4 Section 5. The Property Tax Code is amended by changing
5 Section 15-172 as follows:

6 (35 ILCS 200/15-172)

7 Sec. 15-172. Senior Citizens Assessment Freeze Homestead
8 Exemption.

9 (a) This Section may be cited as the Senior Citizens
10 Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption.

11 (b) As used in this Section:

12 "Applicant" means an individual who has filed an 13 application under this Section.

14 "Base amount" means the base year equalized assessed value
15 of the residence plus the first year's equalized assessed value 16 of any added improvements which increased the assessed value of 17 the residence after the base year.

18 "Base year" means the taxable year prior to the taxable 19 year for which the applicant first qualifies and applies for 20 the exemption provided that in the prior taxable year the 21 property was improved with a permanent structure that was 22 occupied as a residence by the applicant who was liable for 23 paying real property taxes on the property and who was either 24 (i) an owner of record of the property or had legal or 25 equitable interest in the property as evidenced by a written 26 instrument or (ii) had a legal or equitable interest as a 27 lessee in the parcel of property that was single family 28 residence. If in any subsequent taxable year for which the 29 applicant applies and qualifies for the exemption the equalized
30 assessed value of the residence is less than the equalized 31 assessed value in the existing base year (provided that such 32 equalized assessed value is not based on an assessed value that

1 results from a temporary irregularity in the property that 2 reduces the assessed value for one or more taxable years), then 3 that subsequent taxable year shall become the base year until a 4 new base year is established under the terms of this paragraph.
5 For taxable year 1999 only, the Chief County Assessment Officer
6 shall review (i) all taxable years for which the applicant 7 applied and qualified for the exemption and (ii) the existing 8 base year. The assessment officer shall select as the new base 9 year the year with the lowest equalized assessed value. An 10 equalized assessed value that is based on an assessed value 11 that results from a temporary irregularity in the property that 12 reduces the assessed value for one or more taxable years shall 13 not be considered the lowest equalized assessed value. The 14 selected year shall be the base year for taxable year 1999 and 15 thereafter until a new base year is established under the terms 16 of this paragraph.

17 "Chief County Assessment Officer" means the County 18 Assessor or Supervisor of Assessments of the county in which 19 the property is located.

20 "Disabled person" means a person unable to engage in any 21 substantial gainful activity by reason of a medically 22 determinable physical or mental impairment which can be 23 expected to result in death or has lasted or can be expected to 24 last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months.
25 Applicants seeking an assessment freeze under this Section must 26 submit proof of disability in any form and manner that the 27 Department, by rule, requires. Proof that a person is eligible 28 to receive disability benefits under the Federal Social 29 Security Act shall constitute proof of disability for purposes
30 of this Act. The issuance of an Illinois Disabled Person
31 Identification Card stating that the claimant is under a Class
32 2 disability, as defined in Section 4A of The Illinois
33 Identification Card Act, shall constitute proof that the person 34 named thereon is a disabled person for purposes of this Act. A 35 person not covered under the Federal Social Security Act and 36 not presenting a Disabled Person Identification Card stating

1 that the claimant is under a Class 2 disability must be 2 examined by a physician designated by the Department to 3 determine, using the same standards as used by the Social 4 Security Administration, his or her status as a disabled 5 person. The costs of any required examination must be borne by 6 the claimant.

7 "Equalized assessed value" means the assessed value as 8 equalized by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

9 "Household" means the applicant, the spouse of the 10 applicant, and all persons using the residence of the applicant 11 as their principal place of residence.

12 "Household income" means the combined income of the members
13 of a household for the calendar year preceding the taxable 14 year.

15 "Income" has the same meaning as provided in Section 3.07
16 of the Senior Citizens and Disabled Persons Property Tax Relief 17 and Pharmaceutical Assistance Act, except that, beginning in 18 assessment year 2001, "income" does not include veteran's 19 benefits or, beginning in the assessment year 2005, any benefit 20 paid during the taxable year, under the federal Social Security 21 Act to a disabled person who is a member of the household and 22 is receiving care from the applicant or other member of the 23 household.

24 "Internal Revenue Code of 1986" means the United States
25 Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or any successor law or laws
26 relating to federal income taxes in effect for the year 27 preceding the taxable year.

28 "Life care facility that qualifies as a cooperative" means
29 a facility as defined in Section 2 of the Life Care Facilities 30 Act.

31 "Residence" means the principal dwelling place and 32 appurtenant structures used for residential purposes in this 33 State occupied on January 1 of the taxable year by a household 34 and so much of the surrounding land, constituting the parcel 35 upon which the dwelling place is situated, as is used for 36 residential purposes. If the Chief County Assessment Officer

1 has established a specific legal description for a portion of 2 property constituting the residence, then that portion of 3 property shall be deemed the residence for the purposes of this 4 Section.

