1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

- Section 5. The Common Interest Community Association Act is amended by adding Section 1-71 as follows:
- 6 (765 ILCS 160/1-71 new)
- 7 Sec. 1-71. Heating and cooling standards.
- 8 (a) When a common interest community building has a 9 cooling system or heating system or both serving the entire 10 building, including individual units, the association shall 11 comply with the following standards with respect to the
- 12 individual units in which people live:
- 13 (1) During the cooling season, June 1 through

 14 September 30, cooling systems must operate when the heat

 15 index exceeds 80 degrees Fahrenheit.
- (2) During the heating season, October 1 through May

 31: (i) between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m., heat must register at least 68 degrees Fahrenheit when the outside temperature

 falls below 55 degrees Fahrenheit, and (ii) between 10

 p.m. and 6 a.m., heat must register at least 62 degrees

 Fahrenheit.
- 22 (b) When a common interest community building does not
 23 have a building-wide cooling system that serves individual

- 1 units, then the association shall provide at least one indoor
- 2 common gathering space for which a cooling system operates
- 3 when the heat index exceeds 80 degrees Fahrenheit. All
- 4 occupants of the building shall have free access to that
- 5 cooled space. As used in this subsection, "indoor common
- 6 gathering space" means a room intended to be used as a place
- 7 where multiple people can gather, such as a lounge, meeting or
- 8 conference room, party room, or similar that can accommodate a
- 9 cooling system. Any common interest community building that
- does not have an indoor common gathering space shall be exempt
- 11 from this subsection.
- 12 (c) This Section only applies to associations in which the
- initial declaration limits ownership, rental, or occupancy of
- a unit to a person 55 years of age or older.
- 15 Section 10. The Condominium Property Act is amended by
- 16 adding Section 18.11 as follows:
- 17 (765 ILCS 605/18.11 new)
- 18 Sec. 18.11. Heating and cooling standards.
- 19 (a) When a condominium building has a cooling system or
- 20 heating system or both serving the entire building, including
- 21 individual units, the association shall comply with the
- 22 following standards with respect to the individual units in
- 23 which people live:
- 24 (1) During the cooling season, June 1 through

September 30, cooling systems must operate when the heat
index exceeds 80 degrees Fahrenheit.

- (2) During the heating season, October 1 through May 31: (i) between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m., heat must register at least 68 degrees Fahrenheit when the outside temperature falls below 55 degrees Fahrenheit, and (ii) between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m., heat must register at least 62 degrees Fahrenheit.
- (b) When a condominium building does not have a building-wide cooling system that serves individual units, then the association shall provide at least one indoor common gathering space for which a cooling system operates when the heat index exceeds 80 degrees Fahrenheit. All occupants of the building shall have free access to that cooled space. As used in this subsection, "indoor common gathering space" means a room intended to be used as a place where multiple people can gather, such as a lounge, meeting or conference room, party room, or similar that can accommodate a cooling system. Any condominium building that does not have an indoor common gathering space shall be exempt from this subsection.
- (c) This Section only applies to associations in which the initial declaration limits ownership, rental, or occupancy of a unit to a person 55 years of age or older.
- Section 15. The Landlord and Tenant Act is amended by adding Section 20 as follows:

1 (765 ILCS 705/20 new)

- 2 Sec. 20. Heating and cooling standards.
- 3 (a) When residential rental property has a cooling system
- 4 or heating system or both serving the entire premises,
- 5 including individual dwelling units, the landlord shall comply
- 6 with the following standards with respect to the individual
- 7 dwelling units in which tenants live:
- 8 (1) During the cooling season, June 1 through
- 9 September 30, cooling systems must operate when the heat
- index exceeds 80 degrees Fahrenheit.
- 11 (2) During the heating season, October 1 through May
- 12 31: (i) between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m., heat must register at
- 13 least 68 degrees Fahrenheit when the outside temperature
- falls below 55 degrees Fahrenheit, and (ii) between 10
- p.m. and 6 a.m., heat must register at least 62 degrees
- 16 Fahrenheit.
- 17 (b) When residential rental property does not have a
- 18 premises-wide cooling system that serves individual dwelling
- 19 units, then the landlord shall provide at least one indoor
- 20 common gathering space for which a cooling system operates
- 21 when the heat index exceeds 80 degrees Fahrenheit. All tenants
- of the residential rental property shall have free access to
- that cooled space. As used in this subsection, "indoor common
- 24 gathering space" means a room intended to be used as a place
- where multiple people can gather, such as a lounge, meeting or

1	conference room, party room, or similar that can accommodate a
2	cooling system. Residential rental property that does not have
3	an indoor common gathering space shall be exempt from this
4	subsection.

(c) This Section only applies to residential rental 5 property in which rental or occupancy is limited to persons 55 6 7 years of age or older.
