PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Will all Members at the sound of my voice please come to the Senate Floor? Will all Members at the sound of my voice please come to the Senate Floor? We will be starting to move 2nd Readings. Senator Schimpf, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR SCHIMPF:

Point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR SCHIMPF:

Yes, I'd like to just introduce two of my honorary Pages for today. I'm lucky to have -- I'm lucky to have Lauren Miley and RJ Perinson {sic} (Periman) today. They are both freshmen at Centralia High School. Lauren wants to study engineering. RJ wants to study law enforcement. And I'm just really lucky to have them here with me, helping me out today. So I'd ask that we give them a warm Springfield welcome.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Welcome to Springfield. Senator Oberweis, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR OBERWEIS:

An announcement, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your announcement.

SENATOR OBERWEIS:

You're probably wondering why I'm wearing this Commonwealth Edison hat, and there are two reasons. One is, Commonwealth Edison is celebrating fifty years of support of Special Olympics. And, secondly, Dave Syverson offered me five dollars if I would do it. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Senator Rose, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR ROSE:

Thank you, Mr. President. I have a point of introduction.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR ROSE:

Point of -- point of personal privilege, is that the -- is that it? Thank you. Ladies and Gentlemen, I'm honored today to have with me, Tim Glumac. He is a sophomore at Mahomet-Seymour High School, in my hometown. His mother, Patti, is with us in the gallery. And Tim enjoys -- well, first of all, he wants to be a computer science major and get an MBA. And he also enjoys hiking and video games. And so if we could welcome him to Springfield, I would greatly appreciate it.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Welcome to Springfield. We will go to page 2 of the printed Calendar, Senate Bills 2nd Reading. Senate Bill 1335. Senator Bush. Senator Bush. Senate Bill 1829. Senator Hutchinson. Out of the record. Senate Bill 2252. Senator Muñoz. Senator Muñoz. Senator Manar, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR MANAR:

For a point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR MANAR:

Mr. President, I would like to introduce my Page for the Day, who's spending the day with me here in Springfield. Truman Poteat - just stood up here - is a sophomore at North Mac High School. His brother, Colby Huff, is a member of our staff. Where's Colby at? There he is. Colby's over here. And Truman is taking part in the Page for a Day program that we do in the 48th District. I want to mention a couple of things about him. He's a fantastic student. He has a 4.3 grade point average on a 4.0 scale. Doesn't know quite where he's going to go to college yet, but I do know that he's going to be successful. He also enjoys video games, which I told him he needs to convince my son to play fewer of, and is a member of the Scholastic Bowl team. So I just rise to welcome him, and also mention one last thing, that he's a Cardinals fan. And as you know, that's a fault line between the Cardinals and the Cubs. But I'm happy to have him here today. Thank you.

State your point.

SENATOR HASTINGS:

So it's with great sadness today..

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Hold -- hold on a second, Senator. Senator Hastings.

SENATOR HASTINGS:

It's with great sadness today that I have to relinquish a very special award I was given in 2013. When I was elected, I was thirty-two years old and I was the youngest Member of the Illinois General -- or the Illinois Senate at the time, so I was awarded with this nice trophy of a baby Senator, who's wearing a diaper, and the trophy was made in -- it was made in 1940. And it's a very historical trophy. And if you look at some of the names on here, whether it's from Dan Rostenkowski, Peter Fitzgerald, James Clayborne, Kim Lightford, Mike Frerichs -- I know you probably never saw it, because it was broken for a majority of the last ten years. But we actually -- in the district, there's a company called Evon's Trophies that the -- the husband and wife own the business and they were able to repair the trophy. And with LRU, we were able to research the trophy back to 1907. So every youngest Senator is on there from 1907 forward, because they didn't have the historical perspective. The one significant part of this trophy is that I'm handing it off to a millennial. And, you know, the sad part about millennials is that they always got to be recognized for the just the littlest things they do. And so Omar was being a little baby about it and he was, like, "I need my trophy. I need my trophy. I need my trophy." But I just wanted to say that it -- you know, in the last six years of being here, it's been an honor to be the baby Senator, although I'm a large Senator at the same time. And -- but I just wanted to hand it off formally to our twenty-seven-year-old - at the time when he got elected, twenty-seven years old - Senator Omar Aquino. So, Omar, if you wouldn't mind coming over here and we can hand it off to you.

STATE OF ILLINOIS
100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY
REGULAR SESSION

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Senator Murphy, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR MURPHY:

Thank you, Mr. President. Point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR MURPHY:

So as we're talking about babies and dates of birth, it reminds me that on the 23rd, we have two of our colleagues that are celebrating their birthdays. So, Senator Castro and Senator Harris - who was -- oh, good, he's here - Senator Harris are both celebrating birthdays on the 23rd. One of them a significant milestone; one of 'em dreading that milestone. So I'd like the Body to join me in congratulating them on their birthdays and wishing them a happy birthday.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Happy birthday to both of you. Senator Jones, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR JONES:

Thank you, Mr. President. A matter of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point. And can we keep the noise down on the Senate Floor for this, please? Keep the noise down, please.

