Introduced 1/12/2023, by Rep. Maurice A. West, II

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

105 ILCS 5/10-20.82 new 105 ILCS 5/14-6.01 105 ILCS 5/34-18.77 new from Ch. 122, par. 14-6.01

Amends the School Code. Requires a school district to develop and implement a plan to provide additional instructional services, support, or special accommodations to students who suffer from trauma related to experiencing the death of a sibling, parent, guardian, or household member by suicide or homicide or suffer from trauma caused by domestic violence or abuse and whom the school has determined require additional instructional services, support, or special accommodations but do not qualify for an individualized education program or for services under Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Sets forth what the plan may include. Provides that the plan shall remain in place until the student (i) is no longer enrolled in the district or (ii) has made such significant and sustained academic progress that the student no longer requires the plan. In provisions relating to children with disabilities, provides that beginning with the 2023-2024 school year, the notice that a school board provides concerning who qualifies for services under Section 504 shall include that a child may qualify for those services if the child is a student who is at least 3 years old or older and under 22 years and who (i) has experienced the death of a sibling, parent, guardian, or household member by suicide or homicide or (ii) suffers from trauma caused by domestic violence or abuse. Effective immediately.

(105 ILCS 5/34-18.77 new)
Sec. 34-18.77. Additional services for certain students experiencing trauma.
(a) The school district must provide additional instructional services, support, or special accommodations to a student if the student's school determines that:
(1) the student suffers from trauma related to the student experiencing the death of a sibling, parent, guardian, or household member by suicide or homicide or from trauma caused by domestic violence or abuse;
(2) the trauma interferes with the student's ability to learn and to participate in the learning environment;
and
(3) the student does not qualify for either ar individualized education program (IEP) under the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act or for services under Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973.
(b) At the request of the parent or guardian of a student who has experienced an event described under paragraph (1) of subsection (a) and who may be at risk of academic failure or if school personnel identify that a student's overall academic performance and participation in the learning environment has declined following the student experiencing an event described under paragraph (1) of subsection (a) and the student may be at risk of academic failure, the school district shall perform an evaluation to assess whether the student may benefit from additional instructional services, support, or special accommodations. The evaluation of the student shall be performed by appropriate school personnel, which may include school counselors, school psychologists, school social workers, school administrators, and educators with knowledge of the student or the student's academic performance prior to the student experiencing an event described under paragraph (1) of subsection (a).

If the school determines from the evaluation that the student requires additional instructional services, support, or special accommodations, the school district shall develop and implement a plan to provide to the student additional instructional services, support, or special accommodations based on the individual needs of the student. Additional instructional services, support, or special accommodations provided to a student may include accommodations with testing, supplementary aids, school counseling services, additional assistance with homework, or modifications to the student's learning environment. The plan may be modified as necessary according to the needs of the student.

(c) A plan developed under subsection (b) shall remain in place until the student (i) is no longer enrolled in the school district or (ii) has demonstrated such significant and sustained progress and improvement in academic performance

- 1 that the student no longer requires the additional
- 2 instructional services, support, or special accommodations
- 3 provided under the plan.
- 4 Section 99. Effective date. This Act takes effect upon
- 5 becoming law.
