 22 by the United Nations in 2012; people with Down syndrome, their

1 families, friends, teachers, coworkers and supporters will 2 celebrate across the globe; celebrated on the 21st day of the 3 third month of the year, the date is symbolic of the third copy
4 of the 21st chromosome that characterizes Down syndrome;
5 therefore, be it

6 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 7 NINETY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 8 we show our support for and join in the celebration of World
9 Down Syndrome Day on March 21, 2013 to raise awareness, 10 support, and recognition of the dignity, rights, and well-being 11 of people with Down syndrome throughout the State; and be it
12 further

13 RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 14 presented to Gigi's Playhouse, an Illinois organization active
15 in Down syndrome advocacy.
