(a) Prior to the appointment of a quardian under this Article, pending an appeal in relation to the appointment, or pending the completion of a citation proceeding brought pursuant to Section 23-3 of this Act, or upon a guardian's death, incapacity, or resignation, the court may appoint a temporary quardian upon a showing of the necessity therefor for the immediate welfare and protection of the alleged disabled person or his or her estate on such notice and subject to such conditions as the court may prescribe. In determining the necessity for temporary quardianship, the immediate welfare and protection of the alleged disabled person and his or her estate shall be of paramount concern, and the interests of the petitioner, any care provider, or any other party shall not outweigh the interests of the alleged disabled person. The temporary quardian shall have all of the powers and duties of a quardian of the person or of the estate which are specifically

2	actual harm identified by the court that necessitates temporary
3	guardianship or any extension thereof.
4	(b) The temporary guardianship shall expire within 60 days
5	after the appointment or whenever a guardian is regularly
6	appointed, whichever occurs first. No extension shall be 7	granted except: Except pending the disposition on appeal of an
8	adjudication of disability, no extension shall be granted.
9	(1) In a case where there has been an adjudication of 10	disability, an extension shall be granted:
11	(i) pending the disposition on appeal of an
12	adjudication of disability;
13	(ii) pending the completion of a citation
14	<pre>proceeding brought pursuant to Section 23-3;</pre>
15	(iii) pending the appointment of a successor
16	quardian in a case where the former quardian has
17	resigned, has become incapacitated, or is deceased; or 18	(iv) where the quardian's powers have been
19	suspended pursuant to a court order.
20	(2) In a case where there has not been an adjudication
21	of disability, an extension shall be granted pending the
22	disposition of a petition brought pursuant to Section 11a-8
23	so long as the court finds it is in the best interest of 24	the alleged disabled person to extend the temporary guardianship so as to protect the alleged disabled person from any potential abuse, neglect, self-neglect,

1	exploitation, or other harm and such extension lasts no
2	more than 120 days from the date the temporary guardian was
3	originally appointed.
4	The However, the ward shall have the right any time after 5	the appointment of a temporary guardian is made to petition the 6	court to revoke the appointment of the temporary guardian.
