

1 AN ACT concerning civil procedure.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The Code of Civil Procedure is amended by 5 changing Section 12-910 as follows:

6 (735 ILCS 5/12-910) (from Ch. 110, par. 12-910)

7 Sec. 12-910. Proceedings to enforce judgment. If in the 8 opinion of the judgment creditors, or the officer holding a 9 certified copy of a judgment for enforcement against such 10 individuals, the premises claimed by him or her as exempt are 11 worth more than $7,500, the such officer shall summon 3
12 individuals, as commissioners, who shall, upon oath, to be 13 administered to them by the officer, appraise the premises,
14 and if, in their opinion, the property may be divided without 15 damage to the interest of the parties, they shall set off so 16 much of the premises, including the dwelling house, as in 17 their opinion is worth $7,500, and the residue of the 18 premises may be advertised and sold by such officer. Each 19 commissioner shall receive for his or her services the sum of 20 $5 per day for each day necessarily engaged in such service.
21 The officer summoning such commissioners shall receive such 22 fees as may be allowed for serving summons, but shall be 23 entitled to charge mileage for only the actual distance
24 traveled from the premises to be appraised, to the residence 25 of the commissioners summoned. The officer shall not be 26 required to summon commissioners until the judgment creditor,
27 or some one for him or her, shall advance to the officer one
28 day's fees for the commissioners, and unless the creditor
29 shall advance such fees the officer shall not be required to 30 enforce the judgment. The costs of such appraisement shall 31 not be taxed against the judgment debtor unless such

1    appraisement shows that the judgment debtor has property
2    subject to such judgment.
