SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 89

WHEREAS, Bulgaria and the United States are strategic partners and allies, sharing ties of culture, tradition, and common interest; and

[February 23, 2023]

WHEREAS, The year 2023 marks the 20th anniversary of the United States Senate's ratification of the Protocol for Accession of Bulgaria into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), the 80th anniversary of the Bulgarian people's rescue of the Bulgarian Jews, the 120th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the United States and Bulgaria, and the 145th anniversary of the liberation of Bulgaria; and

WHEREAS, The first Bulgarian emigrants to Illinois arrived in the second half of the 19th century; and

WHEREAS, Granite City hosts the oldest Bulgarian American community in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The prominent Bulgarian American banker, Henry Krandzhev, served as the president of the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank and as the president of the Masonic Temple Association, receiving the title of Scoutmaster; and

WHEREAS, The first Bulgarian emigrants to Chicago, who began to arrive as early as the 1870s, were students sent by American protestant missionaries for study in the United States; and

WHEREAS, While most of these students returned to Bulgaria, some remained and created a Bulgarian American community in Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Bulgaria was admitted into and permitted to display an exhibit at the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago, an event hailed by the Chicago Tribune as the first diplomatic recognition accorded to Bulgaria as an independent state; and

WHEREAS, Aleko Konstantinov, a famous Bulgarian writer, recounted his journey to the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago in his book, To Chicago and Back, which became instrumental in encouraging generations of Bulgarians to emigrate to Chicago; and

WHEREAS, Tens of thousands of Bulgarians arrived in the United States from the geographic region of Macedonia at the beginning of the 20th century, pursuing freedom and fleeing the devastation and horrors occasioned by regional unrest; and

WHEREAS, The first Bulgarian Mission with its own priest was established in Madison in 1907; and

WHEREAS, Madison is home to Illinois' oldest Bulgarian Orthodox Church, Holy Trinity, built by Macedonian Bulgarians with the current church building existing since 1910; and

WHEREAS, The Granite City Bulgarian community published the first Bulgarian newspaper in the United States, the Vox Populi, or Voice of the People, from 1907 to 1950; other Bulgarians newspapers, such as the New World (1908-1909), Emigrant (1909), Freedom (1914-1917), Macedonian Tribune (1927-present), and others, followed in its wake; and

WHEREAS, Stoyan Yurukov became the first Bulgarian pilot to fly in the skies above Chicago in 1912, charting the course for many other Bulgarian pilots who have lived and worked in the Windy City; and

WHEREAS, Bulgarian emigrants from the region of Macedonia founded the Macedonian Patriotic Organization in 1922; the organization continues to work for human, civil, and economic rights of all individuals, regardless of ethnicity, who hail from the geographic region; and

WHEREAS, Assen Hristov Jordanoff, a Bulgarian American engineer and pilot, emigrated to the United States after World War I, becoming one of the fathers of civil aviation in the United States; and

[February 23, 2023]

WHEREAS, The Macedonian Bulgarian Stoyan Christowe, a journalist for the Chicago Daily News, wrote a book titled This is My Country, a semi-autographical book about the immigrants arriving in the United States from southeast Europe at the beginning of the 20th century and a book found on the bedside table of President Franklin D. Roosevelt at the time of his death; and

WHEREAS, John V. Atansoff, a Bulgarian American, created the first automatic electronic digital computer in 1939, an invention for which he was presented the National Medal for Science and Technology by President George H. W. Bush in 1990; and

WHEREAS, In the Spring of 1943, the Bulgarian people resisted Nazi pressure to deport Bulgarian Jews to Nazi concentration camps and, in doing so, rescued approximately 50,000 Bulgarian Jews from the worst terrors of the Nazi regime; and

WHEREAS, Illinois became a safe haven for many Bulgarian political dissidents and refugees, fleeing from the repressive terrors of communism; and

WHEREAS, The fall of the Berlin Wall and the following dissolution of the Soviet Union freed the Bulgarian people to proclaim and institute a democratic and multiparty political system; and

WHEREAS, In 1960, Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley proclaimed March 3 (Bulgarian Liberation Day) as Bulgaria Day in Chicago, instituting an annual Bulgarian flag-raising ceremony at Daley Plaza in Chicago that continues until this day; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago metropolitan area is today considered the home of the largest Bulgarian diaspora; and

WHEREAS, The two Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Churches in the Chicago metropolitan area, St. Sophia (established in 1938) and St. John of Rila (established in 1996), along with the Bulgarian Evangelical Church (New Life), serve as social and religious centers, maintaining Bulgarian culture and traditions; and

WHEREAS, Illinois is home to 13 Bulgarian Sunday Schools that perpetuate Bulgarian language, culture, and history in our communities; and

WHEREAS, Bulgarian Americans have greatly enriched the cultural, technological, and civic life of Illinois, contributing through their cultural centers, schools, churches, dance groups, businesses, and other civic organizations to the social, cultural, civil, and economic development of the State of Illinois; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we send our warmest congratulations and best wishes to the people of the Republic of Bulgaria as they celebrate the 145th anniversary of their liberation on March 3, 2023; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we confirm the rich friendship that binds our peoples together; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we declare March of 2023 as Bulgarian American Heritage Month in the State of Illinois; and be it further

RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be delivered to the Consul General of the Republic of Bulgaria in Chicago, President Joe Biden, and all members of the Illinois Congressional Delegation.

