AN ACT in relation to criminal law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,represented in the General Assembly:

- 4 Section 5. The Code of Criminal Procedure of 1963 is
 5 amended by adding Section 115-22 as follows:
- 6

7

31

(725 ILCS 5/115-22 new)

Sec. 115-22. Use of depositions.

8 (a) In this Section, "law enforcement officer" is 9 defined as in Section 2 of the Law Enforcement Officers, 10 Civil Defense Workers, Civil Air Patrol Members, Paramedics, 11 Firemen, Chaplains, and State Employees Compensation Act.

(b) Upon leave of court, in a case in which the 12 defendant is charged with the offense of first degree murder 13 and the prosecution seeks the death penalty, or in a case in 14 which the defendant is charged with the offense of first 15 degree murder and a term of natural life imprisonment is the 16 only sentence allowed under the law following the defendant's 17 conviction, any party may take the testimony, upon oral 18 examination, of the following individuals: 19

20 (1) Any person who is identified as, or believed to be, an eyewitness to the occurrence that is the subject 21 22 of the prosecution, other than a law enforcement officer, a victim of the occurrence, or a member of the family of 23 such a victim or of the deceased individual. As used in 24 this paragraph (1), "member of the family" means (i) a 25 spouse, parent, child, stepchild, or other person related 26 27 by blood or by present marriage, (ii) a person who has or allegedly has a child in common, or (iii) a person who 28 29 shares or allegedly shares a blood relationship through a 30 child.

(2) Any person whom either party intends to call at

1	trial regarding incriminating statements made by the
2	accused to a person other than a law enforcement officer
3	and other than a municipal, county, or State prosecutor.
4	(3) Any person identified as, or believed to be, an
5	alibi witness.
6	(c) The depositions shall be taken for the purpose of
7	discovery in the action. The depositions may be used for
8	purposes defined in Section 115-10.1 of this Code.
9	(d) Unless otherwise agreed, depositions shall be taken
10	in the county in which the criminal case is being prosecuted
11	and shall be taken at a place designated by the prosecution.
12	(e)(1) Absent good cause, depositions shall be completed
13	within 90 days following the disclosure of witnesses
14	described in paragraphs (1) through (3) of subsection (b)
15	of this Section.
16	(2) The parties shall have the right to compel
17	depositions under this Section by subpoena.
18	(3) The parties shall facilitate discovery and make
19	reasonable attempts to resolve differences over
20	discovery.
21	(4) In any case, including a case involving
22	multiple defendants, no person may be deposed more than
23	once except by consent of the parties.
24	(f) In determining whether to grant leave for the taking
25	of depositions under this Section, the court shall consider
26	the interests of justice, the availability of the evidence
27	through other means, and any other factors deemed relevant by
28	the court.
29	(g) In cases in which the death penalty is sought, the
30	costs of a deposition shall be paid from the Capital
31	Litigation Trust Fund. In all other cases, costs of the
32	deposition shall be borne by the party requesting the
33	deposition. If a county may be obligated to spend moneys for
34	the production of a transcript of a deposition, a party may

1	not order a copy of the transcript unless:
2	(1) the State and any defendant agree that the
3	deposition should be transcribed and that the deposed
4	witness is material; or
5	(2) the transcript is ordered by the court on a
6	showing that the deposed witness is material.
7	(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (b), a
8	witness who testifies under oath and is subject to
9	cross-examination at a preliminary hearing, trial, hearing,
10	or other proceeding and who narrates, describes, or explains
11	an event or condition of which the witness had personal
12	knowledge relevant to the pending action shall not be
13	required to submit to a discovery deposition.
14	(i) The defendant shall be barred from attending any
15	discovery deposition.
16	(j) A failure to depose any individual does not give rise
17	to an inference of ineffective assistance of counsel.
18	(k) In all other aspects, depositions taken under this
19	Section shall be governed by the Code of Civil Procedure and
20	the Rules of the Supreme Court that are applicable to
21	depositions in civil actions.
22	(1) This Section applies to all actions initiated on or
23	after its effective date.
24	(m) The provisions of this Section are severable under

25 Section 1.31 of the Statute on Statutes.