5 "Taxable year" means the calendar year during which ad 6 valorem property taxes payable in the next succeeding year are 7 levied.

8 (c) Beginning in taxable year 1994, a senior citizens
9 assessment freeze homestead exemption is granted for real 10 property that is improved with a permanent structure that is 11 occupied as a residence by an applicant who (i) is 65 years of 12 age or older during the taxable year, (ii) has a household
13 income of $35,000 or less prior to taxable year 1999, $40,000
14 or less in taxable years 1999 through 2003, and $45,000 or less 15 in taxable year 2004 and thereafter, (iii) is liable for paying 16 real property taxes on the property, and (iv) is an owner of 17 record of the property or has a legal or equitable interest in 18 the property as evidenced by a written instrument. This 19 homestead exemption shall also apply to a leasehold interest in 20 a parcel of property improved with a permanent structure that 21 is a single family residence that is occupied as a residence by 22 a person who (i) is 65 years of age or older during the taxable 23 year, (ii) has a household income of $35,000 or less prior to 24 taxable year 1999, $40,000 or less in taxable years 1999 25 through 2003, and $45,000 or less in taxable year 2004 and 26 thereafter, (iii) has a legal or equitable ownership interest 27 in the property as lessee, and (iv) is liable for the payment 28 of real property taxes on that property.

29 The amount of this exemption shall be the equalized 30 assessed value of the residence in the taxable year for which 31 application is made minus the base amount.

32 When the applicant is a surviving spouse of an applicant
33 for a prior year for the same residence for which an exemption
34 under this Section has been granted, the base year and base 35 amount for that residence are the same as for the applicant for 36 the prior year.

1 Each year at the time the assessment books are certified to 2 the County Clerk, the Board of Review or Board of Appeals shall 3 give to the County Clerk a list of the assessed values of 4 improvements on each parcel qualifying for this exemption that 5 were added after the base year for this parcel and that 6 increased the assessed value of the property.

7 In the case of land improved with an apartment building
8 owned and operated as a cooperative or a building that is a 9 life care facility that qualifies as a cooperative, the maximum 10 reduction from the equalized assessed value of the property is 11 limited to the sum of the reductions calculated for each unit 12 occupied as a residence by a person or persons (i) 65 years of 13 age or older, (ii) with a household income of $35,000 or less 14 prior to taxable year 1999, $40,000 or less in taxable years
15 1999 through 2003, and $45,000 or less in taxable year 2004 and 16 thereafter, (iii) who is liable, by contract with the owner or 17 owners of record, for paying real property taxes on the 18 property, and (iv) who is an owner of record of a legal or 19 equitable interest in the cooperative apartment building, 20 other than a leasehold interest. In the instance of a 21 cooperative where a homestead exemption has been granted under 22 this Section, the cooperative association or its management 23 firm shall credit the savings resulting from that exemption 24 only to the apportioned tax liability of the owner who 25 qualified for the exemption. Any person who willfully refuses 26 to credit that savings to an owner who qualifies for the 27 exemption is guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

28 When a homestead exemption has been granted under this 29 Section and an applicant then becomes a resident of a facility 30 licensed under the Nursing Home Care Act, the exemption shall 31 be granted in subsequent years so long as the residence (i) 32 continues to be occupied by the qualified applicant's spouse or 33 (ii) if remaining unoccupied, is still owned by the qualified 34 applicant for the homestead exemption.

35 Beginning January 1, 1997, when an individual dies who 36 would have qualified for an exemption under this Section, and

1 the surviving spouse does not independently qualify for this 2 exemption because of age, the exemption under this Section 3 shall be granted to the surviving spouse for the taxable year 4 preceding and the taxable year of the death, provided that, 5 except for age, the surviving spouse meets all other 6 qualifications for the granting of this exemption for those 7 years.

8 When married persons maintain separate residences, the 9 exemption provided for in this Section may be claimed by only 10 one of such persons and for only one residence.

11 For taxable year 1994 only, in counties having less than 12 3,000,000 inhabitants, to receive the exemption, a person shall 13 submit an application by February 15, 1995 to the Chief County 14 Assessment Officer of the county in which the property is 15 located. In counties having 3,000,000 or more inhabitants, for 16 taxable year 1994 and all subsequent taxable years, to receive 17 the exemption, a person may submit an application to the Chief 18 County Assessment Officer of the county in which the property
19 is located during such period as may be specified by the Chief
20 County Assessment Officer. The Chief County Assessment Officer
21 in counties of 3,000,000 or more inhabitants shall annually 22 give notice of the application period by mail or by 23 publication. In counties having less than 3,000,000
24 inhabitants, beginning with taxable year 1995 and thereafter,
25 to receive the exemption, a person shall submit an application
26 by July 1 of each taxable year to the Chief County Assessment 27 Officer of the county in which the property is located. A 28 county may, by ordinance, establish a date for submission of 29 applications that is different than July 1. The applicant shall 30 submit with the application an affidavit of the applicant's 31 total household income, age, marital status (and if married the 32 name and address of the applicant's spouse, if known), and 33 principal dwelling place of members of the household on January 34 1 of the taxable year. The Department shall establish, by rule, 35 a method for verifying the accuracy of affidavits filed by 36 applicants under this Section. The applications shall be

1 clearly marked as applications for the Senior Citizens
2 Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption.