SENATOR JONES:

Just want to talk about...

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Senator Jones.

SENATOR JONES:

Thank you, Mr. President. Want to talk about guns today. A week ago in Florida, a gunman walked into a -- a high school and shot and killed seventeen young people, seventeen children. When we think about gun violence -- I often think about gun violence, what goes on in Chicago and how six people over the weekend were killed. Sixty people this year have been killed by gun violence. So we have a serious issue with guns in our country, in our State, and in our city. I can think about back in 1988, May 20th, four days after my tenth birthday. I can remember my mother picking me up early from school and she had tears in her eyes, and the only thing she could do was just hug and kiss me. Back then, a woman by the name of Laurie Dann went into a school in Winnetka, Illinois, and shot up kids. I will never forget that name, 'cause I will never forget my mother picking me up from school like that. Back then, we didn't have cell phones. We didn't have the Internet that could locate and tell us where this was happening. So only thing parents got back then was just the news there was a school shooting. So parents rushed home -- or rushed to their school to pick up their kids just to make sure they was okay. And since then, we have had a number of shootings throughout this country, too many to even remember. I remember where I was at when Sandy Hook took place. I can remember when I was -- where I was at when Columbine took place. There's too many to name. But this particular one that happened a week ago in Parkland, it's getting kind of close to home. My brother lives in Parkland. He's a resident of that community. I have two beautiful nephews that attended the middle school, which is adjacent to Stoneman Douglas High School. So they were there at the time. So it's -- it's -- it's deeply moving to me and I would like to ask for a moment of silence. You know, I know there's some things we can do in this Chamber, some things we can do -- that Congress can do to get legislation passed to prevent this from happening. All I ever hear is the opponents always saying, "Well, that won't work. That won't work." Well, let's come together and find something that works so we can put an end to this gun violence. I'd like to ask for a moment of silence. And also, Mr. President, I'd like to ask for you hit the gavel seventeen times to remember lives of the

SENATOR CLAYBORNE:

For a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR CLAYBORNE:

So, one is to address something that wasn't mentioned. There is cake in the back, back here, for the -- the two birthdays - Castro and Harris. And also, I have with me Thom Little from the State Legislative Leaders Foundation, and I would like for him to be recognized by the Senate.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Welcome to Springfield. Senator Righter, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President. On a point of personal privilege, if I might?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

State your point.

SENATOR RIGHTER:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Chamber. I have some constituents here with me today. In the gallery above the Democrat side, I have a group called Leadership Crawford County. Guys, why don't you stand up? It's a group from my district in Crawford County. Every year, there are a group of initiative of the task force that was created by this General Assembly. What it does, it amends the Missing Persons Identification Act, adding veterans and active duty members of the reserves and Armed Forces believed to have physical or mental health issues related to service to the definition of a "high-risk missing person". Thank you. Actually, no. These units of government have been in existence, most of them, for over thirty years. They just have not consolidated with some of the fire districts. That option is available; however, at this particular time, the cost of consolidation is being evaluated.

Thank you, Mr. President. Senate Bill 2303 amends the Municipal Code to provide an extension for the life of a TIF -- adopted on October 23, 1995, by the City of Marion for an additional twelve years. This legislation is extending a path forward to the City of Marion and the region by -- to bring investment, implement improvements, and encourage economic growth. Senate Bill 2303 will allow a local manufacturing company to expand its current operation by creating additional manufacturing, transportation, and technician jobs, just to name a few. Senator Hutchinson, on your bill.

SENATOR HUTCHINSON:

Thank you, Mr. President and Members of the Body. Senate Bill 2330 would allow victims of domestic violence to waive the publication requirement when filing a name change petition. Under current law, petitioners must generally publish notice of a proposed name change in a newspaper for three consecutive weeks after filing, including the date on which the court will hear the petition and the name the petitioner seeks to assume. I should probably explain that it goes without saying that that in and of itself means that you will then advertise exactly where you are for three weeks. And in this current age of technology and simple keystrokes for searches on the Internet, it is very, very difficult to make sure that you stay away from anyone who's trying to harm you in that way. So, we worked with this with the Illinois Coalition Against Domestic Violence and the Illinois Circuit Clerks' Association, and it was brought to me by a wonderful young woman who does pro bono practice work at Chapman and Cutler with domestic violence victims, and that's the idea for the thing. PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR LINK)

Is there any discussion? Is there any discussion? Seeing none, the question is, shall Senate Bill 2330 pass. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed, Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, there are 49 Ayes, no Nays, none voting Present. Senate Bill 2330, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. There being no further business to come before the Senate, the Senate stands adjourned till the hour of 10:30 a.m. on the 22nd day of February 2018. The Senate stands adjourned.
