10 Sec. 16. Action for civil penalties brought by an 11 interested party.

12 (a) As used in this Section, "interested party" means a 13 not-for-profit corporation, as defined by the General Not For 14 Profit Corporation Act of 1986, or a labor organization, as 15 defined by 29 U.S.C. 152(5), that monitors or is attentive to 16 compliance with worker safety and privacy laws, wage and hour
17 requirements, or other statutory requirements.

18 (b) Upon a reasonable belief that an employer or 19 prospective employer covered by this Act is in violation of 20 any part of this Act, an interested party may bring a civil 21 action in the county where the alleged offenses occurred or 22 where any party to the action resides, in the name of the State
23 or for the benefit of any impacted employees or prospective
24 employees.

25 (1) No later than 30 days after filing an action, the

1 interested party shall serve upon the State through the 2 Attorney General a copy of the complaint and written 3 disclosure of substantially all material evidence and 4 information the interested party possesses.

5 (2) The State may elect to intervene and proceed with 6 the action no later than 60 days after it receives both the 7 complaint and the material evidence and information. The 8 State may, for good cause shown, move the court for an 9 extension of the time to intervene and proceed with the 10 action.

11 (3) Before the expiration of the 60-day period or any 12 extensions under paragraph (2), the State shall:

13 (A) proceed with the action, in which case the 14 action shall be conducted by the State; or

15 (B) notify the court that it declines to take the 16 action, in which case the interested party bringing 17 the action shall have the right to conduct the action.

18 (4) When the State conducts the action, the interested 19 party shall have the right to continue as a party to the 20 action subject to the following limitations:

21 (A) the State may dismiss the action
22 notwithstanding the objections of the interested party
23 initiating the action if the interested party has been 24 notified by the State of the filing of the motion and 25 the court has provided the interested party with an 26 opportunity for a hearing on the motion; and

1 (B) the State may settle the action with the
2 defendant notwithstanding the objections of the person
3 initiating the action if the court determines, after a
4 hearing, that the proposed settlement is fair,
5 adequate, and reasonable under all the circumstances.

6 (5) If an interested party brings an action under this 7 Section, no person other than the State may intervene or 8 bring a related action on behalf of the State based on the 9 facts underlying the pending action. An interested party
10 may bring the action subject to the following limitations:

11 (A) the State may dismiss the action
12 notwithstanding the objections of the interested party
13 initiating the action if the interested party has been
14 notified by the State of the filing of the motion and
15 the court has provided the interested party with an
16 opportunity for a hearing on the motion; and

17 (B) the State may settle the action with the
18 defendant notwithstanding the objections of the person
19 initiating the action if the court determines, after a
20 hearing, that the proposed settlement is fair,
21 adequate, and reasonable under all the circumstances.

22 (6) An action brought in court by an interested party
23 under this Section may be dismissed if the court and the 24 Attorney General give written consent to the dismissal and 25 their reasons for consenting.

26 (c) Any claim or action filed by an interested party under

1 this Section shall be made no later than 3 years after the 2 alleged conduct resulting in the complaint, plus any period
3 for which the limitations period has been tolled.

4 (d) In an action brought by an interested party under this 5 Section, an interested party may recover against the covered
6 entity any statutory penalties set forth in Section 17, 7 injunctive relief, and any other relief available to the 8 Department. An interested party who prevails in a civil action
9 shall receive 10% of any statutory penalties assessed, plus 10 any attorney's fees and costs. The remaining 90% of any 11 statutory penalties assessed shall be deposited into the Child
12 Labor and Day and Temporary Labor Services Enforcement Fund
13 and shall be used for the purposes set forth in Section 75 of 14 the Child Labor Law of 2024.

18 rule adopted under this Act by an employer or prospective 19 employer may file suit in circuit court of Illinois, in the 20 county where the alleged offense occurred, where the employee 21 or prospective employee who is party to the action resides, or 22 where the employer or prospective employer which is party to 23 the action is located, without regard to exhaustion of any 24 alternative administrative remedies provided in this Act.
25 Actions may be brought by one or more affected employees or

1 prospective employees for and on behalf of themselves and 2 employees or prospective employees similarly situated. An 3 employee or prospective employee may recover for a violation
4 of the Act under this Section or under Section 15 or 16 at the 5 employee or prospective employee's option, but not under more 6 than one Section. An employee or prospective employee whose 7 rights have been violated under this Act by an employer or

24 (C) a civil penalty of $10,000; and

25 (3) compensation for any damages sustained as a result
26 of the violation, including litigation costs, expert

2 (b) The right of an aggrieved person to bring an action
3 under this Section terminates upon the passing of 3 years
4 after the date of the violation. This limitations period is 5 tolled if an employer or prospective employer has failed to 6 provide an employee or prospective employee information

8 prospective employee from the exercise of rights under this 9 Act.

3 defined in subsection (a) of Section 16, or determined by a
4 court in a civil action brought by the Attorney General
5 pursuant to its authority under Section 6.3 of the Attorney
6 General Act. For purposes of this subsection, each violation
7 of this Act or any rule adopted under this Act shall constitute 8 a separate and distinct violation.

9 (b) In determining the amount of a penalty, the Director 10 or circuit court shall consider (i) the appropriateness of the 11 penalty to the size of the business of the employer charged and 12 (ii) the gravity of the violation.

13 (c) The Department shall adopt rules for violation
14 hearings and penalties for violations of this Act or the 15 Department's rules in conjunction with the penalties set forth

17 the Illinois Department of Labor or the federal Department
18 of Homeland Security; or
