25 (820 ILCS 96/1-30)

1 Sec. 1-30. Settlement or termination agreements.

2 (a) An employer may not require a prospective, current, or 3 former employee to sign a confidentiality provision of a
4 settlement agreement or termination agreement relating to a
5 claim of discrimination, retaliation, harassment, sexual 6 harassment, or sexual assault in the workplace brought by the 7 employee or prevent the employee from disclosing a claim of 8 discrimination, retaliation, harassment, sexual harassment, or 9 sexual assault occurring in the workplace or at a work-related 10 event coordinated by or through the employer.

11 (a-5) This Section does not prohibit a settlement
12 agreement or termination agreement relating to a claim 13 alleging discrimination, retaliation, harassment, sexual 14 harassment, or sexual assault in the workplace between an 15 employer and an employee or former employee from containing 16 confidentiality provisions as provided in this subsection. A 17 confidentiality provision is permissible when:

18 (1) it relates to the monetary amount of a settlement;

19 or

20 (2) at the employee's request, it prohibits disclosure
21 of facts that could lead to the identification of the 22 employee.

23 If the employee publicly reveals sufficient details of the 24 claim so that the employer is reasonably identifiable, then
25 the confidentiality provision shall also be unenforceable
26 against the employer.

1 Every settlement agreement or termination agreement
2 resolving a discrimination, retaliation, harassment, sexual 3 harassment, or sexual assault claim by an employee against an 4 employer shall include a bold, prominently placed notice that 5 although the parties may have agreed to keep the settlement
6 and underlying facts confidential, such a provision in an 7 agreement is unenforceable against the employer if the 8 employee publicly reveals sufficient details of the claim so
9 that the employer is reasonably identifiable.

10 (a-10) An employee, prospective employee, or former 11 employee and an employer may enter into a valid and 12 enforceable settlement or termination agreement that includes 13 promises of confidentiality related to the monetary amount of 14 the settlement or facts that could lead to the identification
15 of the employee as described in subsection (a-5) alleged 16 ~~unlawful employment practices~~, so long as:

17 (1) confidentiality is the documented preference of 18 the employee, prospective employee, or former employee ~~and~~
19 ~~is mutually beneficial to both parties;~~

20 (2) the employer notifies the employee, prospective
21 employee, or former employee, in writing, of his or her
22 right to have an attorney or representative of his or her
23 choice review the settlement or termination agreement
24 before it is executed;

25 (3) there is valid, bargained for consideration in 26 exchange for the confidentiality;

1 (4) the settlement or termination agreement does not
2 waive any claims of unlawful employment practices that 3 accrue after the date of execution of the settlement or 4 termination agreement;

5 (5) the settlement or termination agreement is 6 provided, in writing, to the parties to the prospective
7 agreement and the employee, prospective employee, or 8 former employee is given a period of 21 calendar days to 9 consider the agreement before execution, during which the 10 employee, prospective employee, or former employee may 11 sign the agreement at any time, knowingly and voluntarily
12 waiving any further time for consideration; and

13 (6) unless knowingly and voluntarily waived by the 14 employee, prospective employee, or former employee, he or 15 she has 7 calendar days following the execution of the 16 agreement to revoke the agreement and the agreement is not 17 effective or enforceable until the revocation period has 18 expired.

19 (b) An employer may not unilaterally include any clause in 20 a settlement or termination agreement that prohibits the 21 employee, prospective employee, or former employee from making 22 truthful statements or disclosures regarding unlawful 23 employment practices.

24 (c) Failure to comply with the provisions of this Section
25 shall render any promise of confidentiality related to alleged 26 unlawful employment practices against public policy void and

1 severable from an otherwise valid and enforceable agreement.

2 (d) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to prevent
3 a mutually agreed upon settlement or termination agreement
4 from waiving or releasing the employee, prospective employee,
5 or former employee's right to seek or obtain any remedies
6 relating to an unlawful employment practice claim that 7 occurred before the date on which the agreement is executed.

8 (e) The provisions of this amendatory Act of the 102nd
9 General Assembly apply to agreements entered into on or after 10 the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 102nd General
11 Assembly.
