4 Sec. 50. Admissions denial; reference to Act.

5 (a) If an institution denies admission to an applicant for 6 an academic year, then, in any letter or other communication 7 the institution provides to the applicant notifying the applicant of that denial, the institution may not reference 8 9 the provisions of this Act, including using a description of a 10 provision of this Act such as "the top 10% automatic 11 admissions law", as a reason the institution is unable to 12 offer admission to the applicant, unless the number of applicants for admission to the institution for that academic 13 year who qualify for automatic admission under Section 15 of 14 15 this Act is sufficient to fill 100% of the institution's 16 enrollment capacity designated for first-time resident undergraduate students. 17

18 (b) For purposes of determining enrollment capacity, 19 priority in the admission of applicants to an institution must 20 be given to applicants who are residents of this State. 21 Admission to an institution may not be denied to an applicant 22 who is a State resident based on the institution's enrollment 23 capacity unless 100% of the enrollment capacity is filled 24 exclusively by students who are State residents.
