7 Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Workers' Compensation
8 Act.

9 (a) The term "employer" as used in this Act means:

10 1. The State and each county, city, town, township, 11 incorporated village, school district, body politic, or 12 municipal corporation therein.

13 2. Every person, firm, public or private corporation, 14 including hospitals, public service, eleemosynary, religious 15 or charitable corporations or associations who has any person
16 in service or under any contract for hire, express or implied,
17 oral or written, and who is engaged in any of the enterprises
18 or businesses enumerated in Section 3 of this Act, or who at or 19 prior to the time of the accident to the employee for which 20 compensation under this Act may be claimed, has in the manner 21 provided in this Act elected to become subject to the 22 provisions of this Act, and who has not, prior to such 23 accident, effected a withdrawal of such election in the manner

1 provided in this Act.

2 3. Any one engaging in any business or enterprise referred 3 to in subsections 1 and 2 of Section 3 of this Act who 4 undertakes to do any work enumerated therein, is liable to pay 5 compensation to his own immediate employees in accordance with 6 the provisions of this Act, and in addition thereto if he 7 directly or indirectly engages any contractor whether 8 principal or sub-contractor to do any such work, he is liable 9 to pay compensation to the employees of any such contractor or 10 sub-contractor unless such contractor or sub-contractor has 11 insured, in any company or association authorized under the 12 laws of this State to insure the liability to pay compensation 13 under this Act, or guaranteed his liability to pay such 14 compensation. With respect to any time limitation on the 15 filing of claims provided by this Act, the timely filing of a 16 claim against a contractor or subcontractor, as the case may 17 be, shall be deemed to be a timely filing with respect to all 18 persons upon whom liability is imposed by this paragraph.

19 In the event any such person pays compensation under this 20 subsection he may recover the amount thereof from the 21 contractor or sub-contractor, if any, and in the event the 22 contractor pays compensation under this subsection he may 23 recover the amount thereof from the sub-contractor, if any.

24 This subsection does not apply in any case where the 25 accident occurs elsewhere than on, in or about the immediate 26 premises on which the principal has contracted that the work

1 be done.

2 4. Where an employer operating under and subject to the 3 provisions of this Act loans an employee to another such 4 employer and such loaned employee sustains a compensable
5 accidental injury in the employment of such borrowing employer 6 and where such borrowing employer does not provide or pay the 7 benefits or payments due such injured employee, such loaning
8 employer is liable to provide or pay all benefits or payments 9 due such employee under this Act and as to such employee the 10 liability of such loaning and borrowing employers is joint and 11 several, provided that such loaning employer is in the absence

13 borrowing employer full reimbursement for all sums paid or 14 incurred pursuant to this paragraph together with reasonable 15 attorneys' fees and expenses in any hearings before the 16 Illinois Workers' Compensation Commission or in any action to 17 secure such reimbursement. Where any benefit is provided or 18 paid by such loaning employer the employee has the duty of 19 rendering reasonable cooperation in any hearings, trials or 20 proceedings in the case, including such proceedings for 21 reimbursement.

22 Where an employee files an Application for Adjustment of 23 Claim with the Illinois Workers' Compensation Commission 24 alleging that his claim is covered by the provisions of the 25 preceding paragraph, and joining both the alleged loaning and 26 borrowing employers, they and each of them, upon written

1 demand by the employee and within 7 days after receipt of such 2 demand, shall have the duty of filing with the Illinois
3 Workers' Compensation Commission a written admission or denial
4 of the allegation that the claim is covered by the provisions 5 of the preceding paragraph and in default of such filing or if 6 any such denial be ultimately determined not to have been bona 7 fide then the provisions of Paragraph K of Section 19 of this 8 Act shall apply.

9 An employer whose business or enterprise or a substantial 10 part thereof consists of hiring, procuring or furnishing 11 employees to or for other employers operating under and 12 subject to the provisions of this Act for the performance of 13 the work of such other employers and who pays such employees 14 their salary or wages notwithstanding that they are doing the 15 work of such other employers shall be deemed a loaning
16 employer within the meaning and provisions of this Section.

