Provides that for the purpose of determining the property rights of any person under any instrument: (1) a posthumous child of a decedent who is in utero at the decedent's death shall be treated as a child of the decedent unless the intent to exclude such child is demonstrated by the express terms of the instrument by clear and convincing evidence; and (2) a posthumous child of a decedent not in utero at the decedent's death shall not be treated as a child of the decedent unless specified conditions are met. Provides that the use in an instrument of terms such as "child", "children", "grandchild", "grandchildren", "descendants", and "issue", whether or not modified by phrases such as "biological", "genetic", "born to", or "of the body" shall not alone constitute clear and convincing evidence of an intent to include posthumous children not in utero at the decedent's death.
