HOUSE RESOLUTION

2 WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois House of 3 Representatives are saddened to learn of the death of Richard 4 "Dick" Everett Fallow of Davenport, Iowa, who passed away on 5 April 13, 2013; and

6 WHEREAS, Richard Fallow was born on August 23, 1920, in 7 Hartford, Connecticut, to Everett and Gladys Bennett Fallow; in 8 1937, while on a youth hostel bicycle trip to Europe, his life
9 would be changed forever by the poverty and war he witnessed 10 firsthand; and

11 WHEREAS, Richard Fallow graduated from Amherst College in 12 1942; he joined the American Field Service during World War II
13 and served as an ambulance driver for 2 years; he was assigned 14 to the 8th British Army in North Africa; while volunteering for 15 the AFS, he witnessed the poor treatment and living conditions
16 the Jewish population faced; and

17 WHEREAS, Upon returning home, Richard Fallow began working 18 for the United Electrical and Radio Workers Union; he fought 19 for workers' rights and continued to organize for fair and 20 equal business laws for employees, which eventually led him to 21 Sioux County, Iowa; it was there that he met his wife, 22 Wilhelmina "Mickey" DeVries; and

1 WHEREAS, In 1951, Richard Fallow and his wife, Mickey were 2 united in marriage; they moved to Davenport, Iowa, in 1952 and 3 started their family, which includes 3 daughters; and

4 WHEREAS, Richard Fallow continued to be active with labor
5 unions and joined the staff of the National AFL-CIO, serving as 6 an area director of the Committee on Political Education
7 (COPE); his contributions to the workforce were exemplary, 8 always conscious of the well-being of workers and their 9 families and striving constantly to improve the laws that 10 protect the American worker; he officially retired in 1988 from 11 COPE; and

12 WHEREAS, At 87 years old, Richard Fallow was awarded with 13 the first-ever Lifetime Achievement Award from the East Central 14 Iowa-Northwestern Illinois AFL-CIO Hall of Fame; he continued
15 to encourage others to work toward the ultimate goal of making 16 the United States a better place to live and work; and

17 WHEREAS, Richard Fallow had a great compassion toward 18 society as a whole, and he passed those same values on to his 19 children and grandchildren; he will be lovingly remembered as 20 not only a pioneer activist for the labor movement but also as 21 a devoted husband, father, and grandfather; and

1 WHEREAS, Richard Fallow was a musician, photographer, and 2 organic gardener; he was a member of the Quad City Regional 3 Musician's Union-Local 67, National Alliance of Retired
4 Americans, Progressive Action for the Common Good, along with 5 other long-standing associations through the National 6 Federation of Labor; therefore, be it

7 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 8 NINETY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that 9 we mourn the passing of Richard Fallow, and extend our sincere 10 condolences to his family, friends, and all who knew and loved
11 him; and be it further

12 RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 13 presented to the family of Richard Fallow as an expression of 14 our deepest sympathy.
