HOUSE RESOLUTION

2

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois House of Representatives wish to recognize Edward Jung for his dedicated work as president of the Chinatown Museum Foundation (CMF), a non-profit organization governing the Chinese American Museum of Chicago (CAMOC); and

3

5

7

WHEREAS, Established in 2005, CAMOC is dedicated to the advancement of the appreciation of Chinese American culture and its contributions as an important part of the American fabric; the museum does this through exhibitions, education, and research to preserve the past, present, and the future of Chinese Americans, primarily in the Midwest; and

8

10

11

12

13

WHEREAS, Edward Jung, born and raised in a Chinese-Canadian-American working-class family in Chicago's Chinatown neighborhood, has long understood the complex dynamics within the evolving Chinese diasporic communities; through his vision and leadership, he has been instrumental in revitalizing CAMOC and preserving Chinese American heritage and history while expanding the public imagination of what it means to be Chinese in America; and

14

16

17

18

19

20

21

WHEREAS, Edward Jung graduated from St. Therese School in Chicago's Chinatown; he earned his Bachelor of Science in

22

1 Marketing from the University of Illinois Chicago and his
2 master's degree in project management from the George
3 Washington University School of Business; professionally, he 4 led global strategic sourcing during his 30-year career at 5 Motorola; and

6 WHEREAS, Under Edward Jung's leadership, CAMOC has seen
7 steady growth in the past seven years, becoming the home of 8 vibrant exhibitions and programs that celebrate the diverse
9 visions and experiences of being Chinese in America; he
10 oversaw the museum as it weathered through the COVID-19
11 pandemic, continuing to engage the public through virtual
12 programs during shutdowns; he was also instrumental in 13 securing the two-million-dollar restricted Jean T. Lee
14 Memorial Endowment Fund to ensure CAMOC's continued growth and 15 fiscal health; through his guidance, CAMOC has become a
16 reliable resource for educators to implement the Teaching
17 Equitable Asian American Community History (TEAACH) Act,
18 passed by the Illinois General Assembly, that incorporates
19 Asian American history in every public K-12 school curriculum
20 in Illinois; and

21 WHEREAS, Edward Jung remains an active civic leader and 22 mentor, giving his time to several local organizations; he is 23 currently serving as president of the Chinese American Civic 24 Council (CACC), a nonprofit organization established in the

1 1950s that assists new Chinese immigrants with bilingual
2 services and aims to help them navigate new social, cultural,
3 and economic landscapes in Chicago; therefore, be it

4       RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE
5 HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 6 we recognize Edward Jung on his eight years of service as 7 president of the Chinatown Museum Foundation (CMF), and we
8 commend his dedication to preserving the heritage and history
9 of Midwestern Chinese Americans and his vision of expanding
10 the scope of contemporary Chinese American storytelling
11 through exhibitions and programs at the Chinese American
12 Museum of Chicago (CAMOC); and be it further

13       RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be 14 presented to Edward Jung and the Chinese American Museum of 15 Chicago as an expression of our esteem and respect.