3 Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, in 4 counties having fewer than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an 5 applicant fails to file the application required by this 6 Section in a timely manner and this failure to file is due to a 7 mental or physical condition sufficiently severe so as to 8 render the applicant incapable of filing the application in a 9 timely manner, the Chief County Assessment Officer may extend 10 the filing deadline for a period of 30 days after the applicant
11 regains the capability to file the application, but in no case 12 may the filing deadline be extended beyond 3 months of the 13 original filing deadline. In order to receive the extension 14 provided in this paragraph, the applicant shall provide the 15 Chief County Assessment Officer with a signed statement from 16 the applicant's physician stating the nature and extent of the 17 condition, that, in the physician's opinion, the condition was 18 so severe that it rendered the applicant incapable of filing 19 the application in a timely manner, and the date on which the 20 applicant regained the capability to file the application.

21 Beginning January 1, 1998, notwithstanding any other 22 provision to the contrary, in counties having fewer than 23 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an applicant fails to file the 24 application required by this Section in a timely manner and 25 this failure to file is due to a mental or physical condition 26 sufficiently severe so as to render the applicant incapable of 27 filing the application in a timely manner, the Chief County
28 Assessment Officer may extend the filing deadline for a period 29 of 3 months. In order to receive the extension provided in this 30 paragraph, the applicant shall provide the Chief County
31 Assessment Officer with a signed statement from the applicant's 32 physician stating the nature and extent of the condition, and 33 that, in the physician's opinion, the condition was so severe 34 that it rendered the applicant incapable of filing the 35 application in a timely manner.

36 In counties having less than 3,000,000 inhabitants, if an

1 applicant was denied an exemption in taxable year 1994 and the 2 denial occurred due to an error on the part of an assessment 3 official, or his or her agent or employee, then beginning in 4 taxable year 1997 the applicant's base year, for purposes of 5 determining the amount of the exemption, shall be 1993 rather 6 than 1994. In addition, in taxable year 1997, the applicant's 7 exemption shall also include an amount equal to (i) the amount 8 of any exemption denied to the applicant in taxable year 1995 9 as a result of using 1994, rather than 1993, as the base year, 10 (ii) the amount of any exemption denied to the applicant in 11 taxable year 1996 as a result of using 1994, rather than 1993, 12 as the base year, and (iii) the amount of the exemption 13 erroneously denied for taxable year 1994.

14 For purposes of this Section, a person who will be 65 years 15 of age during the current taxable year shall be eligible to 16 apply for the homestead exemption during that taxable year.
17 Application shall be made during the application period in 18 effect for the county of his or her residence.

19 The Chief County Assessment Officer may determine the 20 eligibility of a life care facility that qualifies as a 21 cooperative to receive the benefits provided by this Section by 22 use of an affidavit, application, visual inspection, 23 questionnaire, or other reasonable method in order to insure 24 that the tax savings resulting from the exemption are credited 25 by the management firm to the apportioned tax liability of each 26 qualifying resident. The Chief County Assessment Officer may 27 request reasonable proof that the management firm has so 28 credited that exemption.

29 Except as provided in this Section, all information 30 received by the chief county assessment officer or the 31 Department from applications filed under this Section, or from 32 any investigation conducted under the provisions of this 33 Section, shall be confidential, except for official purposes or 34 pursuant to official procedures for collection of any State or 35 local tax or enforcement of any civil or criminal penalty or 36 sanction imposed by this Act or by any statute or ordinance

1 imposing a State or local tax. Any person who divulges any such 2 information in any manner, except in accordance with a proper 3 judicial order, is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

4 Nothing contained in this Section shall prevent the 5 Director or chief county assessment officer from publishing or 6 making available reasonable statistics concerning the 7 operation of the exemption contained in this Section in which 8 the contents of claims are grouped into aggregates in such a 9 way that information contained in any individual claim shall 10 not be disclosed.

11 (d) Each Chief County Assessment Officer shall annually
12 publish a notice of availability of the exemption provided 13 under this Section. The notice shall be published at least 60 14 days but no more than 75 days prior to the date on which the 15 application must be submitted to the Chief County Assessment 16 Officer of the county in which the property is located. The 17 notice shall appear in a newspaper of general circulation in 18 the county.

19 Notwithstanding Sections 6 and 8 of the State Mandates Act, 20 no reimbursement by the State is required for the 21 implementation of any mandate created by this Section.

24 becoming law.
