Senators E. Jones, Shaw and Hendon offered the following Senate Joint Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS, Throughout the ages, society has sought to use appropriate penalties for crimes committed against citizens; and
WHEREAS, In 1972 the United States Supreme Court has ruled in Furman v. Georgia that the procedures used to implement the death penalty were unconstitutional thereby halting executions in this nation until 1976 when the Supreme Court ruled in Gregg v. Georgia that the use of the death penalty could be utilized subject to safeguards for the protection of the rights of the accused; and

WHEREAS, The use of the death penalty as a capital punishment for the unlawful taking of human life has been deemed appropriate by the people of Illinois as evidenced in the special election held on December 15, 1970 for the ratification of the Constitution of 1970 when a referendum was also held on the issue of capital punishment and other matters of concern to the populace; and

WHEREAS, Since the reestablishment of the death penalty in Illinois there have been technological advances, such as use of DNA testing, to assist in the determination of guilt and the enhanced ability of the accused to receive the necessary legal assistance to defend their rights as provided under the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Even with these advancements, recent events have shown that circumstances do exist in which people convicted of capital crimes have been wrongly accused and sentenced to death even though innocent; and

WHEREAS, Further discussion and deliberation of this contentious issue in light of these factors is merited and the need to review the laws of this State and the various court proceedings and rulings affecting the use of this punishment should be undertaken as expeditiously as possible due to the fact that approximately 160 persons in Illinois are awaiting execution; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, That we call upon Governor George H. Ryan, as allowed by his powers as Chief Executive of this State, to institute an immediate moratorium on the execution of persons sentenced to death at least until the State has had an opportunity to thoroughly examine the cases of those persons now awaiting execution; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this moratorium is not intended to restrict or prohibit the State, as represented by the Attorney General and the States Attorneys of this State, from prosecuting death penalty eligible offenses or from seeking the imposition of the death penalty as provided by current law; and be it further

RESOLVED, That during this moratorium the Governor, the Supreme Court, the Attorney General, the Senate President, the Senate Minority Leader, the Speaker of the House and the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives are urged to convene a conference of scholars, law enforcement officials, members of the judiciary, the legal community representing both defendants and the accused, legislators and citizens of this State to study the procedural system now used by this State for implementing the death penalty, including, the appeal process, the use of forensic and scientific evidence, the method of executions, restitution for wrongful convictions and other matters deemed appropriate by the conference; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the conference report to the Governor, the Supreme Court, the Attorney General and the General Assembly as soon as practicably possible with recommendations resulting from the deliberations of the conference; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this preamble and resolution be presented to Governor Ryan, members of the Supreme Court, Attorney General Ryan, the Senate President, the Senate Minority Leader, the Speaker of the House and the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives.