Senator Johnson offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

[February 23, 2023]

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 93

WHEREAS, The demands of the 21st century require a new approach to education to fully prepare our state's youth for college, careers, and citizenship; a whole child approach to education addresses students' comprehensive needs through the shared responsibility of students, families, schools, and communities; the goal of such an approach is to ensure that each child is challenged, supported, healthy, safe, and engaged; and

WHEREAS, The children of Illinois are our future and will provide the leadership, creativity, and productivity to sustain and strengthen the quality of life in our state; and

WHEREAS, The State of Illinois has the responsibility to ensure that our children have every possible opportunity for a quality education and future success; and

WHEREAS, Each student in Illinois deserves to be challenged academically and prepared for college, meaningful employment in our global economy, and lifelong success; and

WHEREAS, Each student in Illinois deserves to be supported by qualified, caring adults and to receive access to personalized learning; and

WHEREAS, Each student in Illinois deserves to learn about and practice a healthy lifestyle; and

WHEREAS, Each student in Illinois deserves to learn in an environment that is physically and emotionally safe; and

WHEREAS, Each student in Illinois deserves to be actively engaged in learning and connected to the school and broader community; and

WHEREAS, The consequences of not ensuring that our young people are challenged, supported, healthy, safe, and engaged are clear; and

WHEREAS, The current high school graduation rate is 87%; and

WHEREAS, SAT Math scores for 11th graders who achieve "meets or exceeds" are at only 29%; and

WHEREAS, SAT English/Language Arts scores for 11th graders who achieve "meets or exceeds" are at only 30%; and

WHEREAS, In science, only 51% of all students in all grades are testing at the proficient or exemplary level; and

WHEREAS, Only 64% of high school seniors enroll in a college program within 12 months of graduation; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we declare March of 2023 as Illinois Whole Child Month to recognize the value of assuring that each student is challenged, supported, healthy, safe, and engaged; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge parents, educators, and community members to support a whole child approach to education for each student; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we urge every school in Illinois to celebrate Whole Child Month by adopting at least one of the whole child tenets to promote and encourage throughout the month; and be it further

[February 23, 2023]

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the Illinois Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development as a symbol of our respect and esteem.

Senator Castro offered the following Senate Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Assignments:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 94

WHEREAS, International Women's Day commemorates the global, centuries-long struggle of women to participate fully and equitably in society; and

WHEREAS, Women's Day first emerged as the result of various labor and suffrage movements in North America and Europe in the early 20th century; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations celebrated its first official International Women's Day on March 8, 1975 during International Women's Year; and

WHEREAS, Gender equality is a fundamental human right, and women's full empowerment and participation is integral to solving society's most threatening social, economic, and political problems; and

WHEREAS, International Women's Day is intended to focus the global community's attention on accelerating gender parity; and

WHEREAS, The theme of this year's International Women's Day, Embrace Equity, seeks to get the world talking about why equal opportunities are no longer enough and can in fact be exclusionary, rather than inclusive; and

WHEREAS, The health disparities that women face have been exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, Healthy women are the backbone of a thriving, stable, and resilient society; and

WHEREAS, International Women's Day is an opportune time to raise awareness of the inequity in women's health and begin efforts to improve such inequities while encouraging all women to prioritize their health; and

WHEREAS, March 8th of each year is recognized as International Women's Day by countries around the world to celebrate the past, present, and future achievements of women as well as the obstacles that women continue to face in their struggle for equal rights and gender equality; and

WHEREAS, International Women's Day is a time to reflect on the progress we have made in the economic, social, and political achievements of women and to reaffirm our commitment to pursue strategies that guarantee the basic human rights of women and girls both statewide and globally, to promote meaningful and significant participation of women in all facets of our society, to encourage equitable access to and healthcare for all women and girls, and to support policy initiatives that seek to achieve gender parity and empower all women; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we declare March 8, 2023 as "International Women's Day" in the State of Illinois in order to reflect on the progress made thus far in women's rights; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we reaffirm the State's commitment to pursue strategies that guarantee the basic human rights of women and girls, to promote meaningful and significant participation of women in all aspects of our society, to encourage equitable access to and healthcare for all women and girls, and to support policy initiatives that seek to achieve gender parity and empower all women.
