1 false certification under Section 1-109 of the Code of Civil 2 Procedure and perjury under Section 32-2 of the Criminal Code of 1961; and further provided, however, that when a citation 3 4 is issued on a Uniform Traffic Ticket or Uniform Conservation Ticket (in a form prescribed by the Conference of Chief 5 6 Circuit Judges and filed with the Supreme Court), the copy of 7 such Uniform Ticket which is filed with the circuit court 8 constitutes a complaint to which the defendant may plead, 9 unless he specifically requests that a verified complaint be filed. 10

11 (c) When the State seeks an enhanced sentence because of 12 a prior conviction, the charge shall also state the intention 13 to seek an enhanced sentence and shall state such prior conviction so as to give notice to the defendant. However, 14 15 the fact of such prior conviction and the State's intention 16 to seek an enhanced sentence are not elements of the offense and may not be disclosed to the jury during trial unless 17 otherwise permitted by issues properly raised during such 18 19 trial. For the purposes of this Section, "enhanced sentence" 20 means a sentence which is increased by a prior conviction 21 from one classification of offense to another higher level classification of offense set forth in Section 5-5-1 of the 22 23 "Unified Code of Corrections", approved July 26, 1972, as amended; it does not include an increase in the sentence 24 25 applied within the same level of classification of offense.

26 (c-5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in all cases in which the imposition of the death penalty is not 27 a possibility, if an alleged fact (other than the fact of a 28 29 prior conviction) is not an element of an offense but is 30 sought to be used to increase the range of penalties for the offense beyond the statutory maximum that could otherwise be 31 32 imposed for the offense, the alleged fact must be included in 33 charging instrument or otherwise provided to the the 34 defendant through a written notification before trial,

1 submitted to a trier of fact as an aggravating factor, and 2 proved beyond a reasonable doubt. Failure to prove the fact beyond a reasonable doubt is not a bar to a conviction for 3 4 commission of the offense, but is a bar to increasing, based 5 on that fact, the range of penalties for the offense beyond 6 the statutory maximum that could otherwise be imposed for 7 that offense. Nothing in this subsection (c-5) requires the 8 imposition of a sentence that increases the range of 9 penalties for the offense beyond the statutory maximum that could otherwise be imposed for the offense if the imposition 10 11 of that sentence is not required by law.

(d) At any time prior to trial, the State on motion shall be permitted to amend the charge, whether brought by indictment, information or complaint, to make the charge comply with subsection (c) or (c-5) of this Section. Nothing in Section 103-5 of this Code precludes such an amendment or a written notification made in accordance with subsection (c-5) of this Section.

(e) The provisions of Article 33B of the Criminal Code of 1961, as amended, shall not be affected by this Section.
