RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that the members of the Illinois State Senate reaffirm that the Illinois Aeronautics Act and other relevant State laws are vital to protecting the interests of the citizens of the State of Illinois with respect to airport development projects and their impact on the State's overall air and ground transportation systems, regional mass transit systems, public health and safety, the environment, land use, public finances, and other relevant areas; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the members of the Illinois State Senate oppose any federal effort to preempt the State of Illinois' laws concerning airport development projects.

REPORT FROM RULES COMMITTEE

Senator Weaver, Chairperson of the Committee on Rules, reported that the following Legislative Measure has been approved for consideration:

[Jan. 10, 2002]

Senate Amendment 4 to House Bill 3495

The foregoing floor amendment was placed on the Secretary's Desk.

HOUSE BILL RECALLED

On motion of Senator Rauschenberger, House Bill No. 3495 was recalled from the order of third reading to the order of second reading.

Senators Rauschenberger - Philip offered the following amendment:

AMENDMENT NO. 3

AMENDMENT NO. 3. Amend House Bill 3495 by replacing everything after the enacting clause with the following:

"Section 1. Short title. This Act may be cited as the Emergency Budget Act of Fiscal Year 2002.

Section 5. Contingency reserves.

(a) The Governor may designate as contingency reserves for each executive State agency that is directly responsible to the Governor an amount no greater than 5% of the total appropriations made from the General Revenue Fund to that executive State agency that is directly responsible to the Governor. In addition, the Governor may designate as a contingency reserve an amount no greater than 5% from appropriations of State funds to the State Board of Education, except that no reserve may be designated from payments to be made under Section 18-8.05 of the School Code. In addition, the Governor may designate as contingency reserves an amount no greater than 5% of the total appropriations of State funds for higher education purposes to each agency, board, commission, or university receiving funding for higher education purposes.

(b) Appropriated amounts designated as a contingency reserve may not be obligated, encumbered, or expended.

(c) Any periodic transfers or expenditures that are based upon amounts appropriated must be reduced to accommodate a contingency reserve. Any necessary proration of periodic payments from the General Revenue Fund shall be distributed equally among the remaining payments for the fiscal year.

(d) In this Section, "executive State agency that is directly responsible to the Governor" means any office, officer, division, or part thereof, and any other office, nonelective officer, department, division, bureau, board, or commission in the executive branch of State government, except that it does not apply to any agency whose primary function is service to the General Assembly or the Judicial Branch of State government, or to any agency administered by the Attorney General, Secretary of State, State Comptroller, or State Treasurer.

(e) This Section applies only to appropriations for State fiscal year 2002.

Section 95. The Illinois Public Aid Code is amended by changing Section 5-5b as follows:

(305 ILCS 5/5-5b) (from Ch. 23, par. 5-5b)

Sec. 5-5b. Payment Reductions.

(a) Notwithstanding any other Section in this Code establishing a methodology for determining payment rates or dispensing fees for non-institutional services provided under this Code, the Illinois Department is authorized to reduce those payment rates or dispensing fees with due regard for and subject to budgetary limitations to the extent permitted by federal law.

(a-5) Notwithstanding any other Section in this Code establishing a methodology for determining payment rates for services specified in subsection (1) of Section 5-5.4 and subsection (a) of Section 14-8 of this Code, the Illinois Department may, by emergency rule filed before April 1, 2002, adjust those payment rates to a level not more than 5% below the rates in effect on July 1, 2001, with due regard for and subject to budgeting limitations to the extent permitted by federal law.

(b) The Illinois Department may implement this Section as-added by-this-amendatory-Act-of-1991 through the use of emergency rules in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.02 of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act. For purposes of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act, the adoption of rules to implement this Section as--added--by-this-amendatory-Act-of-1991 shall be deemed an emergency and necessary for the public interest, safety and welfare. (Source: P.A. 87-14.)

Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon becoming law."

Senator Rauschenberger moved that the foregoing amendment be ordered to lie on the table.

The motion to table prevailed.

Senators Rauschenberger - Philip offered the following amendment:

AMENDMENT NO. 4

AMENDMENT NO. 4. Amend House Bill 3495 by replacing everything after the enacting clause with the following:

"Section 1. Short title. This Act may be cited as the Emergency Budget Act of Fiscal Year 2002.

PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS

Senator James "Pate" Philip, President of the Senate and Senator Demuzio and all Senators offered the following Senate Joint Resolution:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 46

WHEREAS, The Members of the Illinois General Assembly are deeply saddened to learn of the death of Patricia A. Jones, beloved wife of Senate Minority Leader Emil Jones, Jr., on December 2, 2001; and

WHEREAS, She was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, on August 9, 1938, the third of eleven children of Leon and Lucille Sterling; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Jones was educated in the Catholic school system in New Orleans, where she lived and became a teacher; and

WHEREAS, As a young adult, Mrs. Jones moved with her family to Chicago, where she attended Loyola University and graduated from Chicago State University; and

WHEREAS, She counted among the many accomplishments in her life the ability she had to make a difference in the lives of children as a teacher, a volunteer at a local day care center and as a curriculum coordinator for pre-school and Head Start programs for the Title 20 program for the Department of Human Services in Chicago; and

WHEREAS, She loved reading, traveling with her family, cooking New Orleans-style Cajun dishes and volunteering for special programs at various organizations even when she was not a member of those groups; and

WHEREAS, In addition to her employment at the City of Chicago Department of Human Services as a curriculum coordinator for the Title 20 program, she also taught in the pre-school program at the YMCA in Chicago; she was later employed by the Chicago Transit Authority and as an assistant general superintendent for the Department of Streets and Sanitation for the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, Community service was an integral part of her life, Patricia Jones served as the school board president at Holy Name of Mary Catholic School in Morgan Park; she was active in her church, Holy Name of Mary Catholic Church in Morgan Park, where she was a former member of the Ladies Guild and an active member of the Pastoral Ministers of Care; and

WHEREAS, She was also a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, an organization devoted to public service, and a board member of the Beverly Arts Center; and

WHEREAS, Patricia "Pat" Sterling married Emil Jones, Jr., on December 14, 1974; and she was very devoted to their children, John Sterling, Emil III, Renee Jones Rose, Emil Alvarez Jones and Debra Jones, and grandchildren, Jonathan and Alexandria Sterling; and

WHEREAS, She was as much a partner in her husband's public life as she was in his private life, so much in fact that he often referred to her "as the wind beneath my wings"; and

WHEREAS, Pat shared in her husband's passion for public life, helping him build coalitions, advising him on key decisions, helping with problem solving and traveling with him to many places throughout the world, including China, Italy, and the recent trip to South Africa in which they met Nelson Mandela, and joining him in every aspect of his calling that ultimately became their calling; and

WHEREAS, She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her, especially her husband, Senate Minority Leader Emil Jones, Jr.; their children, John Sterling, Emil III, Renee Jones Rose, Emil Alvarez Jones and Debra Jones; two grandchildren, Jonathan and Alexandria Sterling; four brothers, Leon Sterling, Sr., Charles Sterling, Sr., Michelle Sterling and Andre Sterling; and three sisters, Nona Honore,

[Jan. 10, 2002]

Lucille Williams and Maria Stevenson; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING HEREIN, that we mourn the passing of Patricia A. Jones with her family and all those who knew and loved her; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this preamble and resolution be presented to the family of Patricia A. Jones with our most heartfelt sympathies.

Senator Philip, having asked and obtained unanimous consent to suspend the rules for the immediate consideration of the foregoing resolution, moved its adoption.

The motion prevailed.

And the resolution was adopted.

Ordered that the Secretary inform the House of Representatives thereof, and ask their concurrence therein.

Jones, Klemm, Lauzen, Luechtefeld, Mahar, Myers, Noland, O'Malley, Parker, Peterson, Radogno, Rauschenberger, Roskam, Sieben, Stone, Sullivan, Syverson and T. Walsh offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Rules:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 291

WHEREAS, President Ronald Wilson Reagan, a man of humble background, worked throughout his life serving freedom and advancing the public good, having been employed as an entertainer, union leader, corporate spokesman, governor of California and president of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan served with honor and distinction for two terms as the 40th president of the United States of America; in the second of which he earned the confidence of three-fifths of the electorate and was victorious in 49 of the 50 states in the general election - a record unsurpassed in the history of American presidential elections; and

WHEREAS, In 1981, when Ronald Reagan was inaugurated president, he inherited a disillusioned nation shackled by rampant inflation and high unemployment; and

WHEREAS, During Mr. Reagan's presidency he worked in a bipartisan manner to enact his bold agenda of restoring accountability and common sense to government which led to an unprecedented economic expansion and opportunity for millions of Americans; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Reagan's commitment to an active social policy agenda for the nation's children helped lower crime and drug use in our neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan's commitment to our armed forces contributed to the restoration of pride in America, her values and those cherished by the Free World, and prepared America's armed forces to win the Gulf War; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan's vision of "peace through strength" led to the end of the Cold War and the ultimate demise of the Soviet Union, guaranteeing basic human rights for millions of people; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan demonstrated his timeless insight, which still provides guidance in today's conflicts, when in his First Inaugural Address, he said, " No arsenal or no weapon in the arsenals of the world is so formidable as the will and moral courage of free men and women"; and

WHEREAS, On February 6, 2002, Ronald Reagan will have reached the age of 91 years; therefore, be it

[Jan. 10, 2002]

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that February 6 shall be recognized as "Ronald Reagan Day" in the State of Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be sent to the Ronald Reagan Legacy Project.
