The provisions of Section 3-605 shall govern the 7 transportation of the respondent to a mental health facility, except to the extent that those provisions are inconsistent 8 9 with this Section. 10 (2) Records or communications may be disclosed in a 11 civil proceeding after the recipient's death when the 12 recipient's physical mental condition or has been introduced as an element of a claim or defense by any party 13 14 claiming or defending through or as a beneficiary of the 15 recipient, provided the court finds, after in camera 16 examination of the evidence, that it is relevant, 17 probative, and otherwise clearly admissible; that other satisfactory evidence is not available regarding the facts 18 19 sought to be established by such evidence; and that 20 disclosure is more important to the interests of 21 substantial justice than protection from any injury which 22 disclosure is likely to cause.

(3) In the event of a claim made or an action filed by a recipient, or, following the recipient's death, by any party claiming as a beneficiary of the recipient for injury caused in the course of providing services to such
