4 Sec. 6-37. Hospitality vaccination incentive; temporary.

5 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, from June
6 10, 2021 through July 10, 2021, a retail licensee may offer a 7 single drink of alcoholic liquor at no cost to a customer as 8 part of a publicly advertised promotion to encourage 9 participation in any COVID-19 vaccination program if the 10 customer provides proof of COVID-19 vaccination received at 11 any time. Drinks may be provided under this Section only from 6
12 p.m. through 10 p.m.

13 This Section is subject to any rule or bulletin posted by 14 the State Commission.

15 (b) A retail licensee's participation in providing a 16 single drink of alcoholic liquor is voluntary and a retail 17 licensee may refuse to provide a single drink at no charge. The 18 retail licensee may determine or restrict which single drink
19 of alcoholic liquor it will provide at no cost but under no 20 circumstances may a single drink of alcoholic liquor exceed 21 1.5 ounces of distilled spirits, 5 ounces of wine, or 12 ounces
22 of beer.

23 (c) A local liquor control commissioner or local liquor 24 control commission may prohibit retail licensees within its

1 jurisdiction from providing a single drink of alcoholic liquor
2 at no charge by promulgating a rule or policy preempting this 3 Section.

4 (d) After receiving a single drink of alcoholic liquor at 5 no charge, no customer shall receive a subsequent drink from 6 the retail licensee providing the drink at no charge or from 7 another retail licensee on the same day or any subsequent day.
8 In addition to abiding by all other alcoholic liquor sales
9 laws, before providing a single drink at no charge, the retail 10 licensee shall develop procedures to verify the identity of 11 the vaccinated customer by comparing the vaccination card to a
12 form of valid federal or State identification. The retail
13 licensee shall develop procedures to ensure that a customer 14 does not obtain more than a single drink at no charge and the 15 retail licensee shall be subject to penalties imposed by the 16 State Commission if the retail licensee provides more than a 17 single drink to a particular customer at no charge.

18 (e) The State Commission may publish further guidelines on
