HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, On November 20, 1989, the United Nations General
3 Assembly adopted the Convention on the Rights of the Child
4 (Convention) to promote basic human rights for all children;
5 and

6 WHEREAS, The Convention aims to protect children from 7 discrimination, neglect, and abuse by establishing a full range 8 of civil, political, economic, social, and cultural rights; and

9 WHEREAS, With the exception of the United States, South
10 Sudan, and Somalia, every other member state of the United 11 Nations - 193 countries - have ratified and accepted the 12 Convention; and

13 WHEREAS, Although the United States had considerable 14 influence in the drafting of the Convention and subsequently 15 signed it on February 16, 1995, the Convention has never been 16 presented to the U.S. Senate for advise and consent - the 17 necessary and final step to U.S. ratification; and

18 WHEREAS, Without U.S. Senate approval, the Convention has 19 no effect on children living in the United States, thereby
20 leaving them without the protections contained within this 21 important treaty; and

1 WHEREAS, President Obama has previously called the United 2 States' failure to ratify the Convention "embarrassing" and 3 promised to conduct an internal review of this matter;
4 therefore, be it

5 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 6 NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we 7 urge President Obama to submit the U.N. Convention on the 8 Rights of the Child to the U.S. Senate for its advice and 9 consent without delay, and further call on the U.S. Senate to 10 move swiftly to approve the Convention.
