4 Section 5. The Electrologist Licensing Act is amended by 5 changing Section 33 as follows:

6 (225 ILCS 412/33)

7 (Section scheduled to be repealed on January 1, 2014)

8 Sec. 33. Grandfather provision.

9 (a) For a period of 12 months after the filing of the 10 original administrative rules adopted under this Act, the 11 Department may issue a license to any individual who, in 12 addition to meeting the requirements set forth in paragraphs
13 (1), (2), (3), and (4) of Section 30, can document employment 14 as an electrologist and has received remuneration for 15 practicing electrology for a period of 3 years and can show
16 proof of one of the following: (i) current board certification
17 by a national electrology certifying body approved by the 18 Department; or (ii) completion of 30 continuing education units
19 in electrology approved by the Department.

20 (b) The Department may issue a license to an individual who 21 failed to apply for licensure under subsection (a) of this 22 Section on or before February 22, 2006 (one year after the 23 effective date of the rules adopted under this Act), but who

1 otherwise meets the qualifications set forth in subsection (a)
2 of this Section, provided that the individual submits a
3 completed application for licensure as required within 90 days
4 after the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 96th
5 General Assembly.

6 (c) The Department may issue a license to an individual who
7 failed to apply for licensure under subsection (a) of this
8 Section on or before February 22, 2006 (one year after the 9 effective date of the rules adopted under this Act), but who
10 otherwise meets the qualifications set forth in subsection (a)
11 of this Section, provided that the individual submits a
12 completed application for licensure as required within 90 days
13 after the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 97th
14 General Assembly.
