

SB2324

104TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

State of Illinois

2025 and 2026

SB2324

Introduced 2/7/2025, by Sen. Chapin Rose

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

625 ILCS 5/11-1433 new

Amends the Illinois Vehicle Code. Provides that if a person is convicted of running a red light, disobeying a stop sign, failing to obey a yield sign, or disobeying or avoiding a traffic control device and such action is determined to be the approximate cause of seriously bodily harm or death to another person, the person shall be subject to a fine of no less than $1,000 and no more than $5,000. Provides that when assessing the amount of the fine, the judge may take into account mitigating factors, including, but not limited to, acceptance of responsibility by the defendant, if any restitution or insurance was paid to the victim, whether the defendant poses a risk to public safety, undue hardship, total fault of each party, and any other mitigating factors the judge deems necessary.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Illinois Vehicle Code is amended by adding
5 Section 11-1433 as follows:

6 (625 ILCS 5/11-1433 new)

7 Sec. 11-1433. Penalties for specific violations.

8 (a) If a person is convicted of violating Section 11-305,
9 11-306, or 11-1204 and such violation is determined to be the
10 approximate cause of seriously bodily harm or death to another
11 person, the person shall be subject to a fine of no less than 12 $1,000 and no more than $5,000.

13 (b) When assessing the amount of a fine under this 14 Section, the judge, in the judge's discretion, may take into 15 account mitigating factors, including, but not limited to,
16 acceptance of responsibility by the defendant, if any 17 restitution or insurance was paid to the victim, whether the 18 defendant poses a risk to public safety, undue hardship, total
19 fault of each party, and any other mitigating factors the 20 judge deems necessary.
