SECRETARY ANDERSON:

Senate Resolution 165, offered by Senator Aquino.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CUNNINGHAM)

Senator Aquino, on your resolution.

SENATOR AQUINO:

Thank you, Mr. President. On all days of -- of -- of St. Paddy's Day, I think it's -- it's indicative that I do a resolution on Puerto Rico. In all seriousness, this resolution has to do with the Self-Determination Act of Puerto Rico. This does not advocate for Puerto Rico to become a state. It does not advocate for Puerto Rico to become independent. What it does advocate is for -- that the people of Puerto Rico to have a -- an ability to self-determine what their status should be. And so I ask for an Aye vote.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CUNNINGHAM)

Is there any discussion? Seeing none, the question is, shall Joint Resolution 165 pass. All those in favor -- I'm sorry, Senate Resolution 165 pass. All those in favor will say Aye. SENATOR PACIONE-ZAYAS:

Yes, this resolution is actually in support of the Illinois State Board of Education, the six hundred and eighty-two superintendents of our eight hundred and fifty-two school districts, the IASA, IPA, IFT, and IEA, asking for a full waiver from the Department of Education for the mandated federal testing. What we can recognize here is that there has been a massive disruption in in-person learning and the last thing we want to do when our children return to school is spend time preparing for assessments that have questionable utility at this point because of the disruption, a use of resources that can be pretty expensive given what we know. There's going to be variability in the outcomes when you look at it compared to last year. And really, there's the moral imperative: Do we want our children to be spending time on assessments given the conditions of their social and emotional status? And so, with that, we are asking for the Department of Education to release an application for a full waiver from the State assessment per the Every Student Succeeds Act.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CUNNINGHAM)

Is there any discussion? Seeing none, the question is, shall Joint Resolution -- excuse me, shall Senate Resolution 166 pass. All those in favor will say Aye. Those opposed will say Nay. In the opinion of the Chair, the Ayes have it, and the resolution is adopted. Next on the Order of Resolutions, Senator Peters brings Senate Joint Resolution 3. He indicates he wishes to proceed. Senator Peters, on your resolution.

SENATOR PETERS:

Thank you, Chair {sic}. Senate Joint Resolution 3 seeks to commemorate Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. by placing a bronze plaque at the renovated facility, the Armory, honoring the civil rights leader and the event in which he addressed the Illinois State AFL-CIO at their 8th Annual Convention at the Illinois State Armory on October 7th, 1965. The commemorative plaque will include the very words Dr. King spoke, sentiments of organizational progress, justice, democracy, and a faith in God. For me, this is an important and personal historic moment that combines the fight for labor and civil rights for all working people and how they need to be brought together. And I -- I -- I ask for an Aye vote.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR CUNNINGHAM)

Is there any discussion? Senator Doris Turner, for what purpose do you seek recognition?

SENATOR D. TURNER:

I'd like to speak, Mr. President. I'm happy to join as a cosponsor on this joint resolution. I believe that it's important to memorialize Dr. King at the place where he gave what I believe to be one of the most important speeches that he gave, lauding the importance of labor and labor unions. My father is -- was a lifelong union person and I truly understand what labor unions have meant to this country and how they have worked to build the middle class, and I am a product of that middle class. Springfield is not only the city I have the honor of representing, it's my hometown and it is full of historic moments. And I believe that this speech rises to such a moment and definitely deserves this recognition.

Is there any discussion? If not, the question is, shall the resolution {sic} on the Consent Calendar be adopted. All those in favor, say Aye. Opposed, Nay. The Ayes have it. The motion carries, and the resolutions are adopted. There being no further business to come before the Senate, pursuant to Senate Joint Resolution 24, the Senate stands adjourned until the call of the President. For now, that will be the hour of 12 noon on the 23rd day of March 2021. The Senate stands adjourned.
