HB4523 Engrossed

1 AN ACT concerning criminal law.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, 3 represented in the General Assembly:

Section 5. The Criminal Code of 1961 is amended by changing
Section 12-38 as follows:

6 (720 ILCS 5/12-38)

Sec. 12-38. Restrictions on purchase or acquisition of corrosive or caustic acid.

9 (a) A person seeking to purchase a substance which is 10 regulated by Title 16 CFR Section 1500.129 of the Federal 11 Caustic Poison Act and is required to contain the words "causes 12 severe burns" as the affirmative statement of principal hazard 13 on its label, must prior to taking possession:

14 (1) provide a valid driver's license or other 15 government-issued identification showing the person's 16 name, date of birth, and photograph; and

17 (2) sign a log documenting the name and address of the 18 person, date and time of the transaction, and the brand,
19 product name and net weight of the item.

(b) Exemption. The requirements of subsection (a) do not apply to batteries or household products. For the purposes of this Section, "household product" means any product which is customarily produced or distributed for sale for consumption or

1 use, or customarily stored, by individuals in or about the 2 household, including, but not limited to, products which are 3 customarily produced and distributed for use in or about a 4 household as a cleaning agent, drain cleaner, pesticide, epoxy, 5 paint, stain, or similar substance.

6 (c) Rules and Regulations. The Illinois Department of State 7 Police shall have the authority to promulgate rules for the 8 implementation and enforcement of this Section.

9 (d) Sentence. Any violation of this Section is a business 10 offense for which a fine not exceeding $150 for the first 11 violation, $500 for the second violation, or $1,500 for the 12 third and subsequent violations within a 12-month period shall 13 be imposed.

14 Preemption. The regulation of the purchase (e) or 15 acquisition, or both, of a caustic or corrosive substance and 16 any registry regarding the sale or possession, or both, of a 17 caustic or corrosive substance is an exclusive power and function of the State. A home rule unit may not regulate the 18 purchase or acquisition of caustic or corrosive substances and 19 20 any ordinance or local law contrary to this Section is declared void. This is a denial and limitation of home rule powers and 21 22 functions under subsection (h) of Section 6 of Article VII of 23 the Illinois Constitution.
