1 AN ACT concerning civil law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

- Section 5. The Code of Civil Procedure is amended by changing Section 2-202 as follows:
- 6 (735 ILCS 5/2-202) (from Ch. 110, par. 2-202)
- Sec. 2-202. Persons authorized to serve process; place of service; failure to make return.
- 9 (a) Process shall be served by a sheriff, or if the sheriff is disqualified, by a coroner of some county of the State. In 10 matters where the county or State is an interested party, 11 process may be served by a special investigator appointed by 12 the State's Attorney of the county, as defined in Section 13 14 3-9005 of the Counties Code. A sheriff of a county with a population of less than 2,000,000 may employ civilian 15 16 personnel to serve process. Process In counties with a population of less than 2,000,000, process may be served, 17 without special appointment, by a person who is licensed or 18 19 registered as a private detective under the Private Detective, Private Alarm, Private Security, Fingerprint Vendor, and 20 21 Locksmith Act of 2004 or by a registered employee of a private detective agency certified under that Act as defined in 22 Section (a-5). supply the sheriff of any county in which he serves process with a copy of his license or certificate; however, the failure of a person to supply the copy shall not in any way impair the validity of process served by the person. The court may, in its discretion upon motion, order service to be made by a private person over 18 years of age and not a party to the action. It is not necessary that service be made by a sheriff or coroner of the county in which service is made. If served or sought to be served by a sheriff or coroner, he or she shall endorse his or her return thereon, and if by a private person the return shall be by affidavit. In a county of 3,000,000 or more, any person who is licensed or registered as a private detective under the Private Detective, Private Alarm, Private Security, Fingerprint Vendor, and Locksmith Act of 2004 or by a registered employee of a private detective agency certified under that Act and hired to serve summons shall remit $5 of each service fee to the county sheriff.

(a-5) Upon motion and in its discretion, the court may appoint as a special process server a private detective agency certified under the Private Detective, Private Alarm, Private Security, Fingerprint Vendor, and Locksmith Act of 2004. Under the appointment, any employee of the private detective agency who is registered under that Act may serve the process. motion and the order of appointment must contain the number of the certificate issued to the private detective agency by the Department of Professional Regulation under the Private

- (1) an employee who works for the agency holding a valid Permanent Employee Registration Card;
- (2) a person who has applied for a Permanent Employee Registration Card, has had his or her fingerprints processed and cleared by the Illinois State Police and the FBI, and as to whom the Department of Financial and Professional Regulation website shows that the person's application for a Permanent Employee Registration Card is pending;
- (3) a person employed by a private detective agency who is exempt from a Permanent Employee Registration Card requirement because the person is a current peace officer;

1 and

- 2 (4) a private detective who works for a private detective agency as an employee.
- A detective agency shall maintain this list and forward it to any sheriff's department that requests this list within 5 business days after the receipt of the request.
  - (b) Summons may be served upon the defendants wherever they may be found in the State, by any person authorized to serve process. An officer may serve summons in his or her official capacity outside his or her county, but fees for mileage outside the county of the officer cannot be taxed as costs. The person serving the process in a foreign county may make return by mail.
  - (c) If any sheriff, coroner, or other person to whom any process is delivered, neglects or refuses to make return of the same, the plaintiff may petition the court to enter a rule requiring the sheriff, coroner, or other person, to make return of the process on a day to be fixed by the court, or to show cause on that day why that person should not be attached for contempt of the court. The plaintiff shall then cause a written notice of the rule to be served on the sheriff, coroner, or other person. If good and sufficient cause be not shown to excuse the officer or other person, the court shall adjudge him or her guilty of a contempt, and shall impose punishment as in other cases of contempt.
    - (d) Except as provided in Sections 1-19, 3-17, 4-14, and
