1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

- 4 Section 1. Short title; references to Act.
- 5 (a) Short title. This Act may be cited as the Frail Elderly
- 6 Individual Family Visitation Protection Act.
- 7 (b) References to Act. This Act may be referred to as the
- 8 Kasem/Baksys Visitation Law.
- 9 Section 5. Definitions. As used in this Act:
- "Family caregiver" means an adult family member who is a
- 11 provider of in-home care to a frail elderly individual.
- "Family member" means the spouse, adult child, adult
- grandchild, or other close relative of the frail elderly
- 14 individual.
- "Frail elderly individual" means an adult over 60 years of
- 16 age who is determined by a court to be functionally impaired
- 17 because the person: (i) is unable to perform at least 2
- 18 activities of daily living without substantial human
- 19 assistance, including verbal reminding, physical cueing, or
- 20 supervision; or (ii) due to a cognitive or other mental
- 21 impairment, requires substantial supervision because the
- 22 person behaves in a manner that poses a serious health or
- safety hazard to the person or to another person.

- 1 "Petitioner" means the family member who files a verified 2 petition for visitation under Section 10 of this Act.
- 3 Section 10. Visitation with frail elderly individuals.
 - (a) If a family caregiver unreasonably prevents a family member from visiting the frail elderly individual, the court, upon a verified petition by the family member, may order the family caregiver to permit such visitation as the court deems reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances.
- 9 (b) At the hearing on the verified petition for visitation, 10 the court shall consider:
 - (1) the nature and extent of the frail elderly individual's functional impairment;
 - (2) the frail elderly individual's previously expressed preferences in regard to visitation with the petitioner;
 - (3) the history of visitation between the frail elderly individual and the petitioner;
 - (4) the opinions of any family members and the family caregiver with respect to visitation between the petitioner and the frail elderly individual; and
 - (5) any other area of inquiry deemed appropriate by the court under the circumstances.
 - (c) The court shall not allow visitation if the court finds that: (i) the frail elderly individual has capacity to evaluate and communicate decisions regarding visitation and expresses a

- desire to not have visitation with the petitioner; or (ii)
- 2 visitation between the petitioner and the frail elderly
- 3 individual is not in the best interests of the frail elderly
- 4 individual.
- 5 (d) Guardian ad litem for frail elderly individual.
- 6 (1) The court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the frail
- 7 elderly individual if it determines such appointment to be in
- 8 the frail elderly individual's best interests.
- 9 (2) The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the
- 10 frail elderly individual if the frail elderly individual does
- 11 not appear at the hearing or is unable to appear due to
- 12 hardship.
- 13 (3) The court may award reasonable compensation to a
- 14 guardian ad litem appointed under this Act. The petitioner
- shall pay the court-awarded compensation due to the guardian ad
- litem, except if the court grants the verified petition for
- 17 visitation and finds that the family caregiver acted
- 18 maliciously in denying visitation between the petitioner and
- 19 the frail elderly individual, then the family caregiver shall
- 20 pay the court-awarded compensation due the guardian ad litem.
- 21 Section 15. Notice of hospitalization, change or
- residence, or death of frail elderly individual. If the court
- grants the petition of a family member for visitation in
- 24 accordance with Section 10, the court may also order the family
- caregiver to use reasonable efforts to notify the petitioner of

- 1 the frail elderly individual's hospitalization, admission to a
- 2 healthcare facility, change in permanent residence, or death.
- 3 Section 20. Commencement of proceeding; notice.
- 4 (a) A proceeding under this Act shall be commenced in the
- 5 court of the county in which the frail elderly individual
- 6 resides.
- 7 (b) The frail elderly individual and family caregiver shall
- 8 be personally served with a copy of the verified petition for
- 9 visitation and a summons not less than 14 days before the
- 10 hearing. The form of the summons shall be in the manner
- 11 prescribed by subsection (c) of Supreme Court Rule 101.
- 12 (c) The petitioner shall provide notice of the time, date,
- and place of the hearing by mail to any other family members
- 14 not less than 14 days before the hearing. All other notices
- 15 during the pendency of the proceeding shall be served in
- accordance with Supreme Court Rules 11 and 12.
- 17 Section 25. Applicability. This Act does not apply if: (i)
- 18 the frail elderly individual is a person under guardianship
- 19 pursuant to Article XIa of the Probate Act of 1975; or (ii) the
- 20 family caregiver is acting as agent under a power of attorney
- or acting at the direction of an agent under a power of
- 22 attorney pursuant to the Illinois Power of Attorney Act.