17 (b) The term "employee" as used in this Act means:

13 last federal or State census, is an employee under this Act 14 only with respect to claims brought under paragraph (c) of 15 Section 8.

17 State, or a county, city, town, township, incorporated 18 village, school district, body politic or municipal 19 corporation therein, through its representatives, is not

21 township, incorporated village, school district, body politic
22 or municipal corporation which made the contract.

23 2. Every person in the service of another under any

2 non-fatal injuries within the State of Illinois where the 3 contract of hire is made outside of the State of Illinois, and 4 persons whose employment is principally localized within the 5 State of Illinois, regardless of the place of the accident or 6 the place where the contract of hire was made, and including 7 noncitizens, and minors who, for the purpose of this Act are 8 considered the same and have the same power to contract,
9 receive payments and give quittances therefor, as adult 10 employees.

11 3. Every sole proprietor and every partner of a business
12 may elect to be covered by this Act.

13 An employee or his dependents under this Act who shall 14 have a cause of action by reason of any injury, disablement or 15 death arising out of and in the course of his employment may 16 elect to pursue his remedy in the State where injured or 17 disabled, or in the State where the contract of hire is made,
18 or in the State where the employment is principally localized.

19 However, any employer may elect to provide and pay 20 compensation to any employee other than those engaged in the 21 usual course of the trade, business, profession or occupation
22 of the employer by complying with Sections 2 and 4 of this Act.
23 Employees are not included within the provisions of this Act 24 when excluded by the laws of the United States relating to 25 liability of employers to their employees for personal 26 injuries where such laws are held to be exclusive.

1           The term "employee" does not include persons performing 2 services as real estate broker, broker-salesman, or salesman
3 when such persons are paid by commission only.

4           (c) "Commission" means the Industrial Commission created
5 by Section 5 of "The Civil Administrative Code of Illinois",
6 approved March 7, 1917, as amended, or the Illinois Workers'
7 Compensation Commission created by Section 13 of this Act.

8           (d) To obtain compensation under this Act, an employee 9 bears the burden of showing, by a preponderance of the 10 evidence, that he or she has sustained accidental injuries
11 arising out of and in the course of the employment.

12           Except as provided in subsection (e), accidental injuries 13 sustained while traveling to or from work do not arise out of 14 and in the course of employment.

15           (e) An accidental injury arises out of and in the course of 16 employment if it is sustained by an employee who is required by 17 the employer to travel away from the employer's premises in 18 order to perform his or her job and the conduct in which the 19 employee was engaged at the time of the accidental injury was:
20 (1) acts the employer instructed the employee to perform; (2)
21 acts that the employee had a common law or statutory duty to 22 perform while performing duties for his or her employer; or 23 (3) acts that the employee might be reasonably expected to 24 perform incident to his or her assigned duties.

25           Notwithstanding the foregoing, an accidental injury 26 sustained by an employee while traveling away from the

1 employer's premises does not arise out of and in the course of 2 employment if: (1) the accidental injury is sustained during 3 the employee's commute to and from his or her domicile, 4 residence, or place where the employee currently lives and his 5 or her primary or current place of employment; (2) the 6 accidental injury is sustained during a personal deviation or 7 personal errand; or (3) the accidental injury, or the medical 8 condition or impairment for which compensation is sought, 9 resulted from a personal risk.

10 In determining whether an employee is required to travel 11 away from the employer's premises in order to perform his or 12 her job, the following factors, shall be considered:

13 (1) whether the employee's course or method of travel
14 was determined by the demands and exigencies of the job;

15 (2) whether the employer reimbursed the employee for 16 travel expenses or time spent traveling; and

17 (3) whether the employer directed the employee's 18 travel or required the employee to take a certain route to 19 perform his or her duties.
