23 responsibilities related to the functions of the Senior Health
24 Insurance Program shall be transferred from the Department of 25 Insurance and delivered to the Department on Aging for 26 continuation, modification, or termination, as appropriate,

1 including, but not limited to, material in electronic or

3 provided, however, that the delivery of such information shall 4 not violate any applicable confidentiality constraints.

5 (g) All unexpended appropriations and the balances of any 6 funds, grants, donations, or other moneys available for use by 7 the Department of Insurance in connection with the functions of 21 or employees.

22 (i) Every person or entity to whom powers, duties, rights, 23 or responsibilities are transferred under this Section is 24 subject to the same obligations and duties and any penalties,
25 civil or criminal, arising therefrom, and has the same rights 26 arising from the exercise of those powers, duties, rights, and

1 responsibilities, as are prescribed by law in connection with 2 the exercise of those powers, duties, rights, and 3 responsibilities.

4 (j) Every officer of the Department on Aging shall, for any 5 offense, be subject to the same penalty or penalties, civil or 6 criminal, as are prescribed by existing law for the same 7 offense by any officer of the Department of Insurance whose 8 powers or duties were transferred under this amendatory Act of 9 the 98th General Assembly.

10 (k) Whenever reports or notices are required to be made or 11 given or papers or documents furnished or served by any person
12 to or upon the Department of Insurance in connection with any 13 of the functions of the Senior Health Insurance Program
14 transferred by this amendatory Act of the 98th General
15 Assembly, the same shall be made, given, furnished, or served
16 in the same manner to or upon the Department on Aging.

21 regarding the functions of the Senior Health Insurance Program 22 before the effective date of Executive Order 2013-1; such 23 actions or proceedings may be prosecuted and continued by the 24 Department on Aging.

25 (m) This amendatory Act of the 98th General Assembly does 26 not affect the legality of any rules relating to the functions

14 rule amendments, and rule recodifications using the procedures
15 available under the Illinois Administrative Act as appropriate
16 to effectuate this amendatory Act of the 98th General Assembly, 17 except that existing Title, Part, and Section numbering for the 18 affected rules may be retained.

19 (n) To the extent necessary or prudent to fully implement 20 the intent of this Section, the Department of Insurance and the
