1 AN ACT concerning State government.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The State Police Act is amended by changing Section 23 as follows:

(20 ILCS 2610/23) (from Ch. 121, par. 307.18d)

Sec. 23. Auxiliary State policemen. On and after the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 100th General Assembly, the $\frac{\text{The}}{\text{The}}$ Director shall not $\frac{\text{may}}{\text{may}}$ appoint auxiliary State policemen in such number as he deems necessary. Such auxiliary policemen shall not be regular State policemen. Such auxiliary State policemen shall not supplement members of the regular State police in the performance of their assigned and normal duties, except as otherwise provided herein. Such auxiliary State policemen shall only be assigned to perform the following duties: to aid or direct traffic, to aid in control of natural or man made disasters, or to aid in case of civil disorder as directed by the commanding officers. Identification symbols worn by such auxiliary State policemen shall be different and distinct from those used by State policemen. Such auxiliary State policemen shall at all times during the performance of their duties be subject to the direction and control of the commanding officer. Such auxiliary

State policemen shall not carry firearms.

Auxiliary State policemen, prior to entering upon any of their duties, shall receive a course of training in such police procedures as shall be appropriate in the exercise of the powers conferred upon them, which training and course of study shall be determined and provided by the Department of State Police. Prior to the appointment of any auxiliary State policeman his fingerprints shall be taken and no person shall be appointed as such auxiliary State policeman if he has been convicted of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude.

All auxiliary State policemen shall be between the age of 21 and 60 years, and shall serve without compensation.

The Line of Duty Compensation Act shall be applicable to auxiliary State policemen appointed before this amendatory Act of the 100th General Assembly upon their death in the line of duty described herein.
